

materialize

[mə'ti(ə)rɪəlaɪz] v

- 1) материализовать
 - 2) материализоваться
- the shape of a man materialized out of the shadows - из тени возникла фигура человека
at last the bus materialized - наконец появился автобус
- 1) осуществлять, реализовать, претворять в жизнь (планы и т. п.)
 - 2) осуществляться, реализоваться, претворяться в жизнь (о планах и т. п.)
- his hopes never materialized - его мечтам не суждено было сбыться

materialize

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

ma-teri-al-ize (BrE also -ise) [materialize materializes materialized materializing] BrE [mə'tɪəriəlaɪz] ^u NAmE [mə'tɪriəlaɪz] ^u verb

1. intransitive (usually used in negative sentences) to take place or start to exist as expected or planned
 - The promotion he had been promised failed to materialize.
2. intransitive to appear suddenly and/or in a way that cannot be explained
 - A tall figure suddenly materialized at her side.
 - (informal) The train failed to materialize (= it did not come) .

Derived Word ↑materialization

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	materialize
	BrE /mə'tɪəriəlaɪz/
	NAmE /mə'tɪriəlaɪz/
he / she / it	materializes
	BrE /mə'tɪəriəlaɪzɪz/NAmE /mə'tɪriəlaɪzɪz/
past simple, past participle	materialized
	BrE /mə'tɪəriəlaɪzɪd/
	NAmE /mə'tɪriəlaɪzɪd/
-ing form	materializing
	BrE /mə'tɪəriəlaɪzɪŋ/
	NAmE /mə'tɪriəlaɪzɪŋ/

Example Bank:

- The hoped-for boom never materialized.
- The rise in share prices failed to materialize.
- We learned we must take threats seriously before they fully materialize.
- Fortunately his fears never materialized.

materialize

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

ma te ri a l i ze BrE ^u AmE ^u (also materialise British English) /mə'tɪəriəlaɪz $ -tɪr-/ verb

[intransitive]

[Word Family: noun: ↑material, ↑materialism, ↑materialist, MATERIALS, ↑materialization; adjective: ↑material, ↑immaterial, ↑materialistic, ↑materialist; adverb: ↑materialistically, ↑materially; verb: ↑materialize]

1. to happen or appear in the way that you expected:
 - Problems were expected, but they never materialized.
 - The money we had been promised failed to materialize.
2. to appear in an unexpected and strange way:
 - The figure of a man suddenly materialized in the shadows.

—materialization /mə'tɪəriəlaɪ'zeɪʃən $ -lə-/ noun [uncountable]

materialize

Freakuency Pack

12500 7588^{MCW}

15000 5959^{COCA}

RANGE: 5k MATERIALIZE ²¹⁹⁵

- materialize ⁸⁴⁶
- materializes ²⁰¹
- materialized ⁹⁵⁸
- materializing ¹¹⁹
- materialization ⁵⁷
- materialise ⁹
- materialises ⁰
- materialised ⁵
- materialising ⁰
- materialisation ⁰

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

638 26930⁶⁶⁷ vvi

160 58197¹⁶⁷ vv0

12 233683¹² nnu