weaken

['wi:kən] v

to weaken a blow - ослабить /амортизировать удар he has been weakened by illness - он изнурён болезнью to weaken wine with water - разбавлять вино водой

2. слабеть, ослабевать

3. разе. поддаваться (убеждению и т. п.); утрачивать решимость; сдаваться (на уговоры, просьбы и т. п.); колебаться; не выдерживать (характера)

4. бирж. понизиться (о ценах, курсах)

weaken

weak en [weaken weakens weakened weakening] BrE ['wi□kəħ NAmE

['wi□kə])* verb 1. transitive, intransitive ~ (sb/sth) to make sb/sth less strong or powerful, to become less strong or powerful

- The team has been weakened by injury.
- The new evidence weakens the case against her.
- This new story has severely weakened the President's position.
- · His authority is steadily weakening.

Opp: †strengthen

2. transitive, intransitive ~ (sth) to make sth less physically strong; to become less physically strong

- The explosion had weakened the building's foundations.
- His health was weakened by overwork
- She felt her legs weaken.

3. intransitive, transitive to become or make sb become less determined or certain about sth

- You must not agree to do it. Don't weaken.
- ~ sth Nothing could weaken his resolve to continue.

Verb forms: verb forms

present simple
I / you / we /they	weaken
	BrE / 'wiskan/
	NAmE / wi:kan/
he / she /it	weakens
	BrE / 'wi:kanz/
	NAmE / wi:kanz/
past simple, past participle	weakened
	BrE / 'wi:kand/
	NAmE /'wi:kand/
-ing form	weakening
	BrE / 'wi:kənıŋ/
	NAmE / wi:kanan/

Example Bank:

- The British pound continued to weaken against the dollar.
- The division of Germany had served to weaken the party.
- The judgement serves to weaken public confidence in the courts.
- The military was badly weakened by the sanctions.
- The regime was fatally weakened by the unrest and violence.
- The storm eventually weakened.
- a move designed to weaken the rebels
- exchange rates that dramatically weakened the dollar
- He began to weaken as his opponent continued the onslaught.
- She felt her legs weaken further as she climbed higher up the slope.
- She felt herself beginning to weaken in the face of his persuasion.
- The explosion had weakened the building's foundations considerably.
- This new scandal has severely weakened the President's position.

weaken

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

weak en /'wi kən Bre Ame verb [intransitive and transitive] [Word Family: noun: †weakling, †weakness; verb. †weaken; adverb. †weakly; adjective: †weak]

1. to make someone or something less powerful or less important, or to become less powerful OPP strengthen:

- Over the last two years the president's position has weakened.
- Changes in policy have weakened the power of the trade unions.
- The absence of this witness has weakened the case against the accused.
- 2. to make someone lose their physical strength, or to become physically weak: * Julia was weakened by her long illness.
- 3. to make someone less determined, or to become less determined: Such policies weaken the resolve of potential troublemakers.
  - When she begged him to let her stay, he weakened.
- 4. to make a building, structure etc less strong, or to become less strong:

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

- The earthquake in Cairo weakened a number of structures.
- 5. if a particular country's money or a company's †share prices weaken, or if they are weakened, their value is reduced weaken against
  - The pound has weakened against the dollar.

weaken

125004853MCW 150001263<sup>COCA</sup> RANGE: 2k WEAK 35118 weak 14622 weaker 2737 weakest 905 weakly 1224 weakness 5415 weaknesses 3207 weaken 1901 weakens 499 weakening 1497 weakened 3111 COCA 500k Unlemmatized 1370162721502 vvi 38436286399 vv0

Freakuency Pack