

lobster

[ˈlɒbstə] n

1. зоол.
 1) омар (Homarus)
 2) лангуст (Palinurus; тж. spiny lobster)
 3) большой речной рак
2. кул. мясо омара, лангуста, ракообразных
 lobster Newburg - омар «Ньюберг» (жаренный ломтиками со сметаной и хересом) lobster thermidor - омар «термидор» (варёный, с подливкой и тёртым сыром)
3. сл.
 1) неуклюжий человек; каракатица
 2) амер. простак, простофиля
 ◇ raw /unboiled/ lobster - полицейский, полисмен
 red as a lobster - красный как рак

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

lobster

lob·ster [lobster lobsters lobstered lobstering] BrE [ˈlɒbstə(r)] AmE

[ˈlɑːbstə] noun

1. countable a sea creature with a hard shell, a long body divided into sections, eight legs and two large claws (= curved and pointed arms for catching and holding things). Its shell is black but turns bright red when it is boiled.
2. uncountable meat from a lobster, used for food

Word Origin:

Old English lopustre, alteration of Latin locusta 'crustacean, locust'.

lobster

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

lob·ster /ˈlɒbstə $ ˈlɑːbstər BrE AmE noun

[Language: Old English; Origin: loppestre, probably from Latin locusta 'lobster' (influenced by Old English loppe 'spider')]

1. [countable] a sea animal with eight legs, a shell, and two large claws
2. [uncountable] the flesh of a lobster, which is eaten

lobster

Freakuency Pack

12500 8470<sup>MCW</sup>
 15000 4423<sup>COCA</sup>
 RANGE: 8k LOBSTER 4055
 lobster 2746
 lobsters 1309
 COCA 500k Unlemmatized
 1109 10870<sup>2746</sup> nn1