

allied[ə'laɪd] a

1. (часто Allied) союзный, союзнический
the Allied Powers - союзные державы
Allied armies [forces] - армии [вооружённые силы] союзных держав
2. ассоциированный, присоединённый (как филиал и т. п.)
allied banks - ассоциированные банки
3. родственный, близкий; похожий allied sciences [subjects] - смежные науки [дисциплины] painting and other allied arts - живопись и родственные /близкие/ ей искусства allied rocks - геол. генетически связанные породы allied species - биол. родственные виды
this disease is closely allied to malaria - эта болезнь напоминает малярию

allied

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

al·lied adjective

1. BrE ['ælaɪd] ^m ; NAmE ['ælaɪd] ^m (often Allied) only before noun connected with countries that unite to fight a war together, especially the countries that fought together against Germany in the First and Second World Wars
 - Italy joined the war on the Allied side in 1915.
 - Many civilians died as a result of allied bombing.
 - allied forces/troops
2. BrE [ə'laɪd] ^m ; NAmE [ə'laɪd] ^m BrE ['ælaɪd] ^m ; NAmE ['ælaɪd] ^m (formal) (of two or more things) similar or existing together, connected with sth
 - medicine, nursing, physiotherapy and other allied professions
 - ~ to/with sth In this job you will need social skills allied with technical knowledge.

see also ↑allyWord Origin:[allied] Middle English: past participle of ↑ally.Example Bank:

- The US remains closely allied to Saudi Arabia.
- The party is allied with the Communists.
- an offensive by seven loosely allied guerrilla groups

allied

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

al·lied /'ælaɪd, ə'laɪd/ BrE ^m AmE ^m adjective

1. usually Allied [only before noun] belonging or relating to the countries that fought with Britain, the US etc in the First or Second World War:
 - an Allied bombing raid
 - Allied forces
2. (be) allied to/with something formal to be related to something or to be very similar:
 - Anthropology is closely allied to the field of psychology.
3. allied industries/organizations/trades etc connected with each other because of being similar to or dependent on each other:
 - agriculture and allied industries
4. joined by the same political, military, or economic aims:
 - loosely allied guerilla groups

allied

Freakuency Pack

12500 6236^{MCW}15000 1840^{COCA}RANGE: 4k ALLY 20477

ally 4397

allies 10758

allied 5227

allying 95

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

2117 7898⁴²⁸⁶ *jj*812 22540⁸⁹⁸ *vvv*43 117274⁴³ vvd