

prosper

[ˈprɒspə] v

1. преуспевать, процветать; благоденствовать
 the business prospers - предприятие процветает
 the child's health prospers at the sea - на берегу моря здоровье ребёнка улучшается
2. содействовать успеху, процветанию; благоприятствовать
 may God prosper you! - да поможет вам бог!

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

prosper

pros-per [prosper prospers prospered prospering] BrE [ˈprɒspə(r)] NAme

[ˈprɒspə] verb intransitive

to develop in a successful way; to be successful, especially in making money

Syn: ↑thrive

- The economy prospered under his administration.
- She seems to be prospering since she moved out of the city.

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	prosper
	BrE / ˈprɒspə(r)/
	NAme / ˈprɑːspər/
he / she / it	prosper's
	BrE / ˈprɒspəz/
	NAme / ˈprɑːspəz/
past simple, past participle	prospered
	BrE / ˈprɒspəd/
	NAme / ˈprɑːspəd/
-ing form	prospering
	BrE / ˈprɒspərɪŋ/
	NAme / ˈprɑːspərɪŋ/

Word Origin:

late Middle English: from Old French prosperer, from Latin prosperare, from prosperus 'doing well'.

Example Bank:

- His career prospered.
- The railway prospered from the new mining traffic.
- Tradesmen prospered by supplying the spectators with refreshments.

prosper

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

pros-per /ˈprɒspə $ ˈprɑːspər BrE AmE verb

[Date: 1300-1400; Language: Old French; Origin: prosperer, from Latin prosperare, from prosperus 'favorable']

[intransitive] if people or businesses prosper, they grow and develop in a successful way, especially by becoming rich or making a large profit:

Businesses across the state are prospering.

prosper

Freakuency Pack

12500 3997^{MCW}

15000 2783^{COCA}

RANGE: 4k PROSPER ⁹⁶⁸⁶

prosper 1126

prosper's 73

prospered 726

prospering 215

prosperous 2565

prosperousness 0

prosperity 4973

prosperously 8

prosperities 0

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

729 24652⁷⁷⁵ vvi

280 39025³⁵¹ vv0