Apresyan (En-Ru)

horror ['hɒrə] n

1. отвращение (и страх), ужас; омерзение

horror film [story, comic] - фильм [роман, комикс] ужасов to have a horror of smth. - с отвращением относиться к чему-л. to be filled with horror at the sight [at the thought] of smth. - быть в ужасе /прийти в ужас/ при виде чего-л. [при мысли о чём-л.] to be in horror of darkness - панически бояться темноты screams of horror - крики ужаса to my unspeakable horror - к моему неописуемому ужасу paralyzed with horror - оцепеневший от ужаса that little girl has a horror of snakes and spiders - эта девочка до смерти боится змей и пауков they have a horror of war - они ненавидят войну a good housewife has a horror of dirt - хорошая хозяйка не выносит грязи 2. обыкн. pl ужасы; ужасные трагические события horrors of war - ужасы войны the papers are full of horrors of every sort - газеты полны всяких ужасов chamber of horrors - палата/комната/ ужасов (музей восковых фигур со сценами убийств и т. п.) 3. разг. ужас, что-л нелепое, уродливое, смешное, неприятное he is a perfect horror - он просто ужасный /противный, неприятный человек that child is a little horror - не ребёнок, а сущее наказание this hat is a horror - не шляпа, а просто кошмар 4. pl 1) разг. подавленное настроение, приступ страха the idea gives me the horrors - от этой мысли меня в дрожь бросает белая горячка; пьяный бред 5. ycm. 1) дрожь, озноб, мурашки (особ. как симптом болезни) 2) шершавость; взъерошенность horror Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed. NAmE ['hoora]r hor·ror [horror horrors] BrE ['hprə(r)] NAmE ['ha□rə]r noun 1. uncountable a feeling of great shock, fear or disgust People watched in horror as the plane crashed to the ground. With a look of horror, he asked if the doctor thought he had cancer. The thought of being left alone filled her with horror. • She recoiled in horror at the sight of an enormous spider. • To his horror , he could feel himself starting to cry (= it upset him very much) . · Her eyes were wide with horror. 2. singular a great fear or hatred of sth of sth a horror of deep water of doing sth Most people have a horror of speaking in public. 3. uncountable the ~ of sth the very unpleasant nature of sth, especially when it is shocking or frightening • The full horror of the accident was beginning to become clear. In his dreams he relives the horror of the attack. countable, usually plural a very unpleasant or frightening experience · the horrors of war 5. uncountable a type of book, film/movie, etc. that is designed to frighten people • In this section you'll find horror and science fiction. a horror film/movie see also horror story 6. countable (BrE, informal) a child who behaves badly · Her son is a little horror. Rem: or more at shock horror at shock n Idiom: horror of horrors Word Origin: Middle English: via Old French from Latin horror, from horrere 'tremble, shudder, (of hair) stand on end'. Thesaurus: horror noun 1. U There was a look of horror on his face.

shock · · dismay ·

Opp: delight horror/shock/dismay at sth in/with horror/shock/dismay fill sb with horror/dismay

2. C, usually pl.

• He witnessed the horrors of civil war.

nightmare • hell • trauma • ordeal • a terrible horror/nightmare/ordeal suffer a/an horror/nightmare/trauma/ordeal

Example Bank:

- Anna recoiled in horror as the spider approached.
- He had witnessed horrors committed by the enemy.
- · He never experienced the full horrors of trench warfare.
- He realized with absolute horror that he no longer had the money.
- I used to regard public speaking as the ultimate horror.
- I'm trying to overcome my horror of insects.
- Imagine my horror when I discovered I'd be working for my ex-wife.
- She felt horror and pity at seeing Marcus so ill.
- She had a horror of pubs.
- She raised her hands in mock horror when she saw my new haircut.
- The possibility of meeting him again filled me with horror.
- The thought of working nights fills me with abject horror.
- They watched in horror as the aircraft crashed to the ground.
- They were trying to scare each other with horror stories about going to the dentist.
- To his horror, he saw a dead body lying beside the road.
- · newspapers full of shock horror headlines
- He witnessed the horrors of civil war.
- His eyes were wide with horror.
- She recoiled in horror at the sight.
- There was a terrible look of horror on his face.
- They will never recover mentally from the horrors of that day.
- We heard from refugees of the horrors being perpetrated in the region.
- · You wouldn't believe the horrors they have suffered due to famine and disease.

horror

[Date: 1300-1400, Language: Old French; Origin: horrour, from Latin horror, from horrere 'to raise one's hair stiffly, shake with fear']

- 1. [uncountable] a strong feeling of shock and fear
- in horror
  - Staff watched in horror as he set himself alight.

with horror

Many people recoil with horror when they see a big spider like this.

to sb's horror (=making someone shocked or afraid)

- To my horror, I realised my shirt was wet with blood.
- You should have seen the look of horror on his face.
- 2. [countable usually plural] something that is very terrible, shocking, or frightening

horror of

- the horrors of war
- 3. the horror of something when a situation or event is very unpleasant or shocking:
  - * Dense smoke surrounded them, adding to the horror of the situation.
  - Only when the vehicle was lifted did the full horror of the accident become clear.
- 4. have a horror of something to be afraid of something or dislike it very much:
  - He has a horror of snakes.
- 5. little horror British English a young child who behaves badly
- 6. give somebody the horrors to make someone feel unreasonably frightened or nervous

7. horror of horrors British English used to say how bad something is – often used humorously when you think something is not really very bad

horror

12500<sup>3071<sup>MCW</sup> 15000<sup>2850<sup>cocA</sup> RANGE: 3k HORROR <sup>9259</sup> horror <sup>7596</sup> horrors 1663 COCA 500k Unlemmatized 5392<sup>5057<sup>7578</sup></sup> nn1 <sub>4</sub>253767<sup>11</sup> np1 <sub>7</sub>317639<sup>7</sup> nnu</sup></sup> Freakuency Pack

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)