fart

1. [fɑːt] n груб.
   1. пукание; непристойный звук
   2. старик
   old fart - старпер, старый хрыч
2. [fɑːt] v груб.
   1. пукнуть
   2. зря терять время (обыкн. fart about, fart around)

---

fart

fart [fart farts farted farting] verb, noun BrE [fɑːt] NAmE [fɑːrt] verb intransitive (taboo, slang)
  to let air from the ↑bowels come out through the ↑anus, especially when it happens loudly A more polite way of expressing this is 'to break wind'.
   Verb forms:

verb forms

present simple
I / you / we /they	fart
	BrE /fɑːt/
	NAmE /fɑːrt/
he / she /it	farts
	BrE /fɑːts/
	NAmE /fɑːrts/
past simple, past participle	farted
	BrE /fɑːtɪd/
	NAmE /fɑːrtɪd/
-ing form	farting
	BrE /fɑːtɪŋ/
	NAmE /fɑːrtɪŋ/

   Word Origin:
   Old English (recorded in the verbal noun feorting 'farting') of Germanic origin; related to German farzen, furzen.
   Derived ↑fart around

noun (taboo, slang)
 1. an act of letting air from the ↑bowels come out through the ↑anus, especially when it happens loudly
 2. an unpleasant, boring or stupid person
  • He's just a boring old fart.

   Word Origin:
   Old English (recorded in the verbal noun feorting 'farting') of Germanic origin; related to German farzen, furzen.

   See also: ↑fart about

---

fart

I. fart[1] /fɑːt $ fɑːrt BrE AmE verb [intransitive] not polite
   [Language: Old English; Origin: feortan] to make air come out of your ↑bowels SYN break wind fart about/around phrasal verb informal to waste time not doing very much:
     Stop farting around and get on with your work!
II. fart[2] BrE AmE noun
 1. [countable] not polite an act of making air come out of your ↑bowels
 2. old fart informal a stupid and uninteresting older person

---

fart

12500 9884 MCW
15000 9476 COCA
RANGE: 7k FART 787
  fart 437
  farted 63 farting 116 farts 171 farter 0 farters 0
  COCA 500k Unlemmatized
  255 40789 324 nn1
  49 99116 60 vv0
  46 105636 53 vvi