

garb

I

1. [gɑ:b] n

- 1) наряд, одеяние, костюм
 - clerical garb - облачение священника
 - fantastic garb - фантастический/причудливый/ наряд
 - in Turkish garb - в турецком костюме
 - in the garb of a sailor - в одежде матроса
- 2) вид, маска
 - his usual garb of indifference - свойственное ему напускное равнодушие

2. [gɑ:b] v

- 1) одевать, облачать
 - to be garbed in smth. - быть одетым во что-л.
- 2) refl одеваться
 - to garb oneself in motley - облачиться в шутовской наряд
 - we garbed ourselves in black - мы надели траур

II

[gɑ:b] n гербальд.

сноп ржи

garb

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

garb [garb garbs garbed garbing] BrE [gɑːb] NAme [gɑːrb] noun

uncountable (formal or humorous)

clothes, especially unusual clothes or those worn by a particular type of person

- prison garb
- He was dressed in Chinese garb and sporting a pigtail.

Word Origin:

late 16th cent.: via French from Italian garbo 'elegance', of Germanic origin; related to ↑gear.

Example Bank:

- Some were in uniform, others in civilian garb.

garb

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

garb /gɑːb/ BrE AmE noun [uncountable]

[Date: 1500-1600; Origin: Early French garbe 'gracefulness', from Italian garbo]

formal a particular style of clothing, especially clothes that show your type of work or look unusual:
 priestly garb

garb

Freakuency Pack

12500 12198^{MCW}
 15000 8549^{COCA}
 RANGE: 14k GARB 1007
 garb 844
 garbed 135
 garbs 28
 COCA 500k Unlemmatized
 751 23429⁸⁴⁴ nn1