savour Apresyan (En-Ru)

1. ['seɪvə] n

1. 1) особый вкус (и запах)

pleasing [delicious, pungent] savour - приятный [восхитительный, пикантный] вкус appetizing savour - дразнящий /аппетитный запах

2) привкус (и запах)

sharp savour - острый привкус

the soup has a savour of onion [of fish] - суп отдаёт луком [рыбой]

2. острота интерес

I find no savour left in life - жизнь потеряла для меня всякий интерес, я потерял вкус к жизни

the savour of his humour - сочность его юмора danger gives a savour to mountain climbing - опасность придаёт альпинизму особую привлекательность

3. оттеноқ примесь; душок

a savour of pedantry (in his speech) - оттенокпедантичности (в его речи)

a savour of fanaticism - налёт фанатизма

with a savour of insolence - с примесью наглости

4. поэт. аромат, благоухание, благовоние

the savour of a rose - аромат розы

5. арх. репутация, слава

6. 1) библ. сила

if the salt have lost its savour - если же соль потеряетсилу

2) суть (дела и т. п.)

2. ['seivə] V

1. смаковать (что-л.), наслаждаться (вкусом, запахом и т. п.)

to savour the wine - смаковать вино

to savour the verses - наслаждаться стихами

2. иметь вкус, привкус или запах; отдавать (чем-л.)

those southern dishes always savour of garlic - южные блюда всегда отдают чесноком the soup savours of onion - суп попахивает луком

3. иметь черты или признаки (чего-л.), иметь привкус (чего-л.)

letter that savours of jealousy - письмо, в котором сквозит ревность

the speaker's words savoured strongly of intolerance - в словах оратораявно чувствовалась нетерпимость

a request that savours of command - просьба, больше похожая на приказание your remarks savour of impertinence - ваши замечания граничат с грубостью college baseball men should not savour of professionalism - игроки в бейсбол из числа студентов не должны иметь и тени профессионализма

a culture that savours of decay - культура, в которой есть черты упадка

4. редк. придавать (при)вкус или запах

meat savoured with onions - мясо, приправленное луком

a life well savoured with humour - жизнь, скрашенная /сдобренная/ юмором

savour

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

sa·vour [savour savours savoured savouring] (especially US savor) verb, noun BrE ['servə(n)] NAmE ['server]

1. ~ sth to enjoy the full taste or flavour of sth, especially by eating or drinking it slowly

Syn: \relish

- · He ate his meal slowly, savouring every mouthful.
- · She took a sip of wine, savouring the fine vintage.

2. ~ sth to enjoy a feeling or an experience thoroughly

Syn: †relish

- I wanted to savour every moment.
- He sat for a few moments, savouring the memory to the full .
- · an opportunity to savour the delights of snowboarding

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
1 / you / we /they	savour
	BrE / 'sezve(r)/
	NAME / servar/
he / she /it	savours
	BrE / 'sezvaz/
	NAmE / servarz/
past simple, past participle	savoured
	BrE / 'sezved/
	NAME /'setverd/
-ing form	savouring
	BrE / 'sezverzy/
	NAME / serverin/

Word Origin:

Middle English: from Old French, from Latin sapor, from sapere 'to taste'.

```
Example Bank:
```

• She sat for a few moments, savouring the memory to the full.

Derived †savour of something noun usually singular (formal or literary)

a taste or smell, especially a pleasant one: (figurative) For Emma, life had lost its savour.

Word Origin:

Middle English: from Old French, from Latin sapor, from sapere 'to taste'.

savour

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. salvour BrE AmE British English, savor American English ('serve $ -er/ verb [transitive]

- 1. to fully enjoy the taste or smell of something:
 - She sipped her wine, savouring every drop.
- 2. to fully enjoy a time or experience:
 - She savoured her few hours of freedom.
 - He hesitated, savouring the moment.

savour of something phrasal verb formal to seem to involvesomething bad or to have some of a bad quality:

- We must avoid anything that savours of corruption.
- II. savour² BrE * AmE * British English, savor American English noun [singular, uncountable] formal
 - 1. a pleasant taste or smell:
 - the sweet savour of wood smoke
 - 2. interest and enjoyment:
 - Life seemed to have lost its savour for him.

Savour

1250011647MCW
Freakuency Pack

15000 5775 COCA
RANGE: 9k SAVOUR 2356
savour 19
savoured 4
savouring 14
savor 1110
savors 116
savored 478
savoring 615
COCA 500k Unlemmatized
1123557712 vv0
73199147 vvi