mood

н

1. 1) расположение духа, настроение to be in a good [bad, merry] mood - быть в хорошем [дурном, весёлом] расположении духа /настроении/ to be in the mood to do smth. - быть расположенным что-л. сделать to be /to feel/ in the [in no] mood for smth. - быть [не] расположенным к чему-л.

I'm not in the mood to enjoy his chatter - я не в настроении слушать его болтовню

he works as the mood takes him - он работаетпо настроению

I am in no mood for laughing /in no laughing mood/ - мне не до смеха

2) настроение, тон (повествования и т. п.)

to capture the particular mood of the moment - уловить особый дух времени

this article does not describe fairly the mood of his essays - эта статья не передаёт настроения его эссе

2. р/ причуды, прихоти, капризы

a man of moods - капризный человек; человек настроения to have moods - а) капризничать; б) быть подверженным приступам дурного настроения

she is in one of her moods - она опять не в настроении

II [mu:d] n

1. грам. наклонение

2. муз. уст. лад, тональность

mood

mood [mood moods] BrE [mu□₫[#] NAmE [mu□₫[#] noun

1. countable the way you are feeling at a particular time

- She's in a good mood today (= happy and friendly) .
- \bullet He's always in a bad mood (= unhappy, or angry and impatient) .
- to be in a foul/filthy mood
- Some addicts suffer violent mood swings (= changes of mood) if deprived of the drug.
- Wait until he's in a better mood before you ask him.
- I'm just not in the mood for a party tonight.
- I'm not really in the mood to go out tonight.
- Let's not talk about it now. I'm not in the mood.
- He was in no mood for being polite to visitors.
- 2. countable a period of being angry or impatient
- I wonder why he's in such a mood today.
- She was in one of her moods (= one of her regular periods of being angry or impatient) .
- 3. singular the way a group of people feel about sth; the atmosphere in a place or among a group of people
- $\ensuremath{\cdot}$ The mood of the meeting was distinctly pessimistic .
- The movie captures the mood of the interwar years perfectly.
- 4. countable (grammar) any of the sets of verb forms that show whether what is said or written is certain, possible, necessary, etc.
- 5. countable (grammar) one of the categories of verbuse that expresses facts, orders, questions, wishes or conditions

 $\ensuremath{\cdot}$ the indicative /imperative /subjunctive mood

Word Origin:

senses 1 to 3 Old English mod 'mind' 'fierce courage' Germanic Dutch moed German Mut senses 4 to 5 mid 16th cent. 1mode 1mood 'state of mind'

Thesaurus:

mood noun

- 1. C
- She's in a good mood today.

spirits · · frame of mind · · morale · in (a) good/better, etc. mood/spirits/frame of mind in the mood/frame of mind for sth

in the mood/frame of mind to do sth

2. sing.

• The film captures the mood of the interwar years perfectly.

atmosphere •• climate •• spirit •• feeling •• feel •• aura •• tone • |BrE flavour • |AmE flavor •

the general mood/atmosphere/climate/spirit/feeling/feel/tone/flavour create a/an mood/atmosphere/climate/spirit/feeling/feel/aura capture the mood/atmosphere/spirit/feeling/tone/flavour of sth

Mood or atmosphere? A mood belongs to a group of people at a particular time and may change as time passes; an atmosphere belongs especially to a place, and may stay the same over a period of time:

- a leader who successfully gauged the popular mood
- $\pmb{\varkappa}$ a leader who successfully gauged the popular atmosphere:
- The hotel offers a friendly atmosphere.
- ✗ The hotel offers a friendly mood.

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

Example Bank:

- Choose clothes to match your mood.
- Don't talk to Miranda today— she's in a terrible mood!
- He could sense her gloomy mood.
- · He's in a funny mood today— who knows how he'll react?
- His comments pretty much killed the mood for the rest of the show.
- · His mood lifted as he concentrated on his driving
- I can't keep up with his constantly changing moods.
- I tried to make him laugh, but he was in no mood for jokes.
- Instantly he felt her change of mood.
- It immediately brightened her mood and brought a smile to her face.
- It was Christmas and everyone was in a festive mood.
- Mood disorders can disrupt relationships.
- Nicky seemed able to read her mood.
- Not wanting to dampen her good mood, I quickly changed the subject.
- Serotonin is a brain chemical which regulates mood.
- She could be a very funny girl when the mood struck her.
- She was in a bullish mood about the future of the company.
- She was not in the best of moods.
- The crowd's mood abruptly turned violent
- The music helped to put them in a more relaxed mood.
- The overall mood was optimistic.
- The right music sets the mood for such a great moment.
- The sacked workers were in defiant mood as they entered the tribunal.
- The weather seemed to reflect his dark mood.
- a film that has captured the mood of the moment
- a president who can gauge the popular mood
- the challenge of coping with negative mood states
- the prevailing mood in the country at the time
- · He's always in a bad mood.
- Helen was in a relatively confident mood.
- I wonder why he's in such a mood today.
- I'm just not in the mood for a party.
- She's in a good mood today.
- Some addicts suffer violent mood swings if deprived of the drug.
- The killings produced a sombre mood at the rally.
- The news had put Michelle in a foul mood.
- The prevailing mood of public opinion remained hostile.
- We need a leader who can gauge the popular mood.
- to be in a bad/foul/filthy/terrible mood

mood

mood S3 W3 /mu□¢ BrE * AmE * noun

[Word Family: noun: 1mood, 1moodiness; adverb 1moodily; adjective: 1moody]

[Sense 1-5: Language: Old English; Origin: mod 'mind, courage]

[Sense 6: Date: 1500-1600; Origin: mode]

1. WAY YOU FEEL [countable] the way you feel at a particular time:

- You're in a good mood this morning!
- the general mood of depression in the office
- 2. be in a mood to feel unhappy, impatient, or angry and to refuse to speak normally to other people:
 - He's been in a real mood all day.
 - ^{*} Don't talk to her. She's in one of her moods (=used about someone who is often unhappy, angry etc).
- 3. be/feel in the mood (for something) to feel that you would like to do something:
 - " We really felt in the mood for a party.
 - I don't want to talk about it now. I'm not in the mood.
- 4. be in no mood for something/to do something to not want to do something, or be determined not to do something:
 - I was in no mood for a joke.
 - George was in no mood to be sociable.
- 5. when the mood takes you at times that are not regular or planned, when you feel that you want to do something: He used to visit them when the mood took him.
- 6. WAY A PLACE OR EVENT FEELS [singular] the way that a place, event, book, film etc seems or makes you feel: The opening shot of dark, rainy streets sets the mood for the whole film.

7. GRAMMAR [countable] technical one of the sets of verb forms in grammar: the [†]indicative (=expressing a fact or action), the [†]imperative (=expressing a command), the [†]interrogative (=expressing a question), or the [†]subjunctive (=expressing a doubt or wish)

COLLOCATIONS

adjectives

a good mood He was in a good mood when he got home from work.

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

- a bad mood The news had put her in a bad mood.
- a confident/optimistic/relaxed etc mood At the beginning of the negotiations, he was in a confident mood.
- a holiday/party/festive mood (=a happy mood in which you want to enjoy a holiday or party) The fans were in a festive mood after their team won the championship.
- a foul mood (=very bad and angry) Watch what you say; he's in a foul mood.
- a black mood British English (=very angry or sad) His earlier black mood seemed to have gone.

• a sombre mood British English, a somber mood American English (=serious and slightly sad) His death has put the country in a sombre mood.

• the general mood (=the mood of a group of people) One soldier expressed the general mood of fear and failure in a letter home.

the public/national mood (=the mood of the people in a country) The public mood was one of anger and frustration.
phrases

- a mood of optimism/despair/excitement etc There is a new mood of optimism.
- a change of mood Michael underwent one of his sudden changes of mood.

• the mood of the time/moment (=the way people in general feel at a particular time) The movie captured the mood of the moment.

mood + NOUN

- mood swings (=changes of mood) Sudden mood swings can be a sign of mental illness.
- verbs
- reflect/capture somebody's mood (=show what someone is feeling) His comments reflected the national mood.
- match/suit somebody's mood The terrible weather matched her mood.

• lighten somebody's mood (=make someone feel happier) The sun was streaming in the window, but it did nothing to lighten his mood.

- gauge somebody's mood (=try to decide what someone's mood is) He looked at her for a moment, trying to gauge her mood.

Freakuency Pack

- somebody's mood changes Then his mood changed, and he laughed.
- somebody's mood improves By the next morning, her mood had improved.

mood