

employee[ˌemplɔɪˈiː, ɪmˈplɔɪˈiː] n

рабочий; служащий; работающий по найму

the mill's employees - рабочие и служащие фабрики

employee magazine - журнал для рабочих и служащих (какой-л.) компании employee s' insurance - страхование рабочих или служащих, социальное страхование employee bargaining agent - амер. представитель работающих по найму, отстаивающий их интересыemployee

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

em·ploy·ee [employee employees] BrE [ɪmˈplɔɪi] NAme [ɪmˈplɔɪi] noun

a person who is paid to work for sb

• The firm has over 500 employees.

• government employees

• employee rights/relationsThesaurus:employee noun C

• The firm has over 500 employees.

worker • BrE member of staff • especially AmE staff member •a/an full-time/part-time/male/female/experienced/key employee/worker/member of staff/staff membera permanent/junior/senior employee/member of staff/staff memberhave/employ/dismiss/fire/sack a/an employee/worker/member of staff/staff memberExample Bank:

- Freelance workers do not enjoy the benefits of employee status.
- In addition to a competitive salary, the company offers attractive employee benefits.
- Maintaining a diverse employee base requires ongoing commitment.
- The company has only 60 employees.
- The company has worked to attract older employees.
- The company made hundreds of employees redundant.
- The retail industry loses $13 billion annually to employee theft.
- The value of state employee pension plans has plunged over the past three years.
- We have around 100 full-time employees.
- Why do my employees keep quitting?
- a civilian employee of the Army
- a disgruntled employee seeking revenge
- a fair reason for dismissing an employee
- an employee who sued for unpaid overtime
- employees who can perform comfortably in a highly diverse work environment
- employees who work more than 20 hours per week
- the company's battle to recruit and retain employees
- She has campaigned for employee rights over the last 25 years.

employee

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

em·ploy·ee S2 W2 /ɪmˈplɔɪ-i-ɪ, ˌemplɔɪˈiː/ BrE AmE noun [countable][Word Family: noun: ↑employee, ↑employer, ↑employment ≠ ↑unemployment, ↑unemployed, ↑employ; adjective: employed ≠ ↑unemployed, ↑employable ≠ ↑unemployable; verb: ↑employ]someone who is paid to work for someone else SYN worker:

• a government employee

• • •

COLLOCATIONS■ adjectives

- a full-time/part-time employee We now have 110 full-time employees.
- a permanent/temporary employee Some of the temporary employees were later hired as permanent staff.
- a senior/junior employee The company also offers substantial bonuses to senior employees.
- a male/female employee The majority of the female employees are under 30.
- a former employee The company is being sued by three former employees.
- a retired employee They are for an increase in pension payments to retired employees.

■ verbs

- have employees The Birmingham-based company has over 200 employees.
- recruit employees (=offer them jobs) We are recruiting employees for our IT division.
- lay off employees (=stop employing them because there is no work for them to do) Unions fear that many part-time employees will be laid off.
- make employees redundant (=stop employing them because there is no work for them to do) Crossways was nearing bankruptcy and had to make 720 employees redundant.
- dismiss/sack an employee (=stop employing them because they have behaved badly or broken a rule) Seven employees were dismissed for misconduct.
- an employee joins a company/firm etc Employees who join the firm after April receive a percentage of the annual bonus.
- an employee leaves When a senior employee leaves the company, we hold an exit interview.

THESAURUS

- worker someone who does a particular type of job, or someone who works for an organization but is not a manager: a post-office worker | The workers are threatening to go on strike. | The report shows that male manual workers earn twice as much as female workers.
- employee someone who has a job, especially a permanent job, with a particular company or organization: Employees of the airline get generous reductions on the cost of flights.
- member of staff/staff member one of the people who work for a company, organization, school etc - used especially in official contexts: Training opportunities are available to all members of staff. | Several staff members complained about his increasing strange behaviour.
- colleague (also coworker especially American English) someone you work with – use this especially about people who do professional jobs in offices, schools etc: I'd like you to meet a colleague of mine, Jean-Michel Blanc. | What should you do if a co-worker is injured?
- workforce all the people that work in a country, industry, or large organization: Women make up 41% of the workforce.
- staff all the people who work in a company, organization, school etc: The staff were clearly worried about rumours of job losses. | sales staff

employee

Freakuency Pack

12500 1099<sup>MCW</sup>

15000 446<sup>COCA</sup>

RANGE: 1k EMPLOY 108975

employ 4661

employed 11259

employee 12141

employees 32896

employer 6514

employers 9164

employing 2260

employment 14237

employs 2617

employable 152

unemployed 3567

unemployable 81

unemployment 9426

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

6592 3417<sup>12123</sup> nn1

8 227873<sup>13</sup> nnu

4 393786<sup>5</sup> jj