

magical['mædʒɪk(ə)] = magic //

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

magicalmagic·al [magical magically] BrE ['mædʒɪkl] ^u NAmE ['mædʒɪkl] ^u adjective*1. containing magic; used in magic

- magical powers
- Her words had a magical effect on us.
- Mercury was believed to possess magical properties.

2. (informal) wonderful; very enjoyableSyn: †enchanted

- a truly magical feeling
- We spent a magical week in Paris.
- There is something magical about the pure exchange of love between parent and child.

Derived Word †magicallyExample Bank:

- a truly magical experience
- Diamonds were once thought to have magical powers.

magical

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

magic·al /'mædʒɪkəl/ BrE ^u AmE ^u adjective[Word Family: noun: †magic, †magician; adjective: †magic, †magical; adverb: †magically]1. very enjoyable, exciting, or romantic, in a strange or special way:

" that magical evening we spent together

2. relating to magic or able to do magic:

" magical powers

—magically /-kli/ adverb*magical

Freakuency Pack

12500 6815^{MCW}15000 1772^{COCA}RANGE: 3k MAGIC 21773

magic 16676

magical 4181

magically 916

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

3172 8043⁴¹⁸¹ jj