

counsellingcoun·sel·ling [counselling] (especially US coun·sel·ing) BrE ['kaʊnsəlɪŋ] ⁴*NAmE* ['kaʊnsəlɪŋ] ⁴ noun uncountable

professional advice about a problem

- marriage guidance counselling
- a student counselling service

Example Bank:

- He was suspended from school and referred for counselling.
- Many of the victims of the tragedy still need counselling.
- The survivors were offered counselling.
- Their doctor recommended professional counselling.
- We provide fertility treatment and genetic counselling for couples trying to conceive.
- counselling for depression
- counselling for parents and children
- the new student counselling and guidance service
- An individual and group counselling service is available
- Some groups offer bereavement counselling.
- The company specializes in stress counselling for executives.

counselling

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

coun·sel·ling BrE ⁴ AmE ⁴ British English, counseling American English /'kaʊnsəlɪŋ/noun [uncountable]

advice and support given by a counsellor to someone with problems, usually after talking to them group/bereavement/debt etc counselling⁴ a debt counselling servicecounselling for⁴ She's been undergoing counseling for depression.counselling

Freakuency Pack

12500 4639^{MCW}15000 1269^{COCA}RANGE: 4k COUNSEL 36821

counsel 11993

counsels 730

counseled 770

counselled 17

counselling 333

counsellings 0

counsellor 169

counsellors 120

counselor 6583

counselors 6366

counseling 9740

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

116 40888³²³ nn110 259578¹⁰ vvg