

councillor['kʌvns(ə)lə] n

- 1) член (местного) совета
- 2) советник

councillor

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

coun·cil·lor [councillor councillors] (NAmE also coun·cil·or) BrE ['kɑʊnsələ(r)]

" NAmE ['kɑʊnsələr] " noun (abbr. Cllr)

a member of a council

- Councillor Ann Jones
- Talk to your local councillor about the problem.

see also ↑councilman, ↑councilwomanWord Origin:late Middle English: alteration of ↑counsellor, by association with ↑council.Example Bank:

- He is the area's only Green county councillor.
- She served as a Conservative councillor for Harwich for many years.
- Talk to your city councillor about the problem.

councillor

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

coun·cil·lor BrE " AmE " British English, councilor American English /'kɑʊnsələ $ -ər/noun [countable]

a member of a council:

" Write to your local councillor to complain.

- ▶ Do not confuse with counsellor (=someone whose job is to help people talk about and deal with their problems).

councillor

Freakuency Pack

12500 2236<sup>MCW</sup>15000 1952<sup>COCA</sup>RANGE: 1k COUNCIL 18522

council 16513

councillor 75

councillors 70

cllr 0

cllrs 0

councilor 140

councils 1724

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

40 104742<sup>54</sup> *nn1*13 173713<sup>21</sup> nbn