

record*1. [ˈrekɔ:d] n*1. запись, записывание; письменное упоминание, письменный след (чего-л.)

record centre - документохранилище record management - а) документоведение; б) делопроизводство record of a patient - мед. история болезни to make a record of smth. - записать что-л.

to keep a record of a conversation - вести запись беседы [ср. тж. 2, 1)]

I can find no record of it - это нигде не записано, это нигде не упоминается (письменно) to be on record - быть документально установленным /записанным/ [ср. тж. 3, 1) и ◇] it is on record that ... - известно, что ...; история говорит, что ...

the information we have on record - офиц. сведения, которыми мы располагаем2. 1) регистрация, учёт record clerk, record keeper - регистратор, делопроизводитель record department, record room - мед. регистратураrecord practice - воен. зачётная стрельбаto keep a record of road accidents - вести учёт /регистрацию/ несчастных случаев на дорогах [ср. тж. 1]

there was no record of any man with those initials - человек с такими инициалами нигде не числился record of attendances - список /регистрация/ присутствующих his record of attendances is bad - он часто отсутствует

2) pl документация; учётно-отчётные документы; отчётные материалы, данныеfield records - спец. данные полевого журнала, полевые данныеrecord material - воен. документация3. 1) протокол (заседания, испытания, вскрытия и т. п.); стенограмма; официальный документ public records - судебные протоколы abstract of record - выписка из записи /из протокола/record of evidence - протокол допроса свидетеля on /upon, in/ record - занесённый в протокол, запротоколированный, зарегистрированный [ср. тж. 1 и ◇]

to enter on the records - занести в протокол

I want to be on record as having ... - прошу занести в протокол, что я ...

2) pl юр. материалы судебного дела, письменное производство по делу*3) pl архив records of the Foreign Office - архив министерства иностранных дел keeper of the records, record keeper - архивариус, регистратор

4. 1) факты, данные (о ком-л.); характеристика, репутацияcriminal record - а) юр. досье преступника, регистрация приводов, судимостей и т. п.; б) уголовное прошлое; судимость to have a good record - иметь хорошую репутацию; прожить жизнь честно to have /to show/ a clean record - а) иметь безупречное прошлое; б) юр. не иметь судимости

he has a police record - он известен полиции, у него есть приводы his record is against him - его прошлое говорит против него

as is evident from his whole record - как явствует из всего, что он сделал в жизни; свидетельством чего является вся его деятельность

2) достижения; результаты деятельности

the committee's record to date - то, что уже сделано комитетом к настоящему времени

the committee's record is not unimpressive - комитет сделал немало that airline has a bad record - эта авиалиния пользуется дурной славой /считается ненадёжной/

5. спорт. рекорд

world record - мировой рекорд

to beat /to break, to cut/ the record - побить рекорд to achieve a record - поставить /установить/ рекорд

two records fell - два рекорда были побиты /пали/

6. 1) звукозапись; запись (звука, изображения на пластинку, плёнку и т. п.); фонограмма, фотограмма, кинограмма sound record - фонограмма, звуковая дорожка sound-and-picture record - фотофонограмма photographic record - фотозапись, фоторегистрация camera record - (фото)снимок

telemetry record - телеметрическая запись echo record - спец. регистрация эха /отражённого импульса/2) диаграмма (самописца)*3) граммофонная пластинка

mother record - матрица (пластинки)

4) амер. перфорированный нотный ролик (для механического фортепьяно)*7. (исторический) памятник (о статуе, картине, манускрипте и т. п.)

the records of the past - памятники прошлого

the records of medieval life in the British Museum - средневековые экспонаты в Британском музее to put /to place/ oneself on record - отличиться, выдвинуться; увековечить своё имя, оставить след в истории [ср. тж. ◇] history has not preserved any record of ... - история не сохранила письменных свидетельств о ...

8. (the record) преим. юр. суть дела

to keep to the record - держаться сути дела to travel out of the record - а) приводить доводы, не относящиеся к делу; б) говорить не по существу

9. юр., библ. свидетельское показание; свидетель to bear record to - свидетельствовать, удостоверить истинность (фактов и т. п.)

I can bear record to his good character - я могу засвидетельствовать его добродетельность to call /to take/ to record - призывать в свидетели; ссылаться на

God is my record that ... - видит бог, что я ...

10. поэт. память

to pass from record - исчезнуть из памяти; пройти, не оставив следа

◇ on (the) record - официальный гласный, открытый, несекретный, объявленный публично; сделанный или предназначенный для печати (о заявлении и т. п.) [ср. тж. 1 и 3, 1]]

to place on record - зафиксировать

I want to place on record that ... - надо констатировать/заявить, что ...

to go /to put oneself/ on record - заявить что-л. официально сделать заявление для печати [ср. тж. 7]

off the record - не для печати; конфиденциальный не подлежащий оглашению (особ. в печати); неофициальный (о заявлении и т. п.)

he spoke off the record - он выступал неофициально

this is strictly off the record - пусть это останется между нами; это строго конфиденциально of record - а) записанный, зафиксированный matter of record - документально подтвержденный факт, б) всем известный, несомненный their enmity was a matter of record for years - их вражда уже много лет всем известна record of service - а) послужной список; б) деятельность в прошлом, прохождение службы to keep the record straight - не допустить извращения (истины и т. п.); предотвратить возможность неправильного истолкования (факта и т. п.) to set the record straight - а) внести поправку в протокол, документ и т. п.; б) поправить чью-л. ошибку; разъяснить недоразумение; восстановить истинное положение вещей

I want to set the record straight - ≅ я хочу внести ясность

2. [ˈrekɔ:d] а

рекордный; небывалый, неслыханный (тж. перен.)

record pace [height, output, crop] - рекордная скорость [высота, производительность, -ый урожай]

record prices - неслыханные цены record drought - небывалая засуха record audience - небывалое количество присутствующих

3. [rɪˈkɔ:d] в

1. 1) записывать, протоколировать; заносить в список, реестр, протокол и т. п.

to record a speech - записывать или стенографировать речь to record the day's events - записать события дня to record one's thoughts in a diary - заносить свои мысли в дневник

he already has several convictions recorded against him - за ним уже числится несколько судимостей

this volume records the history of the regiment - в этом томе излагается история полка

2) регистрировать, фиксировать; показывать (о приборе); записывать (о регистрирующем или самопишущем приборе)

a seismograph records earthquakes - сейсмограф регистрирует землетрясения to record the time - спорт. засекают время, хронометрировать

the thermometer recorded 40u00B0C - термометр показывал 40u00B0C

2. 1) записывать на плёнку, пластинку и т. п.

the gramophone has recorded his voice - его голос записан на граммофонную пластинку

the programme was recorded - программа была записана на плёнку (в отличие от прямого эфира)

2) записываться (о звуке)

the piano does not record well - звук фортепьяно плохо записывается (на пластинку и т. п.)

3) снимать (фото- или киноаппаратом)

3. увековечивать

he is recorded to have built this church in 1270 - из истории известно, что он построил эту церковь в 1270 году

this stone records a famous battle - этим камнем отмечена историческая битва

4. петь, заливаться (о птице)

5. арх. свидетельствовать

record

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

re-cord [record records recorded recording] noun, verb

noun BrE [ˈrekɔːd] ; NAmE [ˈrekərd]

WRITTEN ACCOUNT

1. countable ~ (of sth) a written account of sth that is kept so that it can be looked at and used in the future

• You should keep a record of your expenses.

• medical/dental records

• Last summer was the wettest on record.

• It was the worst flood since records began.

MUSIC

2. countable a thin round piece of plastic on which music, etc. is recorded

• to play a record

• a record collection

see also ↑vinyl (2)

3. countable a piece or collection of music released as a record, or on CD, the Internet, etc

• a record company (= one which produces and sells records)

• During her career Billie Holiday made over 100 records.

• His new record is available on CD or as a download.

see also ↑album (2)

HIGHEST/BEST

4. countable the best result or the highest or lowest level that has ever been reached, especially in sport

• She holds the world record for the 100 metres.

• to break the record (= to achieve a better result than there has ever been before)

• to set a new record

• There was a record number of candidates for the post.

• I got to work in record time .

• record profits

• Unemployment has reached a record high (= the highest level ever) .

OF SB/STH'S PAST

5. singular ~ (on sth) the facts that are known about sb/sth's past behaviour, character, achievements, etc

• The report criticizes the government's record on housing.

• The airline has a good safety record .

• He has an impressive record of achievement

see also ↑track record

OF CRIMES

6. (also ,criminal 'record') countable the fact of having committed crimes in the past

• Does he have a record?

more at a matter of record at ↑matter <sub>n.</sub>

Word Origin:

Middle English: from Old French record 'remembrance', from recorder 'bring to remembrance', from Latin recordari 'remember', based on cor, cord- 'heart'. The noun was earliest used in law to denote the fact of being written down as evidence. The verb originally meant 'narrate orally or in writing', also 'repeat so as to commit to memory'.

Thesaurus:

record noun

1. C

• You should keep a record of your expenses.

log • • minutes • • diary • • journal • • blog •

in a/the record/log/minutes/diary/journal/blog

a daily record/log/diary/journal/blog

keep a record/log/diary/journal/blog

2. sing.

• The report criticizes the government's record on housing.

track record • • history • • background • • past •

sb has a record/track record/history/background of sth record/track record/background in sth

a/an proven/impressive/excellent/poor record/track record

Collocations:

Music

Listening

listen to/enjoy/love/be into music/classical music/jazz/pop/hip-hop, etc.

listen to the radio/an MP3 player/a CD

put on/play a CD/a song/some music

turn down/up the music/radio/volume/bass

go to a concert/festival/gig/performance/recital

copy/burn/rip music/a CD/a DVD

download music/an album/a song/a demo/a video

Playing

play a musical instrument/the piano/percussion/a note/a riff/the melody/a concerto/a duet/by ear

sing an anthem/a ballad/a solo/an aria/the blues/in a choir/soprano/alto/tenor/bass/out of tune

hum a tune/a theme tune/a lullaby

accompany a singer/choir

strum a chord/guitar

Performing

form/start/get together/join/quit/leave a band

give a performance/concert/recital

do a concert/recital/gig play a concert/gig/festival/venue perform (BrE) at/in a concert/(especially NAmE) a concert appear at a festival/live go on/embark on a (world) tour

Recording

write/compose music/a ballad/a melody/a tune/a song/a theme song/an opera/a symphony land/get/sign a record deal be signed to/be dropped by a record company record/release/put out an album/a single/a CD be top of/top the charts get to/go straight to/go straight in at/enter the charts at number one

Example Bank:

- Apart from a parking ticket ten years before, she had an unblemished driving record.
- Bob Beamon's long-standing record for the long jump was eventually broken.
- Bubka rewrote the pole-vault record books during his career.
- Do you have a record of how much you spent?
- Fossil records suggest that the region was covered in water until relatively recently.
- Given the patchy track record of previous international declarations, is it worthwhile to have such ambitious goals?
- He compiled a lifetime record of 209–161.
- He has a long arrest record.
- He has a spotty military record.
- He has always kept an accurate record of his spending.
- He has an appalling record for dishonesty.
- He has an unenviable record of ill-health.
- He has equalled the Olympic record.
- He hopes to equal the Olympic record.
- He is the latest public figure to go on (the) record about corruption in politics.
- Her record shows that she is able to compete under great pressure.
- Her walls became lined with gold and platinum records.
- His mile record stood for twelve years.
- I checked the records but nobody by that name has worked here.
- I got to work in record time.
- I'll put on one of my favourite records.
- If she continues like this she could beat the record.
- It was the driest summer on record.
- Lewis established a new world record with a time of 9.86 seconds.
- Medical records should not be destroyed.
- No formal record of the marriage now survives
- No record exists of a battle on this site.
- Off the record, he told the interviewer what he thought of his colleagues.
- On past records, she should have no problem passing the exam.
- Our record compares favourably with that of any similar-sized company.
- Prosecutors had subpoenaed his phone records.
- She called a press conference to set the record straight about her disappearance.
- She has just set a new world record.
- She is on record as saying that she once took drugs.
- The US saw its trade deficit shrink at a record pace in September.
- The airline's accident record makes it among the safest.
- The album earned him his second gold record.
- The band had a hit record in 1973.
- The band signed their first record deal a year after forming.
- The company has maintained an accident-free record since it started business.
- The historic agreement is preserved in the university records.
- The ideal candidate will have a proven track record in project management.
- The records contain the bank details of all employees.
- The records showed that the building had not been inspected for ten years.
- The teacher spoke to her about her poor attendance record.
- The university records go back as far as the 13th century.
- There are cell phone records that prove we were not even in the apartment.
- There is no exact record of the number of accidents.
- These viewing figures are an all-time record for a single broadcast.
- They have a good record for recognizing emerging talent.
- They have the worst human rights record among member countries.
- They released their first record in 1963.
- This period is poorly represented in the geological record.
- This period of barbarian rule is poorly represented in the archaeological record.
- Under the law, every citizen has access to their official records.
- Unemployment has reached a record high.

- We have no record of your conversation with Mr Smith.
- When it comes to quality, our record speaks for itself.
- Who holds the 100 metre sprint record?
- a record of achievement
- a verbatim record of the meeting
- evidence in the geological record
- records on children's progress
- teenagers with a criminal record
- the government's abysmal record on crime
- Auditors inspected their financial records.
- I asked them to check their records again.
- I'm talking to you off the record
- No record of the transaction existed.
- She welcomed the opportunity to set the record straight.
- The airline has a good safety record.
- The body was identified from dental records.
- The company's records were neither complete nor up-to-date.
- The computer automatically updates my records every day.
- The report criticizes the government's record on housing.
- Their records date back to 1846.
- This seems to be an authentic record of the events around that time.
- Who has your medical records?
- Would you go on (the) record as saying that?

Idioms: ↑for the record ▪ ↑off the record ▪ on record ▪ ↑put something on record ▪ ↑put the record straight verb BrE [rɪ'kɔːd] ; NAmE [rɪ'kɔːrd]

KEEP ACCOUNT

- transitive to keep a permanent account of facts or events by writing them down, filming them, storing them in a computer, etc
  - ~ sth Her childhood is recorded in the diaries of those years.
  - You should record all your expenses during your trip.
  - ~ how, what, etc... His job is to record how politicians vote on major issues.
  - ~ that... She recorded in her diary that they crossed the Equator on 15 June.
  - it is recorded that... It is recorded that, by the year 630, four hundred monks were attached to the monastery.

MAKE COPY

- transitive, intransitive to make a copy of music, a film/movie, etc. by storing it on tape or a disc so that you can listen to or watch it again
  - ~ (sth) Did you remember to record that programme for me?
  - a recorded concert
  - Tell me when the tape starts recording.
  - ~ sb/sth doing sth He recorded the class rehearsing before the performance.

MUSIC

- transitive, intransitive ~ (sth) to perform music so that it can be copied onto and kept on tape
  - The band is back in the US recording their new album.

MAKE OFFICIAL STATEMENT

- transitive ~ sth | ~ that... to make an official or legal statement about sth
  - The coroner recorded a verdict of accidental death.

OF MEASURING INSTRUMENT

- transitive ~ sth | ~ what, how, etc... to show a particular measurement or amount
  - The thermometer recorded a temperature of 40°C.

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	record
	BrE /rɪ'kɔːd/
	NAmE /rɪ'kɔːrd/
he / she / it	records
	BrE /rɪ'kɔːdɪz/
	NAmE /rɪ'kɔːrdɪz/
past simple, past participle	recorded
	BrE /rɪ'kɔːdɪd/
	NAmE /rɪ'kɔːrdɪd/
-ing form	recording
	BrE /rɪ'kɔːdɪŋ/
	NAmE /rɪ'kɔːrdɪŋ/

Word Origin:

Middle English: from Old French record 'remembrance', from recorder 'bring to remembrance', from Latin recordari

'remember', based on cor, cord- 'heart'. The noun was earliest used in law to denote the fact of being written down as evidence. The verb originally meant 'narrate orally or in writing', also 'repeat so as to commit to memory'.

Thesaurus:

record verb T

• The discussion was recorded in detail in his diary.

document • • chart • • log • • register • • enter • |especially BrE minute • record/document/log/register/enter/minute sth as sth record/document/register/enter sth in sth record/document/chart how...

record/document/minute that...

Example Bank:

- I recorded the film on video.
- It was all there, faithfully recorded in his uncle's formal style.
- She secretly recorded the conversation.
- The circumstances of her death were graphically recorded in the local press.
- The contract is witnessed by others and duly recorded.
- The event is vividly recorded in his journal.
- The geographical spread of the industry in the 16th century is hard to ascertain, for much of it is poorly recorded.
- The mother's occupation was not routinely recorded on the birth certificate.
- The names of those who died are recorded for posterity on a tablet at the back of the church.
- The songs were originally recorded on tape.
- The time of the accident is recorded as 6.23 p.m.
- The weights must be recorded accurately.
- This CD has been beautifully recorded.
- a concert she had recorded from the radio
- historically recorded events
- movies recorded on videotape
- the most famous and deadly influenza outbreak recorded in history
- As a war artist she recorded the work of female volunteers.
- Did you remember to record 'House' for me?
- Examples can be found in every era of recorded history.
- It is with great regret that we record the death of one of our founder members.
- The discussion was recorded in detail in his diary.
- The events recorded in this book took place more than a century ago.
- The figures recorded for 2007 show an increase of 23 per cent.
- The lists record how MPs voted on specific issues.
- The register recorded the names and addresses of residents.
- Their names are recorded for posterity on the monument.
- There were five million crimes recorded in Britain last year.
- These early experiments were all recorded on film, but this historic footage has sadly been lost.
- a recorded programme/concert

See also: ↑criminal record

record

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. record <sup>1</sup> S1 W1 /'rekɔ:d/$-ərd/ BrE " AmE " noun

[Word Family: noun: ↑record, ↑recorder, ↑recording; verb: ↑record; adjective: recorded ≠ ↑unrecorded]

1. INFORMATION [countable] information about something that is written down or stored on computer, film etc so that it can be looked at in the future record of

" I try to keep a record of everything I spend.

" According to official records, five people were killed last year near that road junction.

2. HIGHEST/BEST EVER [countable] the fastest speed, longest distance, highest or lowest level etc that has ever been achieved or reached, especially in sport:

" The American team set a new world record in the sprint relay.

3. MUSIC [countable] a round flat piece of plastic with a hole in the middle that music and sound are stored on ⇒ vinyl:

" I spent a lot of time listening to records.

" My dad's got a huge record collection.

" a major British record company ⇒ ↑record player

4. PAST ACTIVITIES [singular] the facts about how successful, good, bad etc someone or something has been in the past record of/in (doing) something

" Chemistry graduates have a good record in finding employment.

" the company's track record in improving conditions record on

" Mr Davis defended the government's record on unemployment (=what they have done about unemployment).

5. CRIME [countable] (also criminal/police record) information kept by the police that shows someone has committed a crime:

" He's only 18 and he already has a record.

They won't employ anyone with a criminal record.

6. the record books if someone is in the record books, they have achieved more than anyone else in a particular way:

" She hopes to get into the record books by becoming the youngest woman to hold a pilot's licence.

7. in record time very quickly:

" She was out of bed and ready for school in record time that morning.

8. off the record if you say something off the record, you do not want people to repeat what you say, for example in newspapers or meetings:

" May I talk to you, strictly off the record?

9. be/go on (the) record as saying (that) to say something publicly or officially, so that it may be written down and repeated:

" She is on record as saying that teachers are under too much pressure.

10. for the record spoken used to tell someone that what you are saying should be remembered or written down:

" For the record, the police never charged me.

11. set/put the record straight to tell people the truth about something, because you want to be sure that they understand what the truth really is:

" I would like to set the record straight on a few points.

• • •

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 1)

■ verbs

- the records show something Official records show that 44 businesses have stopped trading in the last 12 months.
- keep a record Teachers keep a record of students' progress.
- maintain a record formal The directors are responsible for maintaining adequate accounting records.
- place/put something on record (=officially say something or write it down) I wish to put on record my objection to the scheme.
- access records (also have/gain access to records) (=be able to look at them) Every citizen has the right to access their medical records.

■ ADJECTIVES/NOUN + record

- a written record Where written records do survive, they are incomplete.
- historical records Using historical records, we have produced an image of the temple.
- official records This has been the wettest winter since official records began.
- an accurate record Many hospitals did not keep accurate records.
- a detailed record Edwardian travellers left detailed records of their journeys.
- a proper record Failure to maintain proper records would be a criminal offence.
- confidential records They were transferring confidential student records onto computer.
- a permanent record You will have a permanent record of your work.
- medical/hospital/health etc records The hospital could not find my mother's medical records. | Patients' hospital records are kept on a database.
- financial records The company's financial records must be up-to-date.
- public records (=records of births, deaths etc, that the public are allowed to look at) He found the information while examining public records.
- police records Violent assaults rose 39 percent, according to police records.

■ phrases

- the biggest/highest etc on record Last summer was one of the hottest on record.
- a matter of public record formal (=something that has been written down so that anyone can know it) His salary is a matter of public record.

• • •

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 2)

■ verbs

- break/beat a record (=do better or be greater than an existing record) He broke the world record twice.
- smash/shatter a record (=beat it easily) She smashed the record by a massive 28 seconds.
- hold a record (=have it) Davies holds the record for most points in a season.
- set a record (=achieve it for the first time) The twenty-year-old set a new British record of 44.47 secs.
- equal a record (also tie a record American English) (=do as well as the record) Woods equalled the course record and finished eleven under par. | Davis tied a team record by hitting six field goals.
- a record stands (=is not beaten) His record stood for 42 years.
- a record falls (=is beaten) Another record will fall on the last day of the season, if Arsenal win their final game.

■ adjectives

- an all-time record The price of oil has hit an all-time record.
- a world record Powell equalled the 100 metres world record with a time of 9.77 seconds.
- an Olympic record He won a gold medal and broke the Olympic record by 44 records.
- a British/American/Italian etc record Jones won in 10.93 seconds, a new British record.
- a course/track record (=the best score for a particular golf course or time for a racecourse or track) Lewis set the fastest lap with a new track record.
- a club/team record Irvin holds a team record with 111 catches this season.

■ record + NOUN

- a record number/level/time etc Pollution in the lake has reached record levels.
- a record high/low The stock market reached a record high on August 21.
- a record attempt (=an attempt to break a record) They will make another record attempt next year.

• • •

- record information about something that is written down: your medical records | the public records office | I have to keep a record of all my spending when I'm travelling on business.
- file a set of written records, or information stored on a computer under a particular name: He began reading the file on the case. | I think I may have accidentally deleted the file.
- accounts (also books informal) an exact record of the money that a company has received and spent: Companies are required by law to publish their annual accounts. | Someone had been falsifying the accounts. | The company's books all seemed to be in order.
- ledger one of the official books in which a company's financial records are kept, which show how much it has received and spent: The costs have been moved from one column of the ledger to another.
- minutes an official written record of what is said and decided at a meeting: Both points are mentioned in the minutes of the last meeting on August 3rd.
- diary a book in which you regularly write down the things that have happened to you: In his diary he wrote, 'It's lovely having him here, we've had so many cosy talks.' | I'll just check in my diary to see if I'm free.
- blog a web page on the Internet on which someone regularly writes about their life, opinions, or a particular subject: I may not always agree with David, but I always read his blog.
- register an official list of names of people, organizations etc: Guests must sign the hotel register. | the national register of births, deaths, and marriages | Lloyds Register of Shipping
- roll an official list of names, especially of people who are allowed to do something such as vote or be in a class at school: the electoral roll (=list of people who can vote in an area) | The teacher called the roll (=read out the list of the names of the students, who then have to say if they are present).
- log an official record that is kept on a ship or plane: Mr Appleby said he complained to a senior officer, who made a note in the ship's log.

II. re cord<sup>2</sup> S3 W2 /rɪˈkɔːd/$-ɔːrd BrE <sup>AmE</sup> verb

[Word Family: noun: ↑record, ↑recorder, ↑recording; verb: ↑record; adjective: recorded ≠ ↑unrecorded]

[Date: 1100-1200; Language: Old French; Origin: recorder 'to bring to mind', from Latin recordari, from cor 'heart']

1. [transitive] to write information down or store it in a computer or on film so that it can be looked at in the future:

▪ Her husband made her record every penny she spent.

record that

▪ He recorded that the operation was successful.

▪ In 1892 it is recorded that the weather became so cold that the river froze over.

▪ The coroner recorded a verdict of accidental death.

2. [intransitive and transitive] to store music, sound, television programmes etc on tape or discs so that people can listen to them or watch them again:

▪ The group has just recorded a new album.

▪ Is the machine still recording?

▪ I'll record the film and we can all watch it later.

3. [transitive] if an instrument records the size, speed, temperature etc of something, it measures it and keeps that information:

▪ Wind speeds of up to 100 mph have been recorded.

record

Freakuency Pack

12500 501<sup>MCW</sup>

15000 402<sup>COCA</sup>

RANGE: 1k RECORD 119699

record 58953

recorded 13989

unrecorded 135

recording 10035

recordings 3173

records 29782

recorder 2791

recorders 841

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

27690 755<sup>52684</sup> nn1

3367 7965<sup>4238</sup> vvi

1448 15388<sup>1636</sup> vv0

297 39989<sup>336</sup> jj

48 99960<sup>59</sup> nnu