[dı'fleit] v 1. 1) выкачивать, выпускать воздух, газ (из чего-л.) to deflate a balloon [a tyre] - спустить шар [шину] the tyre became deflated - шина спустила to deflate their growing propensity for open self-glorification - образн. умерить их растущую склонность к откровенной саморекламе 2) спускать (о шине и т. п.) 2. эк. сокращать выпуск денежных знаков to deflate the currency - сократить количество находящихся в обороте бумажных денег 3. снижать цены 4. 1) опровергать to deflate a rumour - опровергнуть слух to deflate one's words - опровергнуть свои собственные слова 2) разг. ставить (кого-л.) на место, обрезать (кого-л.) 5. мат. понижать порядок (матрицы) deflate Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed. de-flate [deflate deflates deflated deflating] verb 1. BrE [dɪ'fleɪt] , NAmE [dɪ'fleɪt] BrE [ˌdi□□fl♣ੈt ; NAmE [ˌdi□□fl♣ੈt transitive, intransitive ~ (sth) to let air or gas out of a tyre, †balloon, etc; to become smaller because of air or gas coming out 2. BrE [di'fleit] ; NAmE [dɪˈfleɪt] transitive, often passive ~ sb/sth to make sb feel less confident; to make sb/sth feel or seem less important All the criticism had left her feeling totally deflated. 3. BrE [ˌdi = fle t ; NAmE [ˌdi = fle t transitive ~ sth (economics) to reduce the amount of money being used in a country so that prices fall or stay steady compare finflate (3), freflate Verb forms: Word Origin: late 19th cent.: from 1de- (expressing reversal) + -flate (as in inflate). deflate Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En) de flate /,di□□fle dt,-/ BrE * AmE * verb [Word Family: adjective: finflatable, finflated, finflationary, feflationary, noun: finflatable, finflatable, finflation, freflation; verb. finflate, fdeflate, freflate Date: 1800-1900; Origin: de- + inflate 1. [intransitive and transitive] if a tyre, †balloon etc deflates, or if you deflate it, it gets smaller because the gas inside it comes out OPP inflate ⇒ go down, let down REGISTER In everyday British English, people usually say an object goes down rather than deflates:

Apresyan (En-Ru)

deflate

1250010961MCW

150006983COCA

RANGE: 8k DEFLATE 1593

4. [intransitive and transitive] technical to change economic rules or conditions in a country so that prices fall or stop rising

RANGE: 8k DEFLATE ¹⁵⁹³
deflate ²⁶⁴
deflates ⁷⁹
deflated ⁵⁷²
deflating ¹⁹⁶
deflation ⁴⁰²

It looks like the air bed has gone down.

2. [transitive] to make someone feel less important or less confident:

3. [transitive] to show that a statement, argument etc is wrong:

She was deflated when Fen made no comment on her achievement.

Simkin hoped to find a way to deflate his opponent's argument.

deflate

deflationary 80

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

₁₇₆54635¹⁸⁹ vvi

₅₆96548⁶³ vv0

₁₂233140¹² nn1