

housework[ˈhʌʊswɜːk] n

работа по дому; домашнее хозяйство

housework

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

house-work [housework] BrE [ˈhʌʊswɜːk] AmE [ˈhʌʊswɜːrk] *noununcountable

the work involved in taking care of a home and family, for example cleaning and cooking

- to do the housework

Example Bank:

- He does his fair share of housework.
- Her husband never helps with the housework.
- I spent all morning doing housework.
- The cook their own meals but they share the housework.
- The doctor said I could do a little light housework.
- They share all the bills and housework.

housework

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

housework /ˈhʌʊswɜːk$-wɜːrk/ BrE AmE noun [uncountable]work that you do to take care of a house, for example washing, cleaning etc ⇒ chore*do (the) housework

- I spent all morning doing the housework.
- I don't like doing housework.

• • •

GRAMMARHousework is an uncountable noun and has no plural form. Use a singular verb after it:

- the belief that housework is women's work

housework

Frequency Pack

12500 7542^{MCW}15000 10259^{COCA}RANGE: 5k HOUSEWORK ⁶⁴⁰housework ⁶⁴⁰

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

463 27642⁶⁴⁰ nn1