

programme1. ['prɒvgræm] n*1. 1) программа party programme - программа партии political programme - политическая программа theatre programme - театральная программа study programme - программа занятий television programme - телевизионная программа [см. тж. 2] shuttle programme - амер. косм. программа запуска кораблей многоразового использования

all-embracing [expanded] programme - всеобъемлющая [расширенная] программа optional [compulsory] programme - спорт. произвольная [обязательная] программа

he had a heavy programme in his freshman year - на первом курсе у него была очень насыщенная программа занятий

he has a full programme tomorrow - завтра он полностью занят

2) вчт. программа (тж. computer programme) support programme - служебная программа, вспомогательная программа programme control - управляющая программа; программа управления master programme - ведущая программа paintbrush programme - программа рисования utility programme - вспомогательная программа programme maintenance - сопровождение программы programme unit - модуль (программы) programme loading - загрузка программы programme pack /package/ - пакет программ programme development - разработка программ programme checkout - а) отладка программы; б) испытания программы при сдаче в эксплуатацию programme body - тело программы programme device - спец. программирующее устройство, программный механизм2. представление, спектакль; передача television programme - телевизионная передача [см. тж. 1 1)] radio programme - радиопередача dramatized programme - постановка (обыкн. по радио)

the programme was a huge success - представление имело большой успех

3. план (работы и т. п.)

training programme - программа /курс/ обучения /подготовки/programme picture - «плановый» /рядовой/ кинофильм, снимаемый без особых затрат

my daily programme - план моей работы на день daily programme of meetings - ежедневное расписание заседаний to draw up /to arrange/ a programme of work for next term - составить план работы на следующий семестр what is our programme for tomorrow? - разг. что мы будем делать завтра?, чем мы займёмся завтра?2. ['prɒvgræm] v*1. 1) составлять программу или план*2) планировать

the meeting is programmed for today - собрание назначено на сегодня

2. спец., вчт. программировать, задавать программу или последовательность операций to programme an algorithm - запрограммировать алгоритм to programme smth. on a computer - запрограммировать что-л. на вычислительной машине

programme

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

pro-gramme [programme programmes programmed programming] (BrE)

(NAme pro-gram) noun, verb BrE ['prɒvgræm] * NAme ['prɒvgræm] *

noun

PLAN1. a plan of things that will be done or included in the development of sth

- to launch a research programme
- a training programme for new staff
- a programme of economic reform

ON TV/RADIO2. something that people watch on television or listen to on the radio

- a news programme
- Did you see that programme on India last night?
- What time is that programme on?
- Which programme do you want to watch?

FOR PLAY/CONCERT3. a thin book or a piece of paper that gives you information about a play, a concert, etc

- a theatre programme

ORDER OF EVENTS

4. an organized order of performances or events

Syn: ↑line-up

- an exciting musical programme
- a week-long programme of lectures
- What's the programme for (= what are we going to do) tomorrow?

COURSE OF STUDY

5. (NAme) a course of study

- a school programme

OF MACHINE

6. a series of actions done by a machine, such as a ↑washing machine

- Select a cool programme for woollen clothes.

Word Origin:

early 17th cent. (in the sense 'written notice'): via late Latin from Greek programma, from prographein 'write publicly', from pro 'before' + graphein 'write'.

Thesaurus:

programme (BrE) (AmE program) noun

1. C

- The university is to launch a new research programme.

plan • • initiative • • proposal • • policy • • strategy • • platform • • manifesto • |especially BrE scheme •

a/an programme/plan/initiative/proposal/policy/strategy/platform/manifesto/scheme for sth

a programme/plan/initiative/proposal/policy/strategy/scheme to do sth develop a programme/plan/initiative/proposal/policy/strategy implement a programme/plan/proposal/policy/strategy/manifesto/scheme

2. C

- She presents a programme on Channel 4.

show • • broadcast • • podcast • • webcast • • showing • • transmission • be on a programme/show a radio/television/TV programme/show/broadcast/transmission

a live programme/show/broadcast/webcast/transmission

see/watch a programme/show/broadcast/podcast/webcast/showing/transmission

Programme or show? In British English programme is the more general word; show is used about fairly informal TV or radio and is usually used in compounds. In American English show is the more general word; program is used about more serious TV and radio and is usually used in compounds

- (AmE) What time is that show on?

- She hosts a news program on TV.

3. C

- a programme of lectures

schedule • • timetable • • itinerary •

a busy/full/packed/detailed programme/schedule/timetable/itinerary

a hectic/demanding programme/schedule/timetable agree on/draw up/follow/change a/an programme/schedule/timetable/itinerary

keep/stick/adhere to a programme/schedule/timetable

British/American:

course / program

In BrE course is used for a series of lessons or lectures on a particular subject: = a physics course ◇ = a course of ten lectures .

In NAme you would say: = a physics course/program ◇ = a program of ten lectures.

In NAme a course is usually an individual unit that forms part of a longer period of study: = I have to take a physics course/class. This is called a module in Britain, especially in a college or university.

In BrE course can also mean a period of study at a college or university: = a two-year college course. In NAme you would say: = a two-year college program.

Collocations:

Television

Watching

watch television/TV/a show/(BrE) a programme/(NAme) a program/a documentary/a pilot/a rerun/a repeat see (especially BrE) an ad/(especially NAme) a commercial/the news/the weather catch/miss a show/a programme/a program/an episode/the news

pick up/reach for/grab the remote (control)

change/switch channel surf (through)/ (especially NAme) flip through/ (especially BrE) flick through the channels sit in front of/switch on/switch off/turn on/turn off the television/the TV/the TV set have/install satellite (TV)/cable (TV)/a satellite dish

Showing

show a programme/a documentary/an ad/a commercial screen a programme/a documentary run an ad/a commercial broadcast/ (especially NAmE) air/repeat a show/a programme/a documentary/an episode/a series go out/air/be recorded live attract/draw (in)/pull (in) viewers be a hit with viewers/audiences/critics get (low/high) ratings

Appearing

be on/appear on television/TV/a TV show

take part in a phone-in/a game show/a quiz show/a reality TV show host a show/a programme/series/a game show/a quiz show/a talk show/(BrE) a chat show be/become /work as a (BrE) TV presenter/talk-show host/sports commentator/anchorman/(BrE) newsreader

read/present the news

appear /perform live (on TV)

Programme-making

do/film/make a show/a programme/a documentary/an episode/a pilot/a series/an ad/a commercial work on a soap (opera)/a pilot (episode)/a sitcom write/produce a drama/sitcom/spin-off/comedy series

Example Bank:

- Female seals are needed for the breeding programme.
- He appeared on the programme last night.
- He is coordinating a Europe-wide research programme into treatments for prostate cancer.
- He must attend a sex offenders' programme.
- Her name doesn't appear in the concert programme.
- How is the programme to be financed?
- I saw a good programme on owls last night.
- In today's programme, we'll be giving you advice on how to manage your money.
- Mr Brown called for a national recovery programme.
- Renewed fighting disrupted the relief programme.
- She enrolled in a Master's programme in American history
- She helped him get into a drug rehab programme.
- Support is provided through the community outreach programme.
- The college offers a wide variety of programmes of study.
- The company began a major cost-cutting programme which involved 1 700 job losses.
- The course leader outlined the programme we would be following.
- The foundation's online learning programme brings the classroom to you.
- The government says it will scrap all of its nuclear programmes.
- The pilot programme of vaccination proved successful.
- The programme aims to increase employment.
- The programme of events also includes a parade and poetry recitations.
- We're planning an exciting programme of activities.
- What's on your programme today= What are your plans?
- What's the programme for tomorrow?
- What's the programme for= What are we going to do tomorrow?
- a community care programme for psychiatric patients
- a comprehensive programme of economic reform
- a diabetes treatment programme
- a graduate programme that focuses on a chosen profession
- a news programme hosted by Freddie Greenan
- a programme of 17th century music
- a residency programme for artists
- a residential drug treatment programme
- a two-year master's programme
- a varied programme of entertainment
- an after-school science programme that promotes science literacy
- an exercise programme targeting those weak points
- joint programmes between government and industry
- large-scale screening programmes of newborns
- students enrolled on the two-year MA degree programme
- students in an accredited journalism programme
- She briefly outlined the programme.
- She presents a news programme on Channel 4.
- The new programme is designed to encourage investment in the region.
- The programme for economic reform floundered in the first few months.
- The university is to launch a new research programme.
- They are organizing a week-long programme of lectures.
- We have an exciting musical programme lined up for you.
- We urge as many people as possible to enrol on our management training programme.

- We were asked to devise a training programme for new employees.

Idiom: †get with the programme

verb usually passive

PLAN

1. ~ sth (for sth) to plan for sth to happen, especially as part of a series of planned events
 - The final section of road is programmed for completion next month.

PERSON/ANIMAL

2. ~ sb/sth to do sth to make a person, an animal, etc. behave in a particular way, so that it happens automatically
 - Human beings are genetically programmed to learn certain kinds of language.

MACHINE

3. ~ sth (to do sth) to give a machine instructions to do a particular task
 - She programmed the VCR to come on at eight.

Verb forms: verb forms present simple

I / you / we / they	programme
	BrE / 'prægræm/
	NAme / 'progræm/
he / she / it	programmes
	BrE / 'prægræmz/
	NAme / 'progræmz/
past simple, past participle	programmed BrE / 'prægræmd/
	NAme / 'progræmd/
-ing form	programming
	BrE / 'prægræmɪŋ/
	NAme / 'progræmɪŋ/

Word Origin:

early 17th cent. (in the sense 'written notice'): via late Latin from Greek programma, from prographein 'write publicly', from pro 'before' + graphein 'write'.

Example Bank:

- Several evening events have been programmed.
- The exhibition was originally programmed to close last month.
- The final section of road is programmed for completion next year.
- The leak was discovered during programmed maintenance work.

See also: †get with the program ▪ †program

programme

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. programme ¹ S1 W1 BrE ² AmE ³ British English, program American English

/ˈprəʊgræm $ 'proʊ-/ noun [countable]

1. PLAN a series of actions which are designed to achieve something important:

the US space program programme to do something

a United Nations programme to control the spread of AIDS

programme of

a programme of economic reforms

2. TELEVISION/RADIO something that you watch on television or listen to on the radio:

What's your favourite television programme?

news and current affairs programmes programme about/on

There's a programme about killer whales next.

see/watch a programme

3. EDUCATION American English a course of study:

Stanford University's MBA program

a research program

4. IMPROVEMENTS actions that have been planned to keep something in good condition or improve something:

a new fitness programme

5. PLAY/CONCERT a small book or piece of paper that gives information about a play, concert etc and who the performers are:

a theatre programme

6. LIST OF EVENTS a series of planned activities or events, or a list showing what order they will come in programme for

What's the programme for tomorrow?

programme of

a programme of exhibitions throughout the year

7. MACHINE a series of actions done in a particular order by a machine such as a washing machine:

The light goes off when it finishes the programme.

8. get with the program spoken informal especially American English used to tell someone to pay attention to what needs to be done, and to do it

⇒ ↑program¹

•••

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 1)

■ ADJECTIVES/NOUN + programme

- an economic programme The party did not have a clear economic programme.
- a development programme This project is a central part of the development programme for the area.
- a reform programme After the elections, they embarked on an ambitious reform programme.
- an expansion programme The company's aggressive expansion program will double the size of the chain in the next four years.
- a building programme We will continue with our hospital building programme.
- a spending programme The government's spending programme is the subject of vigorous debate.
- the space programme (=for sending vehicles into space) He was involved in the Soviet space programme.
- a major/massive programme A major programme of modernisation is transforming public transport in London.
- an ambitious programme The European Community embarked on an ambitious programme of research.

■ verbs

- embark on/launch a programme (=start it) The company has embarked on an expansion programme.
- carry out a programme (also implement a programme formal) They attempted to implement a programme of reform.

•••

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 2)

■ NOUN + programme

- a television programme (also a TV programme informal) There aren't many good TV programmes on at the moment.
- a radio programme I was once interviewed for a radio programme.
- a cookery/wildlife/news etc programme More and more people are watching cookery programmes on TV.

■ verbs

- watch a programme She was watching a wildlife programme.
- see a programme Did you see that programme last night about crocodiles?
- listen to a programme A lot of people listen to that programme on the way to work.
- hear a programme I heard an interesting programme on the radio yesterday.
- present a programme British English, host a program American English (=introduce its different parts) At the time she was also presenting several television programmes.
- appear on a programme I was invited to appear on a TV programme.

•••

THESAURUS

- programme British English, program American English /'prəʊgræm/ something that you watch on television, or listen to on the radio: What's your favourite television programme? | I watched an interesting programme about Egypt last night.
- show /ʃəʊ/ a programme on television or the radio, especially an informal one in which people talk together, take part in a game etc: a late-night talk show | game shows | She hosts a weekly call-in radio show called 'Got a question?'
- documentary /,dɒkjə'mentəri/ $,dɑ:k- a programme that gives you facts and information about a serious subject, such as history, science, or social problems: a documentary about homeless people | a 50-minute television documentary
- soap opera/soap /'səʊp ,ɒpərə $ -,ɑ:k-səʊp/ a television or radio programme that tells an imaginary story about a group of people and their lives, and is often broadcast regularly for many years: the Australian soap opera 'Neighbours' | the huge success of television soaps
- sitcom /'sɪtkɒm $ -kɑ:m an amusing programme in which there is a different story each week about the same group of people: the American sitcom 'Friends'
- reality TV television programmes that show real people in funny situations or situations in which they must compete with each other. Often the people are filmed continuously for weeks or months: the reality TV show 'Big Brother' | The trouble with reality TV is that a lot of the time it's really boring.
- webcast a programme, event etc that is broadcast on the Internet: Universities may record and broadcast some lectures as webcasts.
- podcast a file of recorded sound and sometimes pictures that you can download from the Internet: The interview is available as a podcast.

II. programme² BrE AmE British English, program American English verb [transitive]

1. to set a machine to operate in a particular way programme something to do something

" I've programmed the video to come on at ten. ⇒ ↑program²

2. be programmed if a person or an animal is programmed socially or biologically to do something, they do it without thinking be programmed to do something

" All birds of this species are programmed to build their nests in the same way.

3. to arrange for something to happen as part of a series of planned events or activities:

" What's programmed for this afternoon?

programme

12500 374^{MCW}

15000 190^{COCA}

RANGE: 1k PROGRAMME 221950

programme 588
program 133069
programmed 1878 programmes 376 programming 7471 programs 75348
programed 10
programing 40
programmer 947
programmers 1168
programmable 405 programmatic 600
programmatically 50

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

269 29073⁵⁸⁸ nn1
