

architect1. [ˈɑːkɪtekt] n

1. архитектор, зодчий

naval architect - корабельный инженер

2. творец, создатель

the architects of the Constitution - творцы конституции

architect of one's own happiness /fortunes/ - ≅ кузнец своего счастья; хозяин своей судьбы

2. [ˈɑːkɪtekt] v

строить, планировать, конструировать

the house was architected to harmonize with the landscape - дом был архитектурно привязан к ландшафту

architect

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

archi-tect [architect architects architected architecting] BrE [ˈɑːkɪtekt]NAmE [ˈɑːrkɪtekt] noun

1. a person whose job is designing buildings, etc.

2. a person who is responsible for planning or creating an idea, an event or a situation

• He was one of the principal architects of the revolution.

• Jones was the architect of the team's first goal.

Word Origin:mid 16th cent.: from French architecte, from Italian architetto, via Latin from Greek arkhitektōn, from arkhi- 'chief' + tektōn 'builder'.Example Bank:

• The house was designed by architect Louis Kahn.

• The tower was designed by architect Daniel Libeskind.

architect

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

archi-tect W3 /ˈɑːkɪtekt, ˈɑːkɪteks/ BrE AmE noun [countable][Date: 1500-1600; Language: French; Origin: architecte, from Latin, from Greek architekton 'chief builder', from archi- (⇒ ↑arch-) + tekon 'builder']

1. someone whose job is to design buildings

2. the architect of something the person who originally thought of an important and successful idea:

* Tinoco was one of the architects of the government's economic reforms.

architect

Freakuency Pack

12500 3012^{MCW}15000 2833^{COCA}RANGE: 4k ARCHITECT ⁹³⁸³architect ⁵⁹²⁵architects ³⁴⁵⁸

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

3736 6180⁵⁹¹⁹ *nn1*3 364728⁶ np1