victim ['viktim] n

1. рел. живое существо, приносимое в жертву

2. жертва

victims of war [of an accident, of pestilence, of circumstances] - жертвы войны [несчастного случая, эпидемии, обстоятельств] the victim of malice [of hatred] - жертва недоброжелательства[ненависти] the victim of his own folly - жертва собственной глупости to fall victim to smth. - стать /пасть/ жертвой чего-л.

3. жертва обмана, простак

victim

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

vic·tim [victim victims] BrE ['vɪktɪm] NAmE ['vɪktɪm] noun

1. a person who has been attacked, injured or killed as the result of a crime, a disease, an accident, etc

- murder/rape, etc. victims
- accident/earthquake/famine, etc. victims
- AIDS/cancer/stroke, etc. victims
- victims of crime
- She was the innocent victim of an arson attack.
- Schools are the latest victims of cuts in public spending.

2. a person who has been tricked

Syn: [†]target

• They were the victims of a cruel hoax.

see also fashion victim

3. an animal or a person that is killed and offered as a [†]sacrifice

• a sacrificial victim

I diom [↑]fall victim

Word Origin:

late 15th cent. (denoting a creature killed as a religious sacrifice): from Latin victima.

Example Bank:

- Boys are the primary victims of corporal punishment.
- · He defrauded his innocent victims of millions of pounds.
- He managed to lure victims into his car.
- · He targeted younger victims, often single women.
- · Her son fell victim to tuberculosis.
- I his fantasies, women became passive and sometimes even willing victims.
- I his trial, he tried to portray himself as the victim of an uncaring society.
- Not all victims have been identified yet.
- She's a fashion victim.
- · Stop playing the victim- you knew exactly what was happening.
- The cut in benefits for the unemployed is a classic case of blaming the victim.
- The government is sending aid to flood victims.
- The helpline takes calls from child-abuse victims.
- The intended victims were selected because they seemed vulnerable
- The small company became a victim of its own success when it could not supply all its orders on time.
- The train crash claimed its tenth victim yesterday when the driver died in hospital.
- The victim suffered severe cuts to the upper lip.
- This victim mentality is sadly all too prevalent in our country.
- · Tourists are easy victims for pickpockets.
- · Unfortunately, she fell victim to an unscrupulous landlord.
- a bill aimed at compensating victims of air pollution
- · a service to remember the victims of the terrorist attacks
- · groups claiming victim status
- the child victims of the war
- · the failure to protect domestic-violence victims
- ways to avoid becoming a victim of fraud
- · A new programme will assist stroke victims for whom mobility has become difficult.
- Al DSpictims are prone to pick up infections.
- He shouldn't feel ashamed— he was an innocent victim.
- She defrauded her unsuspecting victims of millions of pounds.
- accident/earthquake/famine victims
- murder/rape victims

victim

vic tim S3 W2 /'vɪktəm, 'vɪktɪm/ BrE AmE noun [countable]

[Date: 1400-1500, Language: Latin, Origin: victima 'person or animal killed as a religious offering']

- 1. someone who has been attacked, robbed, or murdered:
 - The victim received head injuries from which she died a week later.

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

rape/murder etc victim

Most homicide victims are under 30.

victim of

- victims of crime
 - a credit card fraud ring that stole millions of dollars from unsuspecting victims

2. someone who suffers because of something bad that happens or because of an illness

victim of

- victims of age discrimination
- He was the victim of an administrative error.
- a massive aid programme for the famine victims
- AI DSictims and other patients who are terminally ill
- All these people are innocent victims.
- He was used to being in charge, not being the victim of circumstance.
- Saying that the unemployed 'don't want to work' is a classic case of blaming the victim.

3. fall victim to somebody/something written

- a) to be attacked, killed etc by someone, or to get a particular illness, especially one that kills: One theory is that the hostages fell victim to bandits.
- b) to be badly affected or destroyed by a situation:
- Many small businesses have fallen victim to the recession.
- 4. be/become a victim of its own success to be badly affected by some unexpected results of being very successful: There are now so many tourists that the area has become a victim of its own success.
- 5. sacrificial victim a person or animal that is killed and offered as a [†]sacrifice (=gift) to a god
- 6. fashion/style victim someone who always wears the most fashionable clothes even if they do not look good in them

• • •

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 2)

ADJECTIVES/NOUN + victim

- a flood/earthquake /cyclone etc victim Earthquake victims were living in tents in the city's parks.
- a famine victim (=someone who has had no food to eat for a long time) Aid is being shipped to famine victims.
- a cancer/AIDS etc victim He helped raise £2,000 for a dying cancer victim.
- an accident/crash victim The crash victims were rushed to hospital.
- an innocent victim Children are the innocent victims of war.
- an unfortunate victim | you are the unfortunate victim of a tragic accident, this card will tell doctors that you are willing to donate your organs.

victim + NOUN

• a victim mentality (=when someone always thinks of themselves as a victim) Many of us fall into a victim mentality, and blame all our troubles on other people.

phrases

• a victim of circumstance (=someone who suffers because of something they cannot control) She was a victim of circumstance, as she was born at a time when women had no power.

circumstance, as she was born at a time when wom

verbs

• blame the victim (=to say that someone is responsible for their own bad situation) I is blaming the victim to ask the woman what she does that makes her husband lose his temper and hit her.

• portray somebody as a victim (=to write or talk about someone as though they are not responsible for their bad situation) She was portrayed as the victim of a loveless marriage.

victim

Freakuency Pack

12500 ^{1461^{MCW}}
₁₅₀₀₀ 1095 ^{COCA}
RANGE: 2k VI CTI 4RA44
victim ¹⁶⁷³⁵
victims ²²³⁹⁰
victimize 101
victimized 1369
victimizing 89
victimization 1756
victimise ⁰
victimised ⁰
victimising ⁰
victimisation ⁴
COCA 500k Unlemmatized
₉₁₈₈ 2551 ¹⁶⁷⁰⁷ nn1
₂₂ 163885 ²³ nnu
⊿ 395036 ⁵ jj
4 22