conscience Apresyan (En-Ru)

['kɒn∫(ə)ns] n

1. совесть

clear /good/ conscience - чистая совесть

bad /evil conscience - нечистая совесть pangs /pricks, remorse/ of conscience - угрызения совести freedom/liberty/ of conscience - свобода совести; свобода вероисповедания duty in conscience - долг совести

for conscience (') sake - для успокоения совести

to have smth. on one's conscience - иметь что-л на совести

to go against one's conscience - идти против совести to act [to decide] according to one's conscience - поступать [решать] по совести to get smth. off one's conscience - \cong успокоить свою совесть to make smth. a matter of conscience - считать что-л. делом своей совести /своим долгом/to come to terms with one's conscience - пойти на сделку с совестью to have the conscience to do [to say] smth. - иметь наглость /нахальство/ сделать [сказать] что-л.

2. сознание

public conscience - общественное сознание

matter and conscience - филос. материя и сознание

a guilty conscience is a self-accuser - посл. нечистая совесть спать не даёт

a good conscience is a constant feast - посл. у кого совесть чиста, тот может спать спокойно; чистая совесть душу веселит a quiet conscience sleeps in thunder - посл. у кого совесть чиста, тот спит спокойно

conscience

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

con-science [conscience consciences] BrE ['kvn∫əns] NAmE ['ka□n□ən]s noun

- 1. countable, uncountable the part of your mind that tells you whether your actions are right or wrong
- to have a clear/guilty conscience (= to feel that you have done right/wrong)
- This is a matter of individual conscience (= everyone must make their own judgement about it) .
- He won't let it trouble his conscience.

see also †social conscience

- 2. uncountable, countable a guilty feeling about sth you have done or failed to do
 - She was seized by a sudden pang of conscience.
 - I have a terrible conscience about it.
- 3. uncountable the fact of behaving in a way that you feel is right even though this may cause problems
 - freedom of conscience (= the freedom to do what you believe to be right)
 - Emilia is the voice of conscience in the play.

see also †prisoner of conscience

more at prick your conscience your conscience pricks you at 1 prick v

Idioms: †in conscience = †on your conscience

Word Origin:

Middle English (also in the sense 'inner thoughts or knowledge'): via Old French from Latin conscientia, from conscient- 'being privy to', from the verb conscire, from con- 'with' + scire 'know'.

Example Bank:

- After the meal she spent a week dieting to salve her conscience.
- · At the end of each day, examine your conscience.
- · Best came forward because of an attack of conscience.
- · He felt his conscience telling him to apologize.
- He had no conscience about taking his brother's money.
- · He wrestled with his conscience all night long.
- · Her conscience pricked her every time she thought of how cruel she had been to Kirby.
- Her conscience was bothering her a little.
- His decision appears to have been an act of conscience.
- · How can you do your job with a clean conscience?
- How could people of conscience allow this to happen?
- I had a sudden pang of conscience that I really ought to tell the truth.
- I have a clear conscience.
- I have only ever followed my conscience.
- I neverknew a more tender conscience on every point of duty.
- I'm sure she has something on her conscience.
- It should be a matter of individual conscience.
- It was on his conscience that he hadn't called her.
- It's important to let your conscience guide your decisions.
- My conscience dictates that I resign.

- She refused to listen to the voice of conscience.
- This question is a matter of individual conscience.
- To clear my conscience and make it up to you, I'd like to take you out to dinner.
- · We assuaged our conscience by telling ourselves that they would be worse off without us.
- · a bill which has shocked the conscience of every middle-class community
- · a dying man with a guilty conscience
- a government with no social conscience
- a seminal conference on religious conscience and poverty
- consumers with an environmental conscience
- individual rights and rights of conscience on our campuses of higher education
- the collective conscience of American business

conscience

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

[Date: 1200-1300; Language: Old French; Origin: Latin conscientia, from conscire 'to be conscious (of being guilty)', from com- (\Rightarrow COM-) + scire 'to know]

1. the part of your mind that tells you whether what you are doing is morally right or wrong

a guilty/troubled conscience

It was his guilty conscience that made him offer to help.

Well, at least I can face them all with a clear conscience (=the knowledge that you have done nothing wrong).

prisoner of conscience (=someone in prison because of their beliefs)

I can't tell you what to do – it's a matter of conscience (=something you must make a moral judgement about).

a crisis of conscience among medical staff (=a situation in which it is very difficult to decide what is the right thing to do)

▶ Do not confuse with consciousness(=the condition of being awake and aware of things).

2. a guilty feeling that you have about something bad you have done

twinge/pang of conscience

lan felt a pang of conscience at having misjudged her.

have no conscience (about something) (=not feel guilty about something)

They've no conscience at all about cheating.

3. on your conscience if you have something on your conscience, it makes you feel guilty:

He didn't want somebody's death on his conscience.

Could you live with that on your conscience?

4. not in (all/good) conscience formal if you cannot in all conscience do something, you cannot do it because you think it is wrong:

I couldn't in all conscience tell him that his job was safe.

COLLOCATIONS

adjectives

- a clear conscience (=the knowledge that you have done nothing wrong) I was able to answer his questions with a clear conscience.
- a guilty/troubled conscience (=the knowledge that you have done something wrong) His guilty conscience kept him awake at night.
- a social conscience (=a moral sense of how society should be or how you can help it) The writer's strong social conscience is obvious in all his novels.
- a moral conscience (=an idea of what is right and wrong) At what age do children develop a moral conscience?
- the public conscience (=people's idea of what is right or wrong) This scandal shocked the public conscience.
- the individual conscience Decisions like this are a matter for the individual conscience.
- the human conscience The human conscience is a product of civilization.

verbs

- have a clear/guilty etc conscience Does he have a guilty conscience about his role in the crime?
- wrestle/struggle with your conscience (=struggle to decide whether it is right or wrong do something) She wrestled with her conscience for weeks before deciding not to leave him.
- prick sb's conscience (=make somebody feel guilty) Some of the things he'd done still pricked his conscience.

phrases

- be a matter of conscience (=something that you must make a moral judgment about) Whether you vote or not is a matter of conscience.
- a crisis of conscience (=a situation in which it is very difficult to decide what is the right thing to do) He had a crisis of conscience about whether to take on the legal case.
- the voice of conscience (=something in your mind that tells you what is right and wrong) Other leaders urged him to listen to the voice of conscience and hold free elections.
- a prisoner of conscience (=someone who is in prison because they have followed their beliefs about what is right or morally good to do) Vaclav Havel was a prisoner of conscience who later became president of Czechoslovakia.

THESAURUS

- guilt the feeling you have when you have done something you know is wrong: Divorce often leaves people with feelings of guilt.
- shame the feeling of being guilty or embarrassed that you have after doing something that is wrong, when you feel you have lost people's respect: I was too scared to help him, and I was filled with shame.
- regret a feeling of sadness about something, especially because you wish it had not happened: Kate watched her go with a pang of regret.
- remorse a strong feeling of being sorry for doing something very bad: a murderer who showed no remorse

- contrition formal a feeling of being guilty and sorry for something wrong that you have done: The company CEO expressed contrition for the errors that led to the crash. | He sounded full of contrition. | They wanted to perform some kind of act of contrition (=do something that shows you feel sorry for something).
- penitence formal a feeling of being sorry for something that you have done wrong, when you do not intend to do it again: He expressed genuine penitence at the harm he had done her. I a period of reflection and penitence
- conscience the part of your mind that tells you whether what you are doing is morally right or wrong: My conscience has been troubling me ever since.

conscience ₁₂₅₀₀4426^{MCW}

150003770COCA

RANGE: 4k CONSCIENCE 5542

conscience 5218 consciences 324

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

36086851⁵²⁰⁴ nn1 14214311¹⁴ nnu Freakuency Pack