

expertise[ˌɛkspɜːˈtiːz] n

1. специальные знания; компетентность эрудиция (в какой-л. области)
  2. экспертиза, заключение специалистов
  3. ловкость, искусство
- a clever piece of expertise - ловкий ход

expertise

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

ex·per·tise AW [expertise expertises expertised expertising] BrE [ˌɛkspɜːtɪz]NAmE [ˌɛkspɜːrɪtɪz] noun uncountable expert knowledge or skill in a particular subject, activity or job

- professional/scientific/technical, etc. expertise
- We have the expertise to help you run your business.
- It is difficult to find staff with the level of expertise required for this job.
- ~ in sth/in doing sth They have considerable expertise in dealing with oil spills.

Word Origin:mid 19th cent.: from French, from expert, from Latin expertus, past participle of experiri 'try'.Example Bank:

- A high degree of expertise is required for this work.
- An outsider will lack the necessary expertise to run the company.
- Each area of the curriculum should be led by a staff member with appropriate expertise.
- He will bring a great deal of expertise to bear on this issue.
- How could he apply his academic expertise to practical matters?
- I have gained expertise in specialist financial areas.
- MPs may lack the necessary expertise to scrutinize legislation effectively.
- Professor Simpson provided expertise in engineering.
- She brings expertise on general financial and technical matters.
- She has great expertise in these matters.
- The project brings together expertise in teaching and library provision.
- The teachers would be available to share expertise and offer advice.
- The variety of technology requires a wide range of expertise.
- They met regularly to develop their collective expertise.
- They met regularly to share experiences and develop their collective expertise.
- This project builds on the existing expertise of our staff.
- We need to discover what relevant expertise is available to us.
- We need to draw on the professional expertise of a large number of teachers.
- We sometimes have to call on outside expertise.
- areas of special expertise
- His technical expertise was critical in developing the business.
- It is difficult to find people with the level of expertise required for this job.

expertise

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

ex·per·tise AC /ˌɛkspɜːtɪz/ BrE AmE noun [uncountable][Word Family: noun: ↑expert, ↑expertise; adverb: ↑expertly ≠ ↑inexpertly; adjective: ↑expert ≠ ↑inexpert][Date: 1800-1900; Language: French; Origin: expert; ⇔ ↑expert<sup>2</sup>]

special skills or knowledge in a particular subject, that you learn by experience or training

technical/financial/medical etc expertise

- What he's bringing to the company is financial expertise.
- trainee engineers with varying degrees of computer expertise

expertise in

- expertise in the management of hotels

• • •

COLLOCATIONS*verbs

- have expertise Each scientist had expertise in either mammals, insects, birds, or plants.
- need/require expertise It's a specialist job that requires expertise.
- lack expertise The country lacks the expertise, equipment and finance to deal with the disaster.

adjectives

- considerable expertise (also extensive expertise formal) (=a lot of expertise) The Marine Pollution Control Unit has considerable expertise in dealing with oil spills.
- medical/scientific/technical expertise How can an individual without medical expertise make such a decision?
- professional expertise (=skills requiring special education and training) A health and safety inspector will be glad to give you the benefit of his professional expertise.
- managerial /management expertise (=skill at managing people at work) Does he have the management expertise required to make the department more productive?
- business expertise (=skill at operating a business or company) The company took him on for his business expertise.
- legal expertise His father, also a lawyer, used his legal expertise to help civil rights groups.

▪ special/specialist expertise (=a lot of knowledge about a particular subject) Our haulage company has specialist expertise in transporting hi-tech products.

▪ relevant expertise All the applicants for the post had the relevant expertise to do the job.

■ phrases

▪ sb's area/field of expertise (=the subject or activity that someone is skilled in) a historian whose area of expertise is the Roman Empire

▪ degree/level of expertise Different financial advisers will have different levels of expertise.

▪ range of expertise The committee hopes to draw on a wide range of expertise from different institutions.

▪ a lack of expertise His lack of expertise in running such a large factory led to serious production problems.

---

expertise

Freakuency Pack

12500 2984<sup>MCW</sup>

15000 3186<sup>COCA</sup>

RANGE: 5k EXPERTISE <sup>7583</sup>

expertise <sup>7583</sup>

expertises <sup>0</sup>

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

5388 5062<sup>7566</sup> nn1

16 193298<sup>17</sup> nnu

---