

reformer

[rɪ'fɔ:mə] n

1. преобразователь, реформатор
he was a reformer of surgery - он создал новую хирургию
2. (Reformer) уст. деятель эпохи Реформации
3. уст. сторонник реформы избирательной системы в Англии (в 1831-32 гг.)
4. редк. исправитель

reformer

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

re·form·er [reformer reformers] BrE [rɪ'fɔ:mə(r)] AmE [rɪ'fɔ:rmə(r)] noun

a person who works to achieve political or social change

Example Bank:

- Charlotte Mason (1842–1923), educational reformer, was born 1 January 1842 in Bangor.
- Many social reformers have been regarded as criminals and law-breakers in the past.

reformer

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

re·form·er /rɪ'fɔ:mə(r) -ɔ:rmə(r) BrE AmE noun [countable]

[Word Family: noun: ↑form, ↑formation, ↑transformation, ↑reformer, ↑reform, ↑reformation, ↑reformist, ↑transformer, ↑formlessness; verb: ↑form, ↑reform, ↑transform; adjective: reformed, ↑reformist, ↑formless; adverb: ↑formlessly]

someone who works to improve a social or political system:
a great social reformer

reformer

Freakuency Pack

12500 7088^{MCW}
 15000 952^{COCA}
 RANGE: 4k REFORM 49440
 reform 32580
 reforms 9522
 reformist 689
 reformists 190
 reformed 1604
 unreformed 60
 reforming 1315
 reformer 849
 reformers 2251
 reformation 325
 reformatory 55
 COCA 500k Unlemmatized
 655 23356⁸⁴⁹ nn1