

grant1. [grɑːnt] n*1. дар; пожалование

a grant of lands - пожалование землёй; предоставление земли to bestow /to confer/ a grant on smb. - подарить /пожаловать/ что-л. кому-л.

2. юр.1) дарственная, документ о передаче прав, отчуждения имущества

in grant - по дарственной

2) дарение3. дотация, субсидия

research grant - субсидия на проведение исследования a grant of 5,000 dollars for study - стипендия размером в 5000 долларов to make a grant to smb., to adjudge smb. a grant - дать кому-л. субсидию to receive a State grant - получить государственную субсидию to put in a claim for a grant - ходатайствовать о субсидии

4. pl/ стипендия5. согласие, разрешение, уступка

the grant or refusal of ... - согласие на ... или отказ в ...

2. [grɑːnt] v1. 1) даровать, жаловать, дарить

to grant lands - даровать землю, жаловать землёй to grant an allowance of ... - назначать денежное содержание в размере ... to grant rights [privileges] - давать права [привилегии] to grant (a) pardon - даровать прощение the countries that have been granted autonomy - страны, которым была предоставлена автономия God grant it! - дай боже!
heavengrant that ... - возвыш. да будет воля неба на то, чтобы ...

2) юр. передавать, отчуждать2. давать дотацию, субсидию

to grant credit - предоставлять кредит to grant a loan to smb. - предоставить /дать/ кому-л. ссуду, дать кому-л. в долг

3. разрешать; давать согласие (на что-л.); удовлетворять (просьбу и т. п.)

to grant a petition [a request] - удовлетворять ходатайство [просьбу] to grant a delay - предоставить отсрочку to grant smb. permission to do smth. - разрешить кому-л. сделать что-л.

4. допускать; признавать, подтверждать правильность (чего-л.)

to grant the truth of what has been said - считать сказанное справедливым to grant that smb. is right - допускать, что кто-л. прав
I grant you the force of that argument - я признаю справедливость вашего довода ◇ to take for granted - а) считать (что л.) доказанным /не требующим доказательства, само собой разумеющимся/; to take nothing for granted - ничего не принимать на веру; б) считать (что-л.) законным /само собою разумеющимся/; he takes it for granted that he can borrow my books - он считает себя вправе брать мои книги; ≅ он берёт мои книги без зазрения совести; в) считать (что-л.) обеспеченным, (твёрдо) надеяться на что-л.
to take success for granted - рассчитывать на успех

grant

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

grant AW [grant grants granted granting] verb, noun BrE [grɑːnt] * NAmE[grænt] verb*1. often passive to agree to give sb what they ask for, especially formal or legal permission to do sth

- ~ sth My request was granted.
- ~ sb sth I was granted permission to visit the palace.
- She was granted a divorce.
- He was granted a licence to mine in the area.
- The bank finally granted me a £500 loan.
- ~ sth to sb/sth The bank finally granted a £500 loan to me.
- These lands had been granted to the family in perpetuity.

2. to admit that sth is true, although you may not like or agree with it

- ~ sb She's a smart woman, I grant you, but she's no genius.
- ~ (sb) (that)... I grant you (that) it looks good, but it's not exactly practical.

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	grant
	BrE /grɑːnt/
	NAmE /graɪnt/
he / she / it	grants
	BrE /grɑːnts/
	NAmE /graɪnts/
past simple, past participle	granted
	BrE /grɑːntɪd/
	NAmE /graɪntɪd/
-ing form	granting
	BrE /grɑːntɪŋ/
	NAmE /graɪntɪŋ/

Word Origin:

Middle English: from Old French granter 'consent to support', variant of creanter 'to guarantee', based on Latin credere 'entrust'.

Example Bank:

- Permission is hereby granted to reproduce this material.
- Planning permission was finally granted in October.
- The judge refused to grant him bail.
- The law effectively grants the company immunity from prosecution.
- the rights expressly granted by the terms of the lease
- Granted, he is a beginner, but he should know the basic rules.
- Her wish was granted.
- I'll grant you (that) it looks good, but it's not exactly practical.
- Planning permission for the development was granted last week.
- She's a smart woman, I grant you, but she's no genius.
- The contract was granted to an Australian company
- The court granted him leave to appeal.
- The government granted an amnesty to all political prisoners.
- The judge granted an injunction preventing the newspaper from printing the names.

Idioms: ↑take it for granted ▪ ↑take somebody for granted noun ~ (to do sth)

a sum of money that is given by the government or by another organization to be used for a particular purpose

- student grants (= to pay for their education)
- He has been awarded a research grant.

Word Origin:

Middle English: from Old French granter 'consent to support', variant of creanter 'to guarantee', based on Latin credere 'entrust'.

Thesaurus:

grant noun C

- The college has a government grant to buy new equipment.

funding • • subsidy • |formal endowment •

a grant/funding/a subsidy/an endowment from sb/sth

a grant/funding/a subsidy/an endowment for sth

a grant/subsidy to sb/sth

a grant/funding to do sth

Example Bank:

- Poorer students would get maintenance grants of up to £1 500 a year.
- The full student maintenance grant was rather less than £2 000.
- The government has awarded a 3.5 million pound grant for the restoration of the opera house.
- The government has awarded a grant for the restoration of the building.
- The group's annual grant from the Arts Council has been cut.
- The program offers grants to small businesses.
- The report was funded by a grant from the Department.
- The school has received a large capital grant to improve its buildings.
- There is a lot of competition for research grants.
- You can get a grant if you've lived in the area for three years.
- You may be eligible for a clothing grant.
- a grant for a youth project
- a grant from the funding authority
- emergency grants for special needs for items such as clothing
- home improvement grants for householders
- She has been awarded a research grant by Liverpool University.
- The hospital has applied for a government grant to buy a new scanner.

grantI. grant¹ S2 W2 AC /grɑːnt/$grænt/ BrE " AmE " verb [transitive]

[Date: 1200-1300; Language: Old French; Origin: creanter, graanter, from Latin credere 'to believe']

1. formal to give someone something or allow them to have something that they have asked for:" Britain could grant Spain's request.

" I would love to be able to grant her wish.

grant somebody something" The council have granted him permission to build on the site.grant something to somebody

" A licence to sell alcohol was granted to the club.

grant that (=used in prayers)

" Grant that we may know your presence and love.

REGISTERIn everyday English, people usually say give permission rather than grant permission:" They gave him permission to stay.2. to admit that something is true although it does not make much difference to your opinion ⇒ concede:" He's got talent, I grant you, but he doesn't work hard enough.3. take it for granted (that) to believe that something is true without making sure:

" He just took it for granted that he would pass the exam.

4. take somebody/something for granted to expect that someone or something will always be there when you need them and never think how important or useful they are:

" Bridget was careful not to take him for granted.

II. grant² S2 W2 AC BrE " AmE " noun [countable]

an amount of money given to someone, especially by the government, for a particular purpose:

" The university gets a government grant.

" Anyone wishing to apply for a grant should write to the Treasurer.grant of

" a grant of £50,000

grant from

" These studios are funded by a grant from the Kress Foundation.

• • •

COLLOCATIONS■ NOUN + grant" a government grant The school has won a £240,000 government grant to improve its science and technology areas." a research grant He received a research grant to study the effect of pollution on the environment." a student grant If you are on a low income, you may be able to get a student grant." a block grant American English (=money given by the central government to state governments in order to pay for services such as the police, roads etc) Congress approved block grants for education, health, and social services.■ phrases" a grant of £5,000, $8,000 etc The library received a grant of $20,000 to improve its computer facilities.■ verbs" apply for a grant We could apply for a grant and start a serious research programme." be eligible for a grant (=be allowed to receive a grant) This booklet explains who is eligible to receive a grant." get/obtain a grant You may be able to get a grant to learn a trade." receive a grant It is likely that you will receive a grant to cover your tuition." give/award somebody a grant If you have been awarded a grant, you must send the details to the university." be funded by a grant The expansion of the computer department was funded by a government grant.grant12500 1327^{MCW}15000 1397^{COCA}RANGE: 1k GRANT 39355

grant 19279

granted 11243

granting 2052

grants 6781

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

3609 4384⁹⁰⁹² *np1*3525 6678⁵³⁶⁴ *nn1*2240 11158²⁶⁵¹ *vvi*1310 13660¹⁹⁶³ *vv0*170 52395²⁰⁴ *npX*4 398348⁵ nnu