tactic L

- 2. ['tæktık] a
 - 1. относящийся к порядку, расположению

2. лингв. несовр. тактический; синтаксический

tactic form - тактическая форма

Ш

['tæktik] a ycm.

осязательный

tactic

NAmE ['tæktɪk] noun

- tac·tic [tactic tactics] BrE ['tæktɪk] 1. countable, usually plural the particular method you use to achieve sth
 - They tried all kinds of tactics to get us to go.
 - This was just the latest in a series of delaying tactics .
 - The manager discussed tactics with his team.
 - · Confrontation is not always the best tactic.
 - It's time to try a change of tactic.
 - They used strong-arm (= aggressive or violent) tactics.
 - 2. tactics plural the art of moving soldiers and military equipment around during a battle or war in order to use them in the most effective way

compare [†]strategy

Word Origin:

mid 18th cent.: from modern Latin tactica, from Greek taktike (tekhne) '(art) of tactics', feminine of taktikos, from taktos 'ordered, arranged', from the base of tassein 'arrange'.

Example Bank:

- · His strong-arm tactics paid off.
- I refuse to stoop to such bullying tactics.
- Longer races demand different tactics.
- · She decided on a stalling tactic.
- Some players see injuring their opponent as a legitimate tactic.
- Teachers learn tactics for dealing with aggressive children.
- The coach was criticized for his negative tactics.
- They were desperate enough to try shock tactics.
- . They would do well to switch tactics.
- We use a variety of tactics to make learning fun.
- · the temptation to use underhand tactics
- · It's time for a change of tactic.
- Offering goods cheaper than cost price is obviously a short-term marketing tactic.
- Strong-arm tactics were adopted by both sides during the conflict.
- The bully-boy tactics of a small minority will not be tolerated.
- There are serious concerns about the brutal tactics employed by the authorities.
- They tried all kind of tactics to get us to go.
- This was just the latest in a series of delaying tactics.

tactic

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

tac tic /'tæktɪk/ BrE AmE [®] noun [countable]

[Date: 1600-1700, Language: Modern Latin, Origin: tactica, from Greek taktika, from tassein 'to arrange, place in battle formation]

1. a method that you use to achieve something:

- a tactic employed to speed up the peace process
- Republicans accuse Democrats of using delaying tactics (=something you do in order to give yourself more time) to prevent a final vote on the bill.
 - Shock tactics are being used in an attempt to stop drink drivers.

2. tactics [plural] the science of arranging and moving military forces in a battle

⇒ strong-arm tactics at ↑strong-arm

. . COLLOCATIONS

ADJECTIVES/NOUN + tactic

- a delaying tactic (=an action which gives you more time) His enemies believed that his sickness was just another delaying tactic.

scare tactics (=in which you deliberately try to frighten people) He accused the opposition of scare tactics.

- shock tactics (=in which you deliberately try to shock people) The charity resorted to shock tactics to try to bring its message home.

• strong-arm tactics (=the use of force, violence, or threats) Others were furious at what they said were government strong-arm tactics over the vote.

- a diversionary tactic (=an action which draws attention away from something) Before the attack, nearby areas were bombed

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

as a diversionary tactic.

underhand /unfair tactics (=actions which are not fair or honest) | wouldn't stoop to such sneaky, underhand tactics.
verbs

- use a tactic We used various tactics to get their support.
- employ/adopt a tactic formal (=use a tactic) Many species of fish employ similar defence tactics.
- change/switch tactics Manchester United switched tactics in the second half.

• resort to a tactic (=use a tactic because there is no other way to do something) Students resort to these tactics when they see no other way to address the problem.

• a tactic works (=is successful) Those tactics won't work with me any more - I know you too well.

phrases

• a change of tactics They trailed 2–1 at half time, but a change of tactics brought a 3–2 win.

tactic

Freakuency Pack

12500 3739^{MCW} 15000 2438^{COCA} RANGE: 5k TACTIC ¹²³⁸⁸ tactic ²⁶⁵⁴ tactics ⁶⁸¹⁴ tactical ²⁷³² tactically ¹⁸⁸ COCA 500k Unlemmatized ₂₂₃₄11166²⁶⁴⁹ nn1 ₅387667⁵ nnu