clock Apresyan (En-Ru) 1. [klɒk] n 1. 1) часы (настольные, стенные, башенные) hanging [standing] clock - висячие [стоячие] часы the face of a clock - циферблатчасов to wind (up) a clock - завести часы to put the clock on [back] - переставить часы /перевести стрелки часов/ вперёд [назад] the clock is fast [slow] - часы спешат [отстают] the clock gains [loses] - часы идут вперёд [отстают] 2) табельные часы-автомат, таймер ($m \times m$. time clock) clock card - хронокарта; карта контрольных часов 3) биологические часы (организма) circannual clock - регулятор годичной жизнедеятельности what o'clock is it? - который час? it is five o'clock - пять часов 3. груб. «вывеска», лицо, рожа he sat there with a grin all overhis clock - он сидел и ухмылялся во весь рот 4. разг. 1) таксометр, счётчик такси 2) спидометр 3) счётчик пройденного пути (автомобиля) when one's clock strikes - когда пробьёт (чей-л.) час to set /to turn/ back the clock - тормозить/задерживать/ развитие; (пытаться) повернуть вспять колесо истории around /round/ the clock - круглые сутки to sleep [to work] the clock round - проспать [проработать] двенадцать часов подряд или круглые сутки to work against the clock - работать с большим напряжением, чтобы выполнить задание в срок to kill the clock, to run out the clock - тянуть время (в футболе и т. п.) 2. [klpk] V 1. 1) хронометрировать время (на скачках, состязаниях и т. п.) 2) спорт. показывать (какое-л.) время to clock the best time - показать лучшее время 3) засекать время прихода на работу и ухода с работы (с помощью автоматического приспособления; обыкн. clock in, clock off, clock on, clock out) 2. груб. дать по морде

I'll clock you one if you annoy me again - будешь ещё ко мне приставать, получишь в морду

[kløk] n

Ш

стрелка на чулке (украшение)

[klɒk] v диал.

- 1. сидеть на яйцах
- 2. кудахтать

clock

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

clock [clock clocks clocked clocking] noun, verb BrE [klpk] NAmE [kla□k]*

1. countable an instrument for measuring and showing time, in a room or on the wall of a building (not worn or carried like a watch)

- It was ten past six by the kitchen clock.
- The clock struck twelve/midnight.
- The clock is fast/slow.
- The clock has stopped.
- the clock face (= the front part of a clock with the numbers on)
- The hands of the clock crept slowly around.
- Ellen heard the loud ticking of the clock in the hall.

see also falarm clock, fbiological clock, fbody clock, fcarriage clock, fcuckoo clock, fgrandfather clock, folclock, ftime clock

- 2. the clock singular (informal) = \(^\text{millometer}\)
- · a used car with 20 000 miles on the clock

more at beat the clock at 1beat v., a race against time/the clock at 1race n., stop the clock at 1stop v., watch the clock at 1watch

Word Origin:

late Middle English: from Middle Low German and Middle Dutch klocke, based on medieval Latin clocca 'bell'.

Example Bank:

- · Her clock told her it was time to get up.
- · His countdown clock reads forty seconds.
- I could hear a clock ticking somewhere in the house.
- I'veset my alarm clock for six tomorrow.
- · It's ten o'clock by the kitchen clock.
- Let's turn back the clock to the last decade.
- My alarm clock didn't go off this morning.
- Pressing the ,Yes' or ,No' response button stops the clock.
- Pressing the buzzer stops the clock.
- · That clock's fast.
- The clock on the mantelpiece said twelve o'clock.
- The clock struck the hour.
- The clocks go back tonight.
- The player beat the clock and set a new record.
- This clock doesn't keep time.
- With jet lag, your biological clock is out of synch with the actual time.
- employees who are always watching the clock
- to work against the clock

Idioms: †against the clock = †clocks go back = †put the clock back = †put the clock back = †round the clock = †round the clock = †round the clock out = †clock out = †clock out = †clock up something

verb

- 1. ~ sth to reach a particular time or speed
- He clocked 10.09 seconds in the 100 metres final.
- 2. to measure the speed at which sb/sth is travelling
 - ~ sb doing sth The police clocked her doing over 100 miles an hour.
 - ~ sb/sth (at sth) Wind gusts at 80 m.p.h. were clocked at Rapid City.
- 3. ~ sb | ~ that... | ~ what/where , etc... (BrE, informal) to notice or recognize sb
- I clocked her in the driving mirror.

4. ~ sth (BrE, informal) to illegally reduce the number of miles shown on a vehicle's †milometer (= instrument that measures the number of miles it has travelled) in order to make the vehicle appear to have travelled fewer miles than it really has

Verb forms: verb forms

present simple
I / you / we /they	clock
	BrE /k/bk/
	NAmE /kla:k/
he / she /it	clocks
	BrE /k/loks/
	NAmE /kla:ks/
past simple, past participle	clocked
	BrE /k/bkt/
	NAmE /kla:kt/
-ing form	clocking
	BrE /klokzŋ/
	NAmE /kla:kiŋ/

Word Origin:

late Middle English: from Middle Low German and Middle Dutch klocke, based on medieval Latin clocca 'bell'.

See also: 1 punch in = 1 punch out = 1 set the clocks back

clock

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. clock S2 W3 /klpk $ kla | k BrE AmE noun [countable]

[Date: 1300-1400, Language: Middle Dutch; Origin: clocke 'bell, clock', from Medieval Latin clocca 'bell', from a Celtic language]

- 1. an instrument that shows what time it is, in a room or outside on a building:
 - I heard the clock strike six (=make six loud sounds).
 - The station clock was ten minutes slow (=showed a time ten minutes earlier than the real time).

by the hall/kitchen/church etc clock (=according to a particular clock)

- What time is it by the kitchen clock? \Rightarrow watch the clock at $^{\uparrow}$ watch 1 (8)
- 2. around the clock (also round the clock British English) all day and all night without stopping:
 - Kim has been working round the clock to finish it in time.
- 3. put/turn the clock back
- a) (also set the clock back American English) to go back to the way things were done in the past instead of doing things in a modern way used in order to show disapproval:
 - The new employment bill will put the clock back 50 years.
- b) to return to a good situation that you experienced in the past or to make someone remember such a situation:

The kids are all grown up now and you can't put the clock back.

- 4. put the clock(s) back/forward British English to change the time shown on the clock to one hour earlier or later, when the time officially changes
- 5. the clocks go back/forward British English the time changes officially to one hour earlier or later:
 - The clocks go back in October.
- 6. against the clock
 - a) if you work against the clock, you work as quickly as you can because you do not have much time:

Everyone is racing against the clock to get things ready in time.

- b) if you run, swim etc against the clock, you run or swim a particular distance while your speed is measured
- 7. twenty-four hour clock a system for measuring time in which the hours of the day and night have numbers from 0 to 23
- 8. start/stop the clock to start or stop measuring how much time is left in a game or sport that has a time limit
- 9. the clock is ticking used to say that there is not much time left to do something:

The clock is ticking for those who have not yet filled in their tax form.

- 10. the clock
- a) an instrument in a vehicle that measures how far it has travelled

on the clock

- a car with 43,000 miles on the clock
- b) an instrument in a vehicle that measures the speed at which it is travelling
- 11. run out the clock/kill the clock American English if a team runs out the clock at the end of a game, it tries to keep the ball for the rest of the game so that its opponents cannot get any points
- ⇒ ¹biological clock, ¹body clock, ¹dandelion clock, ¹time clock

COLLOCATIONS

verbs

- look/glance at the clock She looked at the clock. It was eight thirty.
- the clock says eight/nine etc (=shows a particular time) The clock said five so I went back to sleep.
- a clock strikes eight/nine etc (=makes eight/nine etc sounds according to the hour) In the distance I heard a church clock strike eleven.
- a clock ticks (=makes regular quiet sounds that shows it is working) There was no sound in the room apart from a clock ticking.
- a clock is fast/slow (=shows a later or earlier time than the real time) There's no need to hurry that clock's fast.
- a clock stops (=stops working) My clock had stopped at 6 am so the alarm didn't work.
- an alarm clock goes off (=rings at a particular time) What time do you want the alarm clock to go off tomorrow?
- set a clock (=make it say the right time) Don't forget to set your clocks to summer time.
- wind (up) a clock (=turn a key to keep it working) It was one of those old clocks that you have to wind up.

phrases

- the hands of/on a clock (=the long thin pieces that point at the numbers) The hands on the clock said ten past two.
- the face of a clock/the clock face (=the front part that you look at) I couldn't see the clock face from where I was sitting.

■ADJECTIVES/NOUN + clock

- the kitchen/sitting-room etc clock Harry glanced at the kitchen clock and saw that he was late.
- an alarm clock (=that makes a noise to wake you up) He forgot to set his alarm clock.
- a wall clock (=that hangs on a wall) A loud ticking came from the wall clock.
- a grandfather clock (=an old-style tall clock that stands on the floor) Where did you get that beautiful grandfather clock?
- a digital clock (-that shows the time as numbers that keep changing) A digital clock at the finish line shows runners their times.

- a travel/travelling clock (=a small one for taking on journeys)
 a cuckoo clock (=a clock with a wooden bird inside that comes out every hour and makes a sound)
- a church clock (=one on the outside of a church tower)
- a carriage clock British English (=a clock inside a glass case with a handle on top)

COMMON ERRORS

▶ Do not say 'the clock shows five o'clock'. Say the clock says five o'clock.

II. clock² BrE AmE verb [transitive]

- 1. to cover a distance in a particular time, or to reach a particular speed in a race:
 - Karen won in the 300 metres, clocking 42.9 seconds.
 - the first steam engine to clock 100 miles an hour
- 2. to measure or record the time or speed that someone or something is travelling at clock somebody at/doing something

- The police clocked him doing between 100 and 110 miles per hour.
- 3. British English informal to notice someone or something, or to look at them carefully:
 - Did you clock the bloke by the door?
- 4. British English to reduce the number of miles or kilometres shown on the instrument in a car that says how far it has gone, in order to sell the car for more money:
 - He knew the car had been clocked, but he couldn't proveit.

clock in/on phrasal verb especially British English to record on a special card the time you arrive at or begin work SYN punch in American English:

I clock on at 8:30.

clock off phrasal verb British English

- 1. informal to leave work at the end of the day:
 - What time do you clock off?
- 2. to record on a special card the time you stop or leave work:

By 6 p.m. most workers have clocked off.

clock out phrasal verb especially British English to record on a special card the time you stop or leave work SYN punch out American English clock up something phrasal verb to reach or achieve a particular number or amount:

- The Dodgers have clocked up six wins in a row.
- I clocked up 90,000 miles in my Ford.
- Councillor Scott has clocked up more than 25 years on the borough council.

Clock Freakuency Pack

125002580 MCW
150002292 COCA
RANGE: 1k CLOCK 13898
clock 11543
clocks 1618
clocked 402
clocking 153
clocker 11
clockers 52
oclock 119
COCA 500k Unlemmatized
70363612 11314 nn1
877782795 vv0

78230⁹⁴ vvi 155692²⁶ np1 293815⁸ nnu 341091⁶ jj