shout Apresyan (En-Ru)

1. [∫avt] n

1. громкий крик, возглас cheerful [wild] shout - радостный [дикий] крик involuntary [triumphant] shout - непроизвольный [торжествующий /ликующий/] возглас shouts of joy - радостные крики shouts of despair - вопли отчаяния

the great shouts of the crowd - рёв толпы shouts of laughter - взрывы смеха

to give /to make/ a shout - вскрикнуть, издать крик

- 2. австрал. разг.
- 1) даровой стаканчик вина; угощение
- 2) плата за вино для всей компании to stand a shout - угощать (вином) всю компанию

my shout - моя очередь платить

- 3) пьющая компания
- 3. полигр. проф. восклицательный знак

2. [[avt] v

1. 1) кричать; громко говорить

to shout loudly [furiously] - кричать громко [в бешенстве]

to shout at the top of one's lungs - кричать во всё горло to shout with delight - визжать от восторга to shout at smb. - кричать на кого-л.

to shout for help /for assistance/ - а) звать на помощь; б) взывать о помощи to shout for a candidate - амер. громко выкрикивать имя (своего) кандидата

2) выкрикивать, громко произносить (m x. shout out) to shout one's orders [one's insults] - выкрикивать приказания [оскорбления]

to shout approval- шумно высказывать своё одобрение to shout oneself hoarse - кричать до хрипоты; охрипнуть от крика

2. звать, окликать (mж. shout out) to shout for /to/ smb. - криком звать кого-л.

to shout for /to/ smb. to come - криком подзывать кого-л.

to shout out to smb. - громко звать, окликать кого-л.

they shouted out to each other across the river- они перекликались через реку

3. aвстрал. pase. заказывать выпивку для всей компании, угощать всех присутствующих; платить за выпивку, сигареты u

shout

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

shout [shout shouts shouted shouting] verb, noun BrE [ʃaʊt] * NAmE [ʃaʊt] intransitive, transitive to say sth in a loud voice; to speak loudly/angrily to sb Stop shouting and listen!

- ~ for sth I shouted for help but nobody came.
- ~ at sb Then he started shouting and swearing at her.
- at sb to do sth She shouted at him to shut the gate.
- ~ sth (at/to sb) to shout abuse/encouragement/orders
- ~ that... He shouted that he couldn't swim.
- ~ yourself + adj. She shouted herself hoarse, cheering on the team.
- + speech 'Run!' he shouted.

2. intransitive ~ (out) to make a loud noise

- · She shouted out in pain when she tried to move her leg.
- 3. intransitive, transitive (AustralE, NZE) to buy drinks or food for sb in a bar, restaurant, etc
 - I'll shout— what are you drinking?
 - ~ (sb) sth Who's going to shout me a drink?

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we /they	shout
	BrE / ʃaʊt/
	NAmE /ʃast/
he / she /it	shouts
	BrE / ʃaʊts/
	NAmE /ʃaʊts/
past simple, past participle	shouted
	BrE / ʃaʊtɪd/
	NAmE /ʃastɪd/
-ing form	shouting
	BrE / ʃaʊtɪŋ/
	NAmE /ʃastɪŋ/

Word Origin:

late Middle English: perhaps related to \ints\text{shoot}; compare with Old Norse sk\u00fcta \u00e4a taunt'.

Thesaurus:

shout verb I, T

Stop shouting and listen!

yell • • scream • • cry out (sth) • • bellow • • cheer • • call • • raise your voice • |AmE, informal holler • |written cry • • roar • |disapproving bawl •

Opp: whisper

shout/yell/cry out/call/raise your voice/holler/cry to sb shout/yell/scream/bellow/holler/roar/bawl at sb shout/yell/scream/cry out/bellow/holler/roar in pain/anguish/rage, etc.

Synonyms:

shout

yell • cry • scream • cheer • bellow • raise your voice

These words all mean to say sth in a very loud voice.

shout • to say sth in a loud voice; to speak loudly and often angrily to sb: ■ Stop shouting and listen! ♦ 'Run!' he shouted.

yell • to shout loudly, for example because you are angry, excited, frightened or in pain: ■ She yelled at the boy to get down from the wall.

cry • (rather formal or literary) to shout loudly: • She ran over to the window and cried for help.

scream • to shout sth in a loud high voice because you are afraid, angry or excited: • He screamed at me to stop.

cheer • (especially of a crowd of people) to shout loudly to show support or praise for sb, or to give them encouragement = We all cheered as the team came onto the field.

bellow • to shout in a loud deep voice, especially because you are angry: • 'Quiet!' the teacher bellowed.

raise your voice • to speak loudly to sb, especially because you are angry: • She never once raised her voice to us.

to shout/yell/cry/raise your voice to sb to shout/yell/scream/bellow at sb to shout/yell/cry out/scream/bellow in pain/anguish/rage, etc.

to shout/cry out/scream for joy/excitement/delight, etc.

to shout/yell/cry out/scream with excitement/triumph, etc.

to shout/yell/scream/bellow at sb to do sth

to shout/yell/scream abuse to shout/yell/cry/scream for help

Example Bank:

- 'Go on then!' he shouted back at them.
- 'I'm done for!' he shouted aloud.
- Emily shouted over the din of the alarms.
- He found he was almost shouting.
- · He opened his mouth to shout, but no sound came out.
- He shouted to the driver to stop.
- · I could hear him shouting down the telephone.
- If they shout at you, shout back!
- Jorge shouted up to her.
- · The crowd shouted back in unison.
- There's no need to shout at me!
- They were surrounded by people shouting and screaming.
- We had to shout above the noise of the engines.
- We shouted after him, but he couldn't hear us.
- We shouted for help.
- What were they shouting about?
- to shout in anger/frustration/pain
- to shout with delight/glee/joy
- · 'Just you wait!' she shouted furiously.
- 'Run' he shouted.
- · He shouted that he couldn't swim.
- He started shouting and swearing at her.
- His mother shouted encouragement from the sidelines.
- I shouted for help but no one came.
- Protesters threw stones and shouted abuse at the Senator.
- She shouted out in pain.

Idioms: †give somebody a shout • †in with a shout

Derived $\dagger$shout somebody down = $\dagger$shout something out

noun

- 1. a loud cry of anger, fear, excitement, etc
 - angry shouts
 - a shout of anger
- I heard her warning shout too late.

2. (BrE, informal) a person's turn to buy drinksWhat are you drinking? It's my shout.

Word Origin:

late Middle English: perhaps related to 1shoot; compare with Old Norse skúta 'a taunt'.

Example Bank:

- A great shout of excitement went up as she crossed the line.
- Give me a shout if you'd like to come with us.
- There were shouts of laughter from the crowd.
- With a shout of pain, he pulled his hand away from the hot stove.
- a shout of anger/laughter/victory
- We heard angry shouts coming from the apartment below.

shout

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. shout S2 W2 / [aut / BrE * AmE * verb

1. [intransitive and transitive] to say something very loudly ⇒ scream, yell:

There's no need to shout! I can hear you!

shout at

I wish you'd stop shouting at the children.

shout for

- We could hear them shouting for help.
- 'Watch out!' she shouted, as the car started to move.

shout something at somebody

He was shouting insults at the lorry driver.

shout something to somebody

'He's down here!' she shouted to Alison.

2. shout in pain/anger/frustration etc British English to call out loudly SYN scream American English:

Al shouted in pain.

- 3. shout something from the rooftops to tell everyone about something because you want everyone to know about it
- 4. [intransitive] to write in capital letters in an email, which makes it look as if the writer is angry

COLLOCATIONS

nouns

- shout abuse/insults He was surrounded by a group of boys who shouted abuse at him.
- shout obscenities They came to his apartment, shouting obscenities and threatening him.
- shout slogans They were carrying placards and shouting slogans.
- shout orders The lieutenant was shouting orders at the workmen.
- shout sb's name Then she heard Ferdinando shout her name.
- shout a warning The man had shouted a warning to other passengers just before the blast.
- shout for help I opened my mouth to shout for help.

adverbs

- shout something angrily 'Don't touch me!' he shouted angrily.
- shout something loudly He hears the voice of his downstairs neighbor shouting loudly.

phrases

- shout yourself hoarse (=shout until your throat is sore) Matthew shouted himself hoarse until he was discovered.
- shout of the top of your voice (=shout as loudly as possible) 'Watch out!' he shouted at the top of his voice.
- scream and shout People were screaming and shouting in the streets.

THESAURUS

- shout to say something very loudly: The two men were shouting angrily at each other. I 'Wait for me!' he shouted.
- yell (also holler American English) to shout very loudly, especially because you are angry, excited, or in pain. Yell is more informal than shout The children were yelling at each other across the street. I 'Steve, are you there?' Patti hollered up the stairs.
- call (out) to shout in order to get someone's attention: He called her name but she didn't hear him. | 'Is anybody there?' he called out.
- cry (out) written to shout something loudly, especially because you are in pain, frightened, or very excited: 'I can't move,' Lesley cried. | He cried out in panic. | 'Look what I've found!' she cried.
- scream to shout in a very loud high voice, because you are frightened, unhappy, angry etc: The baby wouldn't stop screaming. | She screamed as she jumped into the cold water. | 'It's my money!' she screamed at him.
- roar written to shout in a loud deep voice: The crowd roared their appreciation. I 'Stop this nonsense!' he roared.
- bellow written to shout in a loud deep voice, especially when you want a lot of people to hear you: He was bellowing orders at the soldiers.
- bawl to shout in a loud and unpleasant way, because you are angry or unhappy: 'What are you doing?' he bawled. | The kids were bawling in the back of the car. | She was always bawling at the children.
- raise your voice to say something more loudly than normal, especially because you are angry: I never heard my father raise his voice.
- cheer if a group of people cheer, they shout as a way of showing their approval: The crowd cheered when the band came on stage.

```
Give me a shout when you're ready to go.
  3. a shout out to somebody informal a message to someone that is broadcast on radio, put on a website etc:
         I just want to give a quick shout out to my friend Dave, who's in hospital at the moment.
  4. sb's shout British English Australian English informal someone's turn to buy drinks:
         It's my shout. Same again?
  5. be in with a shout (of doing something) British English informal to have a chance of winning
shout
                                                                                                                    Freakuency Pack
  <sub>12500</sub>1721MCW
  150001780COCA
  RANGE: 2k SHOUT 21544
    shout 3772
    shouted 8874
    shouting 5641
    shouts 3257
  COCA 500k Unlemmatized
    <sub>1405</sub>15660<sup>1591</sup> vvi
    993186001219 nn1
    83521603962 vv0
```

shout somebody ↔down phrasal verb

shout something ↔ out phrasal verb

AmE

a warning shout

shouts of delight

II. shout² BrE

shout of

An older man tried to shout him down.

noun

Tom gave a shout of laughter when he saw them.

to say something suddenly in a loud voice:

to shout so that someone who is speaking cannot be heard:

Don't shout out the answer in class, put up your hand.

1. [countable] a loud call expressing anger, pain, excitement etc ⇒ scream, yell:

2. give somebody a shout British English spoken to go and find someone and tell them something: