

dad

I [dæd] разг., детск. см. daddy

dad and mom have gone - папа и мама ушли

II

[dæd] в горн.

проветривать выработку

dad

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

dad [dad dads] BrE [dæd] ¹ NAmE [dæd] ¹ noun (informal)

(often used as a name) father

- That's my dad over there.
- Do you live with your mum or your dad?
- Is it OK if I borrow the car, Dad?

Word Origin:

mid 16th cent.: perhaps imitative of a young child's first syllables da, da.

Thesaurus:

dad noun C (informal, especially spoken)

- Do you live with your mum and dad?

father • stepfather • parent • |informal, especially spoken daddy •

a good/bad/caring/loving/devoted/proud dad/father/parent take after/inherit sth from your dad/father/parents/daddy become a/sb's dad/father/stepfather/parent

Dad or father? In spoken English dad is much more frequent. It can sound formal to say my father.

Example Bank:

- My old dad got really wild if you said he was working-class.
- She went on holiday with her mum and dad.
- That's my dad over there.

dad

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

dad S1 W3 /dæd/ BrE ¹ AmE ¹ noun [countable]

[Date: 1500-1600; Origin: From a word used by very young children]

informal father:

- " She lives with her mom and dad.
- " Dad, will you help me?

• • •

THESAURUS

- father a male parent: My father's a doctor. | He's a father of three.
- dad informal used when talking to your father, or about someone's father: Can I borrow your car, Dad? | Her dad retired ten years ago. | My dad was in the army.
- daddy a name for father, which is used especially by young children or when you are talking to young children: Where's your daddy? | Daddy, can I have a drink, please?
- pop American English informal (also pa old-fashioned) used when talking to your father, or about someone's father: I helped Pop fix the gate this morning. | Can I help, Pa? | He is in New York with his Pop's credit card, eating all the ice cream and pizza the city has to offer.
- papa old-fashioned informal used when talking to your father, or about someone's father: Papa had forbidden me to go. | She saw her papa's face change at this news.
- sb's old man informal someone's father – used when talking about him in a way that is not very respectful: His old man wouldn't let him use the car.
- stepfather (also stepdad informal) a man who is married to your mother, who is not your father but often acts as your parent: Her stepfather is really nice.

dad

Freakuency Pack

12500 1842^{MCW}

15000 1449^{COCA}

RANGE: 1k DAD 28982

dad 22001

daddy 5424

dads 1557

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

9700 1948²¹⁹⁸² nn1

9 274996⁹ np1

6 341236⁶ jj

4 442990⁴ nnu