

leadership['li:dəʃɪp] n

- 1) руководство; водительство; управление
- 2) воен. руководство войсками
2. руководство, руководители
3. умение повести за собой (товарищей, массы и т. п.)

leadership

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

lead-er-ship [leadership leaderships] BrE ['li:dəʃɪp] NAmE ['li:dərʃɪp]

noun

1. uncountable the state or position of being a leader
 - a leadership contest
 - The party thrived under his leadership .
 - Who will take over the leadership of the club?
2. uncountable the ability to be a leader or the qualities a good leader should have
 - leadership qualities/skills
 - Strong leadership is needed to captain the team.
 - Many in the party have criticized his lack of leadership.
3. countable + singular or plural verb a group of leaders of a particular organization, etc
 - The party leadership is/are divided

Example Bank:

- He lacks leadership qualities.
- He was praised for his firm leadership.
- In the crisis he showed real leadership.
- It's a crisis that requires strong leadership.
- Leadership in science is moving east.
- Leadership in science now went to the United States.
- Political leadership needs a particular combination of skills .
- She withstood several challenges to her leadership.
- The board is extremely weak and has not taken leadership.
- The movement is deeply divided and lacks clear leadership.
- The philosophy of the company is that leadership development cannot start early enough.
- The school has flourished under the leadership of Mr Buxton.
- There is a leadership vacuum in the party.
- What is really needed is clear leadership from the president.
- When Smith died, Blair took over the leadership of the party.
- her method of asserting personal leadership
- the army's senior leadership
- the hard work of staff and the leadership team
- the opportunity to strengthen our market leadership
- He has once again voiced his criticism of the Football Association's leadership.
- He played an important role in providing political leadership for the working class .
- Several opponents have accused her of an authoritarian style of leadership.
- The announcement was welcomed by the ANC leadership.
- The media are bound to play a huge role in this leadership campaign.
- The party leadership is divided
- The party thrived under her leadership.
- There are reported to have been power struggles amongst the hard-line military leadership.
- There have been disagreements within the leadership of the union.
- the Communist/East German/military leadership

leadership

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

lead-er-ship S3 W2 /'li:dəʃɪp-er-/ BrE [°] AmE [°] noun[Word Family: noun: lead, ↑leader, ↑leadership; adjective: lead, ↑leading; verb: ↑lead]

1. [uncountable and countable] the position of being the leader of a group, organization, country etc
 - leadership of
 - the leadership of the Conservative party
 - under sb's leadership
 - Our prospects of winning an election will be better under his leadership.
 - The US must now take a firm leadership role.
 - the Conservative leadership contest
 - The next leadership election is due in November.
2. [uncountable] the quality of being good at leading a group, organization, country etc:
 - She has great faith in her own leadership qualities.
 - someone with vision and leadership
3. [countable also + plural verb] British English all the people who lead a group, organization, country etc:
 - the country's military leadership

The party leadership are in agreement.

4. [uncountable] the position of being in front of others in an activity or competition:

Leadership in science is important to our nation.

leadership

Freakuency Pack

12500 1936^{MCW}

15000 128^{COCA}

RANGE: 1k LEAD 297675

lead 59304

leader 40209

leaders 50325

leadership 31717

leading 36208

leads 18761

mislead 573

misleading 3379

misleadingly 89

misled 1162

led 55948

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

14816 1331³¹⁶⁵⁴ nn1

60 96438⁶³ nnu