

caddie['kædi] = *caddy*²

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

caddiecad·die [caddie caddies caddied caddying] (also caddy) noun, verb BrE ['kædi]" NAmE ['kædi]"noun (pl. cad·dies) (in ↑golf)a person who helps a player by carrying his or her ↑clubs and equipment during a gameWord Origin:

mid 17th cent. (originally Scots) from French ↑cadet. The original term denoted a gentleman who joined the army with household commission, intending to earn his profession and follow a military career, later becoming to mean 'odd-job man'. The current sense dates from the late 18th cent.

verb (cad·dies, caddy·ing, cad·died, cad·died) intransitiveto act as a ↑caddie in the game of ↑golfVerb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	caddie
	BrE / 'kædi/
	NAmE / 'kædi/
he / she / it	caddies
	BrE / 'kædi/
	NAmE / 'kædi/
past simple, past participle	caddied
	BrE / 'kædi/
	NAmE / 'kædi/
-ing form	caddying
	BrE / 'kædi/
	NAmE / 'kædi/

Word Origin:

mid 17th cent. (originally Scots) from French ↑cadet. The original term denoted a gentleman who joined the army with household commission, intending to earn his profession and follow a military career, later becoming to mean 'odd-job man'. The current sense dates from the late 18th cent.

See also: ↑caddy*caddie

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

caddy² BrE " AmE ", caddie verb (past tense and past participle caddied, present participle caddying, third person singular caddies) [intransitive]to carry ↑golf clubs for someone who is playing golfcaddie

Frequency Pack

12500 12465^{MCW}15000 8203^{COCA}RANGE: 12k CADDIE 1108

caddie 573

caddying 54

caddies 202

caddied 53

caddy 226

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

258 29487⁵⁷³ nn1