

ticket*1. [ˈtɪkɪt] n*1. билет

railroad [tram] ticket - железнодорожный [трамвайный] билет through ticket - билет прямого сообщения concert [excursion, theatre] ticket - билет на концерт [на экскурсию, в театр] ticket of admittance, entrance ticket - входной билет return ticket - обратный билет lottery ticket - лотерейный билет reader's ticket - читательский билет book of tickets - абонементная книжка /книжечка/season ticket - сезонный билет, сезонка ticket to the exhibition [to the races] - билет на выставку [на скачки] ticket window - кассовое окошко

at military ticket windows - у военных касс to buy tickets ahead of line - покупать билеты вне очереди to take tickets for the opera - купить билеты в оперу to take one's ticket to London /for a London train/ - купить билет до Лондона /на лондонский поезд/to order /to reserve/ a ticket - заказывать билет to work out one's ticket - отрабатывать свой проезд на пароходе [ср. мж. ◇]

to come with a Paris ticket - приехать из Парижа your ticket is not valid - ваш билет недействителен

they felt lucky if they landed tickets to see old movies - они чувствовали себя счастливыми, если им перепали билеты на старые фильмы

2. ярлык

price ticket - этикетка с ценой, ценник

3. 1) квитанция; номерок; талон; билетик cloakroom ticket - номерок на вешалке left-luggage ticket - квитанция на багаж /в камеру хранения/

to give smb. a ticket - выдать кому-л. квитанцию

2) удостоверение, карточка, билет

member's ticket - членский билет ticket of leave - досрочное освобождение заключённого под гласный надзор (полиции)

this is a ticket to a good job - образн. это мандат на получение хорошей работы

3) воен. разг. свидетельство об увольнении из армии to get one's ticket - а) быть демобилизованным; б) получать отставку

4) уст. визитная карточка*4. объявление (о сдаче внаем)*5. разг. уведомление о штрафе за нарушение правил уличного движения (мж. traffic ticket)

parking ticket - уведомление о штрафе за стоянку в неположенном месте

a ticket for speeding - уведомление о штрафе за превышение скорости to give smb. a ticket - вручить кому-л. уведомление о штрафе за нарушение правил уличного движения

to get /to collect/ a ticket - нарваться на штраф

6. 1) амер. список кандидатов на выборах

general ticket - общий список

mixed ticket - избирательный бюллетень с кандидатами из списков разных партий national ticket - список кандидатов на пост президента и вице-президента to vote a ticket - голосовать за (тот или иной) список to vote the straight ticket - голосовать за весь список /за список в целом/to vote a split ticket, to split a ticket - голосовать за блок (политических) партий to be ahead [behind] one's ticket - получить наибольшее [наименьшее] количество голосов по списку своей партии to carry a ticket - провести своих кандидатов

2) разг. принципы, программа политической партии

the Tory [the democratic] ticket - предвыборная программа консерваторов [демократической партии]

7. ордер, заявка*8. план; перспектива to write one's own ticket - планировать свою жизнь, составлять планы на будущее graduates are writing their own job tickets - выпускники вузов могут подобрать работу по своему выбору

9. редк. записка*10. бирж. предварительная регистрация биржевых операций

◇ the ticket - то, что нужно; «что надо»; «это вещь» that's the ticket - а) правильно; б) как раз то, что нужно not (quite) the ticket - не совсем то

the proper ticket - верно, правильно to work one's ticket - а) воен. добиваться увольнения из армии; б) симулировать, ловчить [ср. мж. 1]

to get tickets on oneself - воображать о себе бог весть что

2. [ˈtɪkɪt] v*1. *обыкн. р. р.1) снабжать этикеткой, прикреплять ярлык

goods ticketed with their prices - товары с ценниками

2) навешивать, наклеивать ярлыки

he was ticketed as unreliable - за ним утвердилась репутация ненадёжного человека

2. амер. снабжать билетами выдавать билеты

the booking-office tickets from ten - касса продаёт билеты с десяти

3. разг. вручать уведомление о штрафе за нарушение правил уличного движения

ticket

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

ticket [ticket tickets ticketed ticketing] noun, verb BrE ['tɪkɪt] ⓘ NAmE ['tɪkɪt] ⓘ

noun

label

price tag

ticket

1. ~ (for/to sth) a printed piece of paper that gives you the right to travel on a particular bus, train, etc. or to go into a theatre, etc

• a bus/theatre/plane, etc. ticket

• free tickets to the show

• Tickets are available from the Arts Centre at £5.00.

• a ticket office/machine/collector

• (figurative) She hoped that getting this job would finally be her ticket to success.

see also ↑meal ticket, ↑return ticket, ↑season ticket

2. a printed piece of paper with a number or numbers on it, that you buy in order to have the chance of winning a prize if the number or numbers are later chosen

• a lottery/raffle ticket

• There are three winning tickets.

3. a label that is attached to sth in a shop/store giving details of its price, size, etc.

4. an official notice that orders you to pay a fine because you have done sth illegal while driving or parking your car

Syn: ↑fine

• a parking/speeding ticket

5. usually singular (especially NAmE) a list of candidates that are supported by a particular political party in an election

• She ran for office on the Democratic ticket.

see also ↑dream ticket

more at split the ticket at ↑split <sub>v.</sub>

Word Origin:

early 16th cent. (in the general senses 'short written note' and 'a licence or permit'): shortening of obsolete French étiquet, from Old French estiquet(te), from estiquier 'to fix', from Middle Dutch steken. Compare with ↑etiquette.

Example Bank:

- Concessionary tickets are available at half the standard price.
- He ran on the Republican ticket.
- He showed the guard his ticket.
- I bought a ticket for the concert.
- I bought a whole book of raffle tickets and I still didn't win anything.
- I generally vote a split ticket.
- I had complimentary tickets for the show.
- I have a free ticket to the game.
- I'm voting the straight Democratic ticket.
- I've got a free ticket to the match.
- I've got complimentary tickets for the theatre.
- Phone the ticket line on this number.
- The police officer gave us a ticket for going through a red light.
- There are three candidates on the national ticket.
- There had been talk of Kennedy dropping LBJ from the ticket in '64.
- Use the coupon below to reserve advance tickets for the exhibition.
- You must hold a valid ticket before boarding the train.
- You must hold a valid ticket for your entire journey before boarding the train.
- a first-class rail ticket
- a plane ticket to New York
- a ticket for Saturday
- admission by ticket only
- an annual season ticket

Idioms: ↑just the ticket ▪ ↑that's the ticket ▪ ↑tickets

1. ~ sth/sb (technical) to produce and sell tickets for an event, a trip, etc; to give sb a ticket
  - Passengers can now be ticketed electronically.
2. usually passive ~ sb (especially NAmE) to give sb an official notice that orders them to pay a ↑fine because they have done sth illegal while driving or parking a car
  - Park illegally, and you're likely to be ticketed.

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	ticket
	BrE / 'tɪkɪt/
	NAmE / 'tɪkɪt/
he / she / it	tickets
	BrE / 'tɪkɪts/
	NAmE / 'tɪkɪts/
past simple, past participle	ticketed
	BrE / 'tɪkɪtɪd/
	NAmE / 'tɪkɪtɪd/
-ing form	ticketing
	BrE / 'tɪkɪtɪŋ/
	NAmE / 'tɪkɪtɪŋ/

Word Origin:

early 16th cent. (in the general senses 'short written note' and 'a licence or permit'): shortening of obsolete French étiquet, from Old French estiquet(te), from estiquier 'to fix', from Middle Dutch steken. Compare with ↑etiquette.

See also: ↑just the job

ticket

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. ticket<sup>1</sup> S1 W2 /'tɪkət, 'tɪkɪt/ BrE <sup>u</sup> AmE <sup>e</sup> noun [countable]

[Date: 1500-1600; Origin: Early French etiquet 'notice attached to something', from Old French estiquier 'to attach', from Middle Dutch steken 'to stick']

1. CINEMA/BUS/TRAIN ETC a printed piece of paper which shows that you have paid to enter a cinema, travel on a bus, plane etc ticket for

" How much are tickets for the concert?

ticket to

" I'd like two tickets to Berlin.

a ticket to do something

" a ticket to watch the US Open ⇒ ↑season ticket

2. FOR A PRIZE a printed piece of paper with a number on it that you buy because you will get a prize if that number is chosen
raffle/lottery ticket

3. DRIVING OFFENCE a printed note ordering you to pay money because you have done something illegal while driving or parking your car parking/speeding ticket

4. IN SHOPS a piece of paper fastened to something in a shop that shows its price, size etc SYN tag American English:

" How much does it say on the price ticket?

5. ELECTION [usually singular] especially American English a list of the people supported by a particular political party in an election:

" He ran for governor on the Republican ticket.

6. ticket to success/fame/stardom etc especially American English a way of becoming successful, famous etc:

" Michael thought an MBA would be a ticket to success.

7. be (just) the ticket old-fashioned to be exactly what is needed

⇒ ↑dream ticket, ↑meal ticket

• • •

COLLOCATIONS

■ ADJECTIVES/NOUN + ticket

- a train/bus/coach ticket I've lost my train ticket.
- an airline/plane/air ticket You can pick up your airline tickets at the check-in desk.
- a theatre/concert ticket The special rate includes theatre tickets and transport from the hotel to the theatre.
- a one-way ticket (also a single ticket British English) (=a ticket to a place but not back again) I bought a one-way ticket to London.
- a return ticket British English, a round-trip ticket American English (=a ticket to a place and back) How much is a round trip ticket to Boston?
- a season ticket (=one that allows you to make a journey or go to a sports stadium, theatre etc as often as you like during a fixed time period) He has a season ticket for Manchester United.
- a valid ticket (=one that is legally or officially acceptable) You cannot travel without a valid ticket.

■ verbs

- book/reserve a ticket We booked our tickets well in advance.
- buy a ticket Sheila bought a ticket for the next flight home.

■ ticket + NOUN

- a ticket office/booth/counter (=a place where you can buy tickets) There was a long queue at the ticket office.

- a ticket machine The ticket machine wasn't issuing tickets.
- the ticket barrier British English (=a gate or other barrier at a station that you need a ticket to get through) John insisted on carrying my case as far as the ticket barrier.
- a ticket agency (=a company that sells tickets for concerts, sporting events, etc) Book your tickets online from one of the many ticket agencies.

• • •

THESAURUS

■ types of travel tickets

- single (ticket)/one-way ticket a ticket that lets you go to a place but not back again: A single to Edinburgh, please. | He bought a one-way ticket to Los Angeles.
- return (ticket) British English, round-trip ticket American English a ticket that lets you go to a place and back again: A return to London, please.
- season ticket a ticket that lets you make the same journey every day for a fixed period of time: My company pays for my season ticket.
- e-ticket a ticket that you buy over the Internet, in which you are given a number which you use when you check in at an airport: All you have to do is print off the e-ticket and show it at the check-in desk.

II. ticket<sup>2</sup> BrE <sup>2</sup> AmE <sup>2</sup> verb [transitive usually passive]

1. to produce and sell tickets for an event, journey etc:
  - air travel sold and ticketed in the UK
  - ticketed events such as concerts
2. especially American English to give someone a ticket for parking their car in the wrong place, driving too fast etc:
  - Drivers stopping here will be ticketed and have their cars towed.
3. be ticketed for something especially American English to be intended for a particular use, purpose, job etc:
  - Three of the army bases have been ticketed for closure.

ticket

Freakuency Pack

12500 1965<sup>MCW</sup>

15000 1598<sup>COCA</sup>

RANGE: 2k TICKET<sup>25089</sup> ticket<sup>12537</sup>

tickets<sup>12552</sup>

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

<sup>7314</sup> 3331<sup>12517</sup> nn1

<sup>14</sup> 200628<sup>16</sup> nnu

<sup>4</sup> 4325914<sup>4</sup> jj