pistol Apresyan (En-Ru) 1. ['pistl] n 1) пистолет (mж. automatic pistol); револьвер paint-spraying pistol - пистолет-краскораспылитель краскопульт to carry /to have/ a pistol (about) - носить пистолет to fire a pistol at smb. - выстрелить из пистолетав кого-л. to put a pistol to one's head - застрелиться, пустить себе пулю в лоб to hold /to put/ a pistol to smb.'s head - a) приставить кому-л. пистолетк виску; б) поставить кого-л. в безвыходное положение; ≅ приставить нож к горлу 2) ракетница (mж. flare pistol, rocket pistol, signal pistol) 2. ['pistl] v стрелять, убивать, ранить из пистолета или револьвера pistol Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed. pis-tol [pistol pistols pistolled pistoled pistolling pistoling] BrE ['pistl] NAmE ['pistl] a small gun that you can hold and fire with one hand an automatic pistol a starting pistol (= used to signal the start of a race) see also †water pistol Word Origin: mid 16th cent.: from obsolete French pistole, from German Pistole, from Czech pišt'ala, of which the original meaning was 'whistle', hence 'a firearm' by the resemblance in shape. Example Bank: · He drew his pistol, aimed and fired. He was robbed in his hotel at pistol point. • There were two of them, both carrying pistols. · runners waiting for the starting pistol • Sharpe took the loaded pistol from his belt, cocked it, and laid it beside him. • The assassin shot the two men with a 9mm automatic pistol. The official fired a starting pistol to begin the race. Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En) noun [countable] AmE [Date: 1500-1600, Language: French, Origin: pistole, from German, from Czech pi□tal 'pipe] pistol pis tol /'pistl/ BrE *

a small gun you can use with one hand ⇒ handgun, revolver

pistol Freakuency Pack

<sub>12500</sub>5441<sup>MCW</sup> 150003803COCA RANGE: 6k PISTOL 5469 pistol 4399 pistols 1070

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

<sub>2039</sub>7745<sup>4399</sup> nn1