

entry['entri] n

I

1. 1) вход; въезд
no entry - входа нет, въезд запрещён port of entry - порт ввоза
they have a right of free entry to the exhibition - они имеют право проходить на выставку бесплатно
  - 2) спорт. вход в воду
  - 3) косм. вход, вхождение в атмосферу
  - 4) вчт. ввод данных
entry conditions - начальные условия, предусловия entry instruction - точка входа
  2. 1) (торжественный) выход
the King's entry - выход короля
  - 2) выход актёра (на сцену)
  3. вступление
entry into war - вступление в войну entry into combat - амер. вступление в бой his entry into literature - начало его литературной деятельности upon entry into force of the agreement - по вступлении соглашения в силу
  4. поступление (в школу и т. п.) to take examinations for entry to a university - сдавать вступительные экзамены в университет
  5. (входная) дверь, ворота; вход, проход he stood in the entry - он стоял в дверях /при входе/to park one's car at the entry - поставить машину у подъезда /у входа/
  6. 1) передняя; вестибюль; сени
  - 2) амер. лестничная площадка
  7. устье (реки)
  8. амер. начало (периода); наступление entry of a month - начало месяца; наступление нового месяца
  9. юр.
1) фактическое вступление во владение недвижимым имуществом
2) восстановление нарушенного владения
  10. юр. проникновение в жилой дом с целью совершения преступления burglarious entry - кража со взломом illegal entry of a dwelling - незаконное вторжение в дом; нарушение неприкосновенности жилища
  11. горн. откаточный штрек
  12. метал. посадка (в печь)
- II
1. 1) занесение, внесение (в список, в торговую книгу)
  - 2) бухгалтерская проводка
  2. (отдельная) запись, отметка (в книге, документе и т. п.) to make an entry - сделать запись; занести в книгу и т. п.
to make an entry in a diary - записать что-л. в дневник to post an entry - воен. сделать запись (в учётном документе) entry on the map - пометка на карте
  3. статья (в словаре, справочнике и т. п.)
the latest edition of the glossary contains 5,000 entries - последнее издание глоссария содержит 5 тыс. словарных статей
  4. 1) список участников (конкурса, выставки, соревнования) large entry - большой конкурс
  - 2) записавшийся (для участия в соревновании, конкурсе), претендент, соискатель
  - 3) спорт. заявка на участие
  5. экспонат (на выставке); произведение, присланное на конкурс, конкурсная работа to judge between the entries - быть членом жюри
Entries by 3 December - срок представления до 3 декабря (о рукописях и т. п. в конкурсном объявлении)
  6. спец. содержание графы или таблицы; данные в таблице
  7. спец.
1) описание (библиографическое)
author's [subject] entry - (библиографическое) описание под фамилией автора [под предметной рубрикой]
  - 2) заголовок описания (тж. entry heading)
  8. таможенная декларация entry inwards [outwards] - декларация по приходу [отходу]

entry*entry [entry entries] BrE ['entri] <sup>m</sup> NAmE ['entri] <sup>m</sup> noun (pl. entries)

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

GOING IN

1. countable, uncountable an act of going into or getting into a place

- She made her entry to the sound of thunderous applause.
- The children were surprised by the sudden entry of their teacher.
- ~ (into sth) How did the thieves gain entry into the building?

2. uncountable the right or opportunity to enter a place

- No Entry (= for example, on a sign)
- ~ (to/into sth) Entry to the museum is free.
- to be granted/refused entry into the country

JOINING GROUP

3. uncountable ~ (into sth) the right or opportunity to take part in sth or become a member of a group

- countries seeking entry into the European Union
- the entry of women into the workforce
- American entry into the war

IN COMPETITION

4. countable something that you do, write or make to take part in a competition, for example answering a set of questions

- There have been some impressive entries in the wildlife photography section (= impressive photographs).
- The closing date for entries is 31 March.
- The sender of the first correct entry drawn will win a weekend for two in Venice.

5. uncountable the act of taking part in a competition, race, etc

- Entry is open to anyone over the age of 18.
- an entry form

6. singular the total number of people who are taking part in a competition, race, etc

- There's a record entry for this year's marathon.

WRITTEN INFORMATION

7. countable an item, for example a piece of information, that is written or printed in a dictionary, an account book, a diary, etc

- an encyclopedia entry
- ~ (in sth) There is no entry in his diary for that day.

8. uncountable the act of recording information in a computer, book, etc

- More keyboarding staff are required for data entry.

DOOR/GATE

9. (also entry-way BrE ['entriweɪ] <sup>m</sup> ; NAmE ['entriweɪ] <sup>m</sup> ) (both NAmE) countable a door, gate or passage where you enter a building; an entrance hall

- You can leave your umbrella in the entry.

Word Origin:

Middle English: from Old French entree, based on Latin intrata, feminine past participle of intrare, from intra 'within'.

Thesaurus:

entry noun U

- Entry to the museum is free.

access • • admission • • entrance • entry/access/admission/entrance to sth

free entry/access/admission/entrance

refuse/deny (sb) entry/access/admission/entrance

Example Bank:

- Caesar's triumphal entry into Rome
- Drugs are believed to come into the country through five main entry points.
- Entry tickets to most attractions are included in the price of the holiday.
- Entry to university should be based on academic potential.
- Fire marshals barred entry to the hall.
- First examine the entries on the marriage register.
- He found the door locked, but he forced an entry.
- Hungary's entry into the EU
- I post the occasional blog entry.
- It has been necessary to restrict entry into the club.
- Look at the dictionary entry for 'welcome'.
- New York was the point of entry for most immigrants arriving in the US.
- Send in your entry as soon as possible!
- She applied for entry to Nottingham University.
- She wondered how she could gain entry to the building.
- The champion made his usual dramatic entry into the arena.
- The club offers free entry to women on Thursdays.
- The course will ease students' entry into a career.
- The house was quiet, and there were no signs of a forced entry.
- The landlord had the right of entry to the building with due warning.
- The show attracted entries from all over the country.

- The sign on the gates read 'No Unauthorized Entry'.
- The state should reduce entry barriers for developing countries.
- The winning entry will be published in next month's issue.
- There were a record 2 000 entries in the under-17 section.
- These qualifications will not guarantee you entry into the police force.
- They were later allowed entry into the country.
- Very little information is given in the diary entries.
- We had too many entries for this event
- We have had a lot of entries this year.
- one of the best entries to our competition
- the dramatic entry to the gallery
- the last entry she made in her diary
- undocumented workers seeking entry to the US
- A sign said: No Entry.
- Entry to the party conference was denied to several journalists.
- Hotel guests have free entry to the sports centre.
- On my entry they immediately stopped what they were doing.
- That was before the American entry into the war.
- The children were silenced by the sudden entry of Mrs Robbins.
- The singer was refused entry to the US.
- Things changed forever with the entry of women into the workforce.
- Until 1968 Commonwealth citizens were allowed free entry into Britain.

entry

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

en try S3 W2 /'entri/ BrE <sup>ˈ</sup> AmE <sup>ˈ</sup> noun (plural entries)

[Word Family: noun: ↑entrance, ↑entrant, ↑entry; verb: ↑enter]

[Date: 1200-1300; Language: Old French; Origin: entree, from entrer, ⇒ ↑enter]

1. ACT OF ENTERING [uncountable and countable] the act of going into something OPP exit

entry into

- It was dark and their entry into the camp had gone unnoticed.
- Harry made his entry into the village.
- There was no sign of a forced entry.
- How did the thieves gain entry (=get in)?

2. BECOMING INVOLVED [uncountable] when someone starts to take part in a system, a particular kind of work etc, or the permission they need in order to do this ### entry into/to

- Britain's entry into the European Union
- the minimum height for entry into the police force
- This enabled European banks to gain entry into new markets.
- the entry requirements for a degree course

3. RIGHT TO ENTER [uncountable] the right to enter a place, building etc

entry to/into

- Entry to the gardens is included in the price of admission.
- The refugees were repeatedly refused entry into (=not allowed in) the country.

no entry (=written on signs to show that you are not allowed to go somewhere)

- an entry visa

4. COMPETITION [countable]

a) something that you write, make, do etc in order to try and win a competition:

- The winning entry will be published in our April issue.
- What's the closing date for entries?

b) [usually singular] the number of people or things taking part in a competition:

- We've attracted a record entry this year.

5. SOMETHING WRITTEN [countable] a piece of writing in a ↑diary, or in a book containing information such as a dictionary:

- a dictionary entry

6. COMPUTER [uncountable] the act of putting information into a computer:

- data entry

7. DOOR [countable] (also entryway American English) a door, gate, or passage that you go through to enter a place ⇒

↑entrance<sup>1</sup>(1)

• • •

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 1)

■ verbs

- gain entry Burglars use various methods to gain entry to houses.
- force an entry (=get into a building by breaking a door, window etc) The church was locked, but he managed to force an entry.
- make your entry (=enter in a way that makes other people notice you) She waited until everyone was sitting down before she made her entry.

■ adjectives

- illegal entry (=when someone gets into a building illegally) The two men were later arrested and charged with illegal entry.
- unauthorized entry (=when someone gets into a place where they are not allowed) There was a big sign on the door saying

NO UNAUTHORIZED ENTRY.

- forced entry (=when someone gets into a building illegally by breaking a door, window etc) There were no signs of a forced entry, but several paintings were missing.

■ entry + NOUN

- an entry point (=a place where people can enter a country) The 2,000 mile border is the main entry point into the country for illegal aliens.

• • •

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 2)

■ verbs

- gain entry (=be allowed to take part) You need good exam results to gain entry to the best universities.
- restrict entry (=stop someone taking part in something) Tariffs on trade have the effect of restricting entry into the market.

■ NOUN + entry

- university/college/school entry Japan has one of the highest rates of college and university entry in the world.

■ entry + NOUN

- entry requirements Applicants must satisfy the normal entry requirements for the school.
- entry qualifications What are the entry qualifications for the course?

• • •

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 3)

■ adjectives

- free Guests have free entry to the hotel spa and gym. | Entry is free for children.

■ entry + NOUN

- an entry visa (=a visa which allows you to enter a country) Visitors to the United States must first obtain an entry visa.
- an entry ticket (=a ticket that allows you to enter a place) The holiday includes a 2-day entry ticket to the Euro Disneyland Theme Park.

■ verbs

- apply for entry The number of people applying for entry into the country is increasing every year.
- allow (somebody) entry (also grant (somebody) entry formal) (=let someone enter a place) Citizens of most EU countries are allowed automatic entry into Britain.
- refuse/deny (somebody) entry (=stop someone entering) He was refused entry to the club because he was wearing trainers.

■ phrases

- no entry (=written on signs to show that you are not allowed to go somewhere) The door had 'No Entry' written in large letters.

entry

Freakuency Pack

12500 1371<sup>MCW</sup>

15000 574<sup>COCA</sup>

RANGE: 1k ENTER 83589

enter 19758

entered 19539

unentered 0

entering 9977

enters 7457

entrance 10797

entrances 844

entries 3907

entry 11310

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

7148 3619<sup>11292</sup> nn1

8 249749<sup>11</sup> nnu

7 313322<sup>7</sup> jj