

fake

I

1. [feɪk] n
 1. мор. кольцо, бухта каната; шлаг (троса)
 2. геол. песчанистый сланец
 3. тех. мягкий припой для ювелирных работ
2. [feɪk] v мор.
укладывать (канат в бухты)

II

1. [feɪk] n
 1. разг.
1) подделка; подлог; фальшивка; (газетная) «утка»
the painting was not Renoir, but a fake - картина оказалась не Ренуаром, а подделкой под него
 - 2) подчищенная марка (в коллекции)
 2. плутовство, мошенничество
 3. редк. мошенник, обманщик; самозванец
 4. спорт. финт
fake blow - ложный удар (фехтование)
2. [feɪk] v
 1. подделывать; фальсифицировать фабриковать (мж. fake up) to fake result - подделать результаты
 2. 1) мошенничать, дурачить; обманывать he was not telling the truth, but was faking - он не говорил правду, а морочил нас
 - 2) притворяться, прикидываться to fake surprise - притворяться удивлённым she faked illness so she did not have to go to school - чтобы не пойти в школу, она прикинулась больной /симулировала болезни/
 - 3) спорт. делать финт
 3. вор. жарг. грабить; убивать
◇ to fake a line - театр. нести отсебятину, импровизировать

fake

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

fake [fake fakes faked faking] adjective, noun, verb BrE [feɪk] ^m NAmE [feɪk] ^m adjective

1. (disapproving) not genuine; appearing to be sth it is not

Syn: ↑counterfeit

- fake designer clothing
- a fake American accent

2. made to look like sth else

Syn: ↑imitation

- a jacket in fake fur
- Don't go out in the sun— get a fake tan from a bottle.

Word Origin:late 18th cent. (originally slang): origin uncertain; perhaps ultimately related to German fegen 'sweep, thrash'.Thesaurus:fake adj. only before noun

- There was a stall selling fake designer clothing.

fake • • false • • counterfeit • • dummy • |disapproving bogus • • sham • |BrE, informal phony • |especially AmE, informal phony •Opp: genuinefake/false/counterfeit money/currency/coinsa fake/false/bogus identitya fake/false/phony document/passport/invoicea fake/bogus/sham marriage*Fake or false? False is used more frequently to describe documents and parts of the body such as eyelashes, teeth or a beard, moustache or nose. Fake is used more frequently to describe other objects: fake goods/flowers/pearls/bombs.Example Bank:

- The caller appeared to have a fake American accent.
- There were a few stalls selling fake designer clothing.
- We sprayed fake snow over the trees to make it look like winter.
- a fake fur jacket

Derived Word ↑faker

noun

1. an object such as a work of art, a coin or a piece of jewellery that is not genuine but has been made to look as if it is
 - All the paintings proved to be fakes.

2. a person who pretends to be what they are not in order to cheat people

Word Origin:

late 18th cent. (originally slang): origin uncertain; perhaps ultimately related to German fegen 'sweep, thrash'.

Thesaurus:

fake noun C

• All the paintings proved to be fakes.

forgery • • imitation • • dummy • • copy •

a good fake/forgery/imitation/copy

a cheap fake/imitation

a poor/crude forgery/imitation

Fake or forgery? Forgery usually refers to things that are written, drawn, painted or printed in order to deceive people. Fake can refer to any object that is made or produced, as well as artificial copies of natural objects (for example, jewels); fakes may or may not be used to deceive people.

Example Bank:

• She had long ago sold the diamonds and replaced them with fakes.

verb

1. transitive ~ sth to make sth false appear to be genuine, especially in order to cheat sb

- She faked her mother's signature on the document.
- He arranged the accident in order to fake his own death.

2. transitive, intransitive ~ (sth) to pretend to have a particular feeling, illness, etc

- She's not really sick — she's just faking it.
- He faked a yawn.

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	fake
	BrE /feɪk/
	NAmE /feɪk/
he / she / it	fakes
	BrE /feɪks/
	NAmE /feɪks/
past simple, past participle	faked
	BrE /feɪkt/
	NAmE /feɪkt/
-ing form	faking
	BrE /feɪkɪŋ/
	NAmE /feɪkɪŋ/

Word Origin:

late 18th cent. (originally slang): origin uncertain; perhaps ultimately related to German fegen 'sweep, thrash'.

Example Bank:

- But what if he wasn't faking?
- Do you think she's faking?
- She's not really sick — she's just faking it.

fake

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. fake¹ /feɪk/ BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ noun [countable]

1. a copy of a valuable object, painting etc that is intended to deceive people OPP original :

- The painting was judged a fake.
- Jones can spot a fake from 20 feet away.

2. someone who is not what they claim to be or does not have the skills they say they have:

- Her psychologist turned out to be a fake.

II. fake² BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ adjective [usually before noun]

1. made to look like a real material or object in order to deceive people OPP genuine :

- fake fur
- a fake ID card
- a fake 20 dollar bill

2. not real and seeming to be something it is not, in order to deceive people SYN false:

- I gave a fake name.
- She was speaking with a fake German accent.
- a fake smile of friendliness

III. fake³ BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ verb

[Date: 1700-1800; Origin: Probably from German fegen 'to sweep, polish']

1. [transitive] to make something seem real in order to deceive people:

- She faked her father's signature on the cheque.
- The insurance company suspected that he had faked his own death.

The results of the experiments were faked.

2. [intransitive and transitive] to pretend to be ill, interested etc when you are not:

I thought he was really hurt but he was faking it.

3. [intransitive and transitive] to pretend to move in one direction, but then move in another, especially when playing sport:

He faked a pass.

fake somebody ↔ out phrasal verb American English to deceive someone by making them think you are planning to do something when you are really planning to do something else

fake

Freakuency Pack

12500 5271^{MCW}

15000 3164^{COCA}

RANGE: 5k FAKE ⁷⁶⁶⁹

fake ⁵⁹¹⁸

fakes ⁵¹¹

faked ⁵⁸¹

faking ⁶⁵⁹

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

3477 7079⁵⁰⁰⁰ jj

530 28250⁶¹⁶ vvi

169 53091¹⁹⁹ vv0

87 74758¹⁰³ nn1
