

preparation[ˌpreɪəˈreɪʃ(ə)n] n

1. 1) приготовление, подготовка
preparation of drugs - изготовление лекарств preparations for war - военные приготовления подготовка к войне preparation fire - воен. огневая /артиллерийская/ подготовка to make preparations for a journey [for guests] - готовиться к поездке [принять гостей]
to make preparations for meal - собирать /накрывать/ на стол
a new edition is in active preparation - идёт активная подготовка нового издания
he made preparations for leave - он собрался уезжать
- 2) состояние готовности, готовность
2. 1) приготовление уроков
- 2) время, потраченное на приготовление уроков
3. спец.
- 1) препарат
- 2) препарирование
4. лекарство
5. 1) тех. предварительная обработка
- 2) горн. обогащение
preparation plant - обогатительная установка

preparation

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

prep·ar·ation [preparation preparations] BrE [ˌpreɪəˈreɪʃn] n NAme[ˌpreɪəˈreɪʃn] n

1. uncountable ~ (for sth) the act or process of getting ready for sth or making sth ready
 - Preparation for the party started early.
 - food preparation
 - Careful preparation for the exam is essential.
 - The third book in the series is currently in preparation .
 - The team has been training hard in preparation for the big game.
 - No athlete would dream of entering a big race without adequate preparation.
2. countable, usually plural things that you do to get ready for sth or make sth ready
 - ~ (for sth) The country is making preparations for war.
 - Was going to college a good preparation for your career?
 - ~ (to do sth) We made preparations to move to new offices.
 - wedding preparations
3. countable a substance that has been specially prepared for use as a medicine, ↑cosmetic, etc
 - a pharmaceutical preparation
 - preparations for the hair and skin

Word Origin:late Middle English: via Old French from Latin praeparatio(n-), from praeparare 'make ready before', from prae 'before' + parare 'make ready' .Thesaurus:preparation noun U, C, usually pl.

• We're making the final preparations for the conference.

arrangement • • planning • • organization • • provision • • coordination • • logistics •preparations/arrangements/planning/organization/provision for sb/sthpreparations/arrangements/planning/provision to do sth*make preparations/arrangements/provisionExample Bank:

- An awful lot of advance preparation must have gone into this summit.
- As with any business, proper preparation is required.
- Get a good night's sleep in preparation for the drive.
- He found it good preparation for the diplomatic skills needed in his new job.
- He had received inadequate preparation for a professional career.
- He's done a lot of preparation for this meeting.
- It is the initial preparation that takes the time.
- Many Taiwanese children take preparation courses for the SATs.
- Preparations are now in hand to close half the factories.
- Prior preparation is vital for achieving success .
- She flew in from Paris to oversee final preparations.
- Teacher preparation programs train teachers to become effective instructors of children.
- The family can now go ahead with preparations for the funeral.
- The preparation program was well designed.
- They receive a fine preparation for college.
- This simple dish takes very little preparation time.

- War preparations intensified.
- We're making the final preparations for the party.
- a college-based teacher preparation program
- a dish that requires no elaborate preparation or cooking
- extensive preparations for war
- food preparation and food handling tips
- her mental preparation for the games
- individuals who do not have the money or academic preparation to attend college
- military preparations for full-scale action
- the agency that oversees the preparation of the budget
- two years of intense preparation
- Decide how much preparation time you will need.
- How are your wedding preparations coming along?
- The country was making preparations for war.
- The gallery is making preparations to celebrate the artist's centenary.
- The third book in the series is currently in preparation.
- This dish doesn't require much preparation.
- You will get some basic instructions on food preparation.
- You will need to do some preparation at home.

preparation

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

preparation S3 W3 /ˌpreɪˈreɪʃən/ BrE AmE noun

[Word Family: noun: ↑preparation, preparations, ↑preparedness; adjective: ↑prepared ≠ ↑unprepared, ↑preparatory; verb: ↑prepare]

1. [singular, uncountable] the process of preparing something or preparing for something:

" This dish is good for dinner parties because much of the preparation can be done ahead of time.

preparation for

" Business training is a good preparation for any career.

preparation of

" the preparation of the budget

do something in preparation for something (=in order to prepare for something)

" He is practising every day, in preparation for the ice-skating championship.

" Plans for the new school are now in preparation.

" a course in food service and food preparation

2. preparations [plural] arrangements for something that is going to happen

preparations for

" Preparations for the upcoming Olympic Games are nearing completion.

" Preparations are being made for the President's visit.

" The festival was a great success, and preparations are underway (=have started) for another one next summer.

3. [countable] formal a mixture that has been prepared and that is used for a particular purpose, especially as a medicine or to make your skin more attractive:

" a new preparation for cleansing the skin

• • •

COLLOCATIONS

■ adjectives

▪ careful preparation Moving to a new house requires careful preparation.

▪ thorough preparation (=very careful and detailed) Thorough preparation is the best way to do well in an exam.

▪ meticulous preparation (=extremely careful not to miss any details) The robbery took place after months of meticulous preparation.

▪ good/ideal preparation (=very useful) The game was good preparation for our match at Torquay next week.

▪ adequate/proper preparation You cannot go on a dangerous trip like this without adequate preparation.

■ verbs

▪ do some/no preparation He had obviously done no preparation for the meeting.

▪ need/require preparation Important competitions need proper preparation.

▪ be in preparation formal (=used to say that something is being prepared) Reports are in preparation.

preparation

Freakuency Pack

12500 2092^{MCW}

15000 633^{COCA}

RANGE: 1k PREPARE 74781

prepare 14796

preparation 11626

preparations 2488

prepared 27341

prepares 2368

preparing 10797

unprepared 1287

preparatory 980

prep 2040

preparedness 1058

