

biological[ˌbaɪəˈlɒdʒɪk(ə)] a биологический

biological environment - биологическая среда biological methods - методы биологии biological ripeness - биологическая или физиологическая зрелостьbiological

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

bio·logic·al [biological biologically] BrE [ˌbaɪəˈlɒdʒɪkəl] NAmE [ˌbaɪəˈlɑːdʒɪkəl]a adjective

- connected with the science of biology
 - the biological sciences
- connected with the processes that take place within living things
 - the biological effects of radiation
 - the biological control of pests (= using living ↑organisms to destroy them, not chemicals)
 - a child's biological parents (= natural parents, not the people who adopted him/her)
- (of washing powder, etc.) using ↑enzymes (= chemical substances that are found in plants and animals) to get clothes, etc. clean
 - biological and non-biological powders

Derived Word ↑biologically

biological

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

bi·o·lo·gi·cal /ˌbaɪəˈlɒdʒɪkəl/ $ -'lɑː-/ BrE AmE a adjective

- relating to the natural processes performed by living things:
 - the biological functions of the body
 - Depression is both biological and psychological.
- biological weapons/warfare/attack etc weapons, attacks etc that involve the use of living things, including ↑bacteria, to harm other living things:
 - a ban on chemical and biological weapons
- [only before noun] relating to biology:
 - the biological sciences
- biological parent/father/mother etc a child's parent through birth, rather than through ↑adoption

—biologically /-kli/ *adverbbiological

Freakuency Pack

12500 3570^{MCW}15000 2207^{COCA}RANGE: 5k BIOLOGICAL 14706

biological 13722

biologically 984

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

6305 3059¹³⁷²² jj