

laden

1. [leɪdn] a
 - 1) нагруженный, гружёный
a fully laden ship - мор. судно в полном грузу
 - 2) гнущийся под тяжестью чего-л.
trees laden with fruit - деревья, сгибающиеся под тяжестью плодов
the table was laden with food - стол ломился от яств
2. обременённый
mind laden with sin [sorrow /grief/, guilt] - душа, обременённая грехом [горем, виной] laden with responsibilities - перегруженный заботами

2. [leɪdn] *p. p. om lade*²laden

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

laden BrE ['leɪdn] [ⓘ] NAmE ['leɪdn] [ⓘ] adjective ~ (with sth)

1. heavily loaded with sth
 - passengers laden with luggage
 - The trees were laden with apples.
 - a heavily/fully laden truck
- compare ↑unladen
2. (literary) full of sth, especially sth unpleasant
 - His voice was soft, yet laden with threat.
 3. -laden used to form adjectives showing that sth is full of, or loaded with, the thing mentioned
 - calorie-laden cream cakes

Word Origin:[laden] late 16th cent.: past participle of lade 'put cargo on a ship'.Example Bank:

- The trees were absolutely laden with apples.
- They arrived laden with gifts.
- Try to avoid discussing emotionally laden subjects.
- a fully laden basket

laden

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En) la [ⓘ] den /'leɪdn/ BrE [ⓘ] AmE [ⓘ] adjective[Date: 1500-1600; Origin: Past participle of lade 'to load' (11-21 centuries), from Old English hladan]

1. literary heavily loaded with something, or containing a lot of something

laden with

- The tables were laden with food.

fully/heavily laden

- The lorry was fully laden.
- snow-laden branches

2. having a lot of a particular quality, thing etc

laden with

- She was laden with doubts about the affair.
- trucks laden with equipment
- a debt-laden company

laden

Freakuency Pack

12500 8163^{MCW}15000 4148^{COCA}RANGE: 8k LADEN ⁴⁵⁴⁹laden ⁴⁵³⁸unladen ¹¹

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1775 9832³¹⁴⁷ *vvn*761 17108¹³⁹¹ jj