

daddy['dædi] n

1. разг. папа, папочка
2. сл. отец, папаша (в обращении)

daddy

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

daddy [daddy daddies] BrE ['dædi] ^m NAmE ['dædi] ^m noun (pl. daddies) used especially by and to young children, and often as a name, to mean 'father'

- What does your daddy look like?
- Daddy, where are you?
- Come to Daddy.

Word Origin:

early 16th cent.: from ↑dad + ↑-y.

daddy

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

daddy S1 /'dædi/ BrE ^m AmE ^m noun (plural daddies) [countable]

1. informal father – used especially by children or when speaking to children:

Daddy's home!

2. the daddy/your daddy informal the best, most important, or most respected person:

Damon won the game for us – he's the daddy!

⇒ ↑sugar daddy

• • •

THESAURUS

- father a male parent: My father's a doctor. | He's a father of three.
- dad informal used when talking to your father, or about someone's father: Can I borrow your car, Dad? | Her dad retired ten years ago. | My dad was in the army.
- daddy a name for father, which is used especially by young children or when you are talking to young children: Where's your daddy? | Daddy, can I have a drink, please?
- pop American English informal (also pa old-fashioned) used when talking to your father, or about someone's father: I helped Pop fix the gate this morning. | Can I help, Pa? | He is in New York with his Pop's credit card, eating all the ice cream and pizza the city has to offer.
- papa old-fashioned informal used when talking to your father, or about someone's father: Papa had forbidden me to go. | She saw her papa's face change at this news.
- sb's old man informal someone's father – used when talking about him in a way that is not very respectful: His old man wouldn't let him use the car.
- stepfather (also stepdad informal) a man who is married to your mother, who is not your father but often acts as your parent: Her stepfather is really nice.

daddy

Freakuency Pack

12500 416^{MCW}15000 1449^{COCA}RANGE: 1k DAD 28982

dad 22001

daddy 5424

dads 1557

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

2688 6618⁵⁴²⁴ nn1