

outright1. [ˈaʊtraɪt] a

1. прямой, открытый

hearty, outright manner - открытая сердечная манера обращения

an outright refusal - прямой /незавуалированный/ отказ

outright supporter [opponent] - открытый сторонник [противник]

2. совершенный, полный; недвусмысленный

outright rogue - отъявленный мошенник

the outright gift - настоящий подарок an outright loss - полная потеря to give an outright denial - категорически отрицать что-л.

on the voting for secretary, he was the outright winner - при выборах секретаря он получил подавляющее большинство голосов

it's outright wickedness! - это настоящее преступление!

3. редк. направленный, целеустремлённый2. [aʊ'traɪt] adv

1. открыто, прямо

to laugh outright - открыто смеяться

to tell a person outright what one thinks of him - сказать человеку прямо /в глаза/, что о нём думаешь

2. сразу

he was killed outright - он был сразу убит

we paid for our car outright - мы тут же заплатили за приобретённый автомобиль (не в рассрочку)

she fainted outright - она тут же лишилась чувств

3. полностью; совершенно; до конца

to speak [to give] one's opinion outright - высказать своё мнение раз и навсегда to refuse outright - полностью отказаться (от чего-л.)

outright

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

out-right [ˌaʊtraɪt] adjective, adverb BrE [ˈaʊtraɪt] ^m NAmE [ˈaʊtraɪt] ^m

adjective only before noun

1. complete and total

- an outright ban/rejection/victory
- She was the outright winner.
- No one party is expected to gain an outright majority.

2. open and direct

- There was outright opposition to the plan.

Example Bank:

- They may introduce tougher restrictions or even an outright ban.

adverb

1. in a direct way and without trying to hide anything

- Why don't you ask him outright if it's true?
- She couldn't help herself and she laughed outright.

2. clearly and completely

- Neither candidate won outright.
- The group rejects outright any negotiations with the government

3. not gradually; immediately

- Most of the crash victims were killed outright.
- We had saved enough money to buy the house outright.

outright

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. outright¹ /'aʊtraɪt/ BrE ^m AmE ^m adjective [only before noun]

1. clear and direct:

- an outright refusal
- an outright attack on his actions

2. complete and total:

- an outright victory
- an outright ban on the sale of tobacco

3. the outright winner /victor someone who has definitely and easily wonII. outright² /aʊ'traɪt/ BrE ^m AmE ^m adverb

1. clearly and directly, without trying to hide your feelings or intentions:

- If she asked me outright, I'd tell her.

2. clearly and completely:

- She won outright.
- They rejected the deal outright.

3. buy/own something outright to own something such as a house completely because you have paid the full price with your own money

4. immediately and without any delay:
" The passenger was killed outright.
" They fired her outright.
-

outright

12500 4616^{MCW}

15000 4877^{COCA}

RANGE: 4k OUTRIGHT³²⁸⁰

outright ³²⁸⁰

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1760 14027¹⁸⁹² jj

1313 17175¹³⁸² rr

6 347658⁶ nnu
