

tragic[ˈtrædʒɪk] a

1. трагический, трагедийный

the tragic art - искусство трагедии tragic actor - трагический актёр

tragic irony - трагическая ирония

in a tragic voice - трагическим голосом

2. 1) ужасный, катастрофический

tragic event /occurrence/ - трагическое событие

tragic death - трагическая гибель

2) трагичный (о голосе и т. п.)

don't be so tragic about it - не разыгрывай трагедию; не делай из этого трагедии; ≅ нечего /незачем/ так убиваться; ничего страшного не случилось

3) печальный, прискорбный

tragic tale /story/ [scene] - печальный рассказ [-ая сцена]

the tragic peace of the long evening - меланхоличная тишина долгого вечера

3. в грам. знач. суц. (the tragic) трагическое

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

tragictragic BrE [ˈtrædʒɪk] ^m NAmE [ˈtrædʒɪk] ^m adjective

1. making you feel very sad, usually because sb has died or suffered a lot

- He was killed in a tragic accident at the age of 24.
- Cuts in the health service could have tragic consequences for patients.
- It would be tragic if her talent remained unrecognized.

2. only before noun connected with ↑tragedy (= the style of literature)

- a tragic actor/hero

Derived Word ↑tragically

Word Origin:

[tragic tragically] mid 16th cent.: from French tragique, via Latin from Greek tragikos, from tragos 'goat', but associated with tragōidia (see ↑tragedy).

Example Bank:

- a rather tragic story
- a tragic actor/hero

tragic

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

tragic /ˈtrædʒɪk/ BrE ^m AmE ^m adjective

[Date: 1500-1600; Language: Latin; Origin: tragicus, from Greek tragikos, from tragoidia; ⇒ ↑tragedy]

1. a tragic event or situation makes you feel very sad, especially because it involves death or suffering ⇒ comic:

- The parents were not to blame for the tragic death of their son.

- Lillian Board's death at 22 was a tragic loss for British athletics.

2. [only before noun] relating to tragedy in books or plays OPP comic:

- a great tragic actor

tragic hero (=the main person in a tragedy)tragic

Freakuency Pack

12500 5319^{MCW}15000 3276^{COCA}RANGE: 3k TRAGIC ⁷²⁷⁶tragic ⁶²⁷⁵tragically ¹⁰⁰¹

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

4856 5906⁶²⁷⁵ jj