

bounty

1. ['bavnti] n

1. щедрость
2. (щедрый) подарок, дар
bounty of nature - дары природы
3. поощрительная правительственная премия
King's /Queen's/ bounty - пособие матери, родившей тройню

2. ['bavnti] v

1. премировать, вознаграждать
the bobcat is often regarded as a predator and is bountied - рысь часто считают вредным хищником, и за её истребление выплачивается премия
2. одаривать

bounty

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

bounty [bounty bounties] BrE ['baʊnti] ^ˈ NAmE ['baʊnti] ^ˈ noun (pl. bounties)

1. uncountable, countable (literary) generous actions; sth provided in large quantities
 - to thank the Lord for his bounty
 - the bounties of nature
2. countable money given as a reward
 - a bounty hunter (= sb who catches criminals or kills people for a reward)

Word Origin:

Middle English (denoting goodness or generosity): from Old French bonte 'goodness', from Latin bonitas, from bonus 'good'. The sense 'monetary reward' dates from the early 18th cent.

bounty

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

bounty /'baʊnti/ BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ noun (plural bounties)

[Date: 1300-1400; Language: Old French; Origin: bonté 'goodness', from Latin bonitas, from bonus; ⇨ ^ˈbonus]

1. [countable] an amount of money that is given to someone by the government as a reward for doing something, especially catching or killing a criminal bounty on ^ˈ a notorious cattle rustler with a bounty on his head
2. [uncountable] literary food or wealth that is provided in large amounts:
^ˈ People came from all over the world to enjoy America's bounty.
3. [uncountable] literary the quality of being generous

bounty

Freakuency Pack

12500 8516^{MCW}
15000 5785^{COCA}
RANGE: 9k BOUNTY 2403
bounty 1715
bounties 120 bountiful 546 bountifully 22
COCA 500k Unlemmatized
1266 14881¹⁷¹⁵ nn1