

partnership[ˈpɑːtnəʃɪp] n

- участие
- товарищество; компания
 - limited partnership - товарищество с ограниченной ответственностью товарищество на вере; коммандитное товарищество
 - deed of partnership - договор товарищества
 - dissolution of partnership - расторжение товарищества
 - to enter /to go/ into partnership (with smb.) - основать совместную компанию /стать компаньоном/ с кем-л.
 - he obtained the partnership's permission - он получил разрешение компании
- компаньонство
 - to be in partnership - быть компаньоном (с кем-л.)

partnership

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

part-ner-ship AW [partnership partnerships] BrE ['pɑːtnəʃɪp] NAmE[ˈpɑːrtnerʃɪp] noun

- uncountable the state of being a partner in business
 - to be in/to go into partnership
 - ~ with sb/sth He developed his own program in partnership with an American expert.
- countable, uncountable a relationship between two people, organizations, etc; the state of having this relationship
 - Marriage should be an equal partnership.
 - ~ with sb/sth the school's partnership with parents
 - ~ between A and B a partnership between the United States and Europe
- countable a business owned by two or more people who share the profits
 - a junior member of the partnership

Thesaurus:partnership noun C, U

• Marriage should be an equal partnership.

relationship • cooperation • collaboration • alliance • bond • tie • link • association • formal affiliation • especially business contact •

(a/an) partnership/relationship/cooperation/collaboration/alliance/bond/ties/link/association/affiliation/contacts with sb/sth(a/an) partnership/relationship/cooperation/collaboration/alliance/bond/ties/links/association/affiliation between A and Bhave (a/an) partnership/relationship/alliance/bond/ties/link/association/affiliation/contactsExample Bank:

- Civil partnerships or gay unions are now legal in Britain.
- Local historical societies are trying to establish creative partnerships with schools.
- She has a partnership in the business.
- The Channel Tunnel was an excellent public-private partnership.
- The company has gone into partnership with Swiss Bank Corporation.
- The fund has been set up in partnership with banks.
- The two companies have formed a long-term partnership to develop and sell these products together.
- The two radio stations signed a five-year partnership agreement today.
- They are in partnership with Apex software.
- They dissolved their successful partnership in 1980.
- They formed a limited partnership.
- They registered their intention to enter a civil partnership.
- We are trying to develop a working partnership between local schools and industries.
- We are working in close partnership with our Japanese clients.
- We look forward to a long and successful partnership with them.
- We took him into partnership in 2002.
- You can apply for partnership status after two years.
- a bill extending domestic partnership benefits to same-sex couples
- a joint partnership between the Department of Energy and the State of Illinois
- a partnership between the university and local colleges
- a partnership with an American company
- a unique partnership of private companies and trade unions
- an equal partnership of men and women in government
- civil unions that give legal recognition and partnership benefits to gay couples
- the school's partnership with parents

partnership

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

part-ner-ship W3 AC /'pɑːtnəʃɪp/ $'pɑːrtner- BrE ^m AmE ^m noun[Word Family: noun: ↑partner, ↑partnership; verb: ↑partner]

- [uncountable] the state of being a partner in business
 - be/work in partnership (with somebody)
 - ^m I've been in partnership with her for five years.
 - ^m She's gone into partnership with two local doctors.
- [countable] a business owned by two or more people:

It's one of the most successful partnerships in the country.

3. [uncountable and countable] a relationship between two people, organizations, or countries:

Several youth charities have formed a partnership to help these homeless teenagers.

partnership between

The close partnership between Britain and the US will continue.

• • •

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 3)

■ verbs

- form a partnership They formed a partnership solely to enter the competition.
- forge a partnership (=form one) He has forged a highly successful partnership with the Dublin singer Frances Black.
- develop a partnership Developing international partnerships is vital to our continued success.

■ adjectives

- a working partnership Theirs is one of the most fruitful working partnerships in modern science.
- a close partnership The two companies have built up a close partnership over the past four years.
- an effective partnership The agency tries to forge effective partnerships with communities and private businesses.
- a successful partnership We are looking forward to a successful partnership.
- a good partnership It's a good partnership and we think it's going to get better.
- an equal partnership They regard marriage as an equal partnership.

partnership

Freakuency Pack

12500 2268^{MCW}

15000 894^{COCA}

RANGE: 2k PARTNER 52368

partner 23265

partners 16522

partnered 477

partnering 478

partnership 8279

partnerships 3347

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

5093 4728⁸²⁷⁵ nn1

4 443712⁴ nnu
