```
Apresyan (En-Ru)
story
['sto:ri] n
  1. повесть; рассказ short story - рассказ, новелла good /funny/ story - анекдот blue [off-colour] story - непристойный анекдот ghost story - история с привидениями detective story - детективный роман love story - любовный роман; рассказ или повесть о любви
  2. фабула сюжет
   the main thing in a novel is the story - самое главное в романе - это сюжет
   I read only for the story - я читаю, только чтобы следить за фабулой/за развитием событий/
  3. история; предание; сказка the story of printing - история книгопечатания stories of ancient Greece - древнегреческие мифы to tell smb. one's story /the story of one's life/ - рассказать кому-л. историю своей жизни /свою биографию/his story is an eventful one - его биографиябогата событиями a character famous in story and song - \cong легендарная личность the story has been several times handled in both prose and verse - это предание не раз излагалось и стихами и прозой
  4. заявление; что-л. сказанное, чьи-л. слова according to her (own) story - по её (собственным) словам; по её собственному заявлению that is the whole story - вот и всё, вот и весь сказ they all tell the same story - они все говорят одно и то же these bruises tell their own story - эти ушибы /синяки, ссадины/ говорят сами за себя there is a story that ... - говорят, что ... do you believe his story? - вы верите тому, что он говорит?
   it was an old story to him - он это уже много раз слышал /видел, встречал/
   the witness changed his story - свидетель изменил свои показания
  5. разговор, рассказ; россказни, сплетни scandalous stories are circulated about N. - об N. ходят скандальные слухи /сплетни/the story is discredited by some - не все верят тому, что об этом говорится many curious stories are told about elephants - о слонах рассказывают много любопытного
  6. разг., преим. детск. выдумка, ложь to tell stories - выдумывать, лгать, сочинять, рассказывать сказки, небылицы
  1) газетный материал, сообщение в печати to make a story out of a trivial event - сделать статью на материале незначительного события there is a story in him - о нём стоит написать / рассказать читателям
  2) лицо или событие, заслуживающее освещения в печати the biggest stories of the year - важнейшие события года it is quite another story now - положение теперь изменилось to make a long story short - короче говоря ['sto:ri] n = storey story culture - c.-x. культура, возделываемая на уступах или террасах Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.
story [story stories] BrE ['sto | it | NAmE ['sto | it | noun (pl. stories)
 1. ~ (about/of sth/sb) a description of events and people that the writer or speaker has invented in order to entertain people adventure /detective /love, etc. stories

  · a story about time travel
```

story

- Shall I tell you a story?
- He read the children a story.
- a bedtime story

see also †fairy story, †ghost story, †short story

- 2. ~ (about/of sth/sb) an account, often spoken, of what happened to sb or of how sth happened
  - It was many years before the full story was made public.
  - The police didn't believe her story.
  - We must stick to our story about the accident.
  - I can't decide until I've heard both sides of the story.
  - · It's a story of courage.
  - Many years later I returned to Africa but that's another story (= I am not going to talk about it now).

see also †cock and bull story, †hard-luck story, †life story, †shaggy-dog story, †sob story, †success story, †tall story

- 3. an account of past events or of how sth has developed
  - · He told us the story of his life.
  - the story of the Beatles
- · the story of the building of the bridge

- 4. a report in a newspaper, magazine or news broadcast
- a front-page story
- Now for a summary of tonight's main news stories.

see also †cover story, †lead story

5. (also story·line) the series of events in a book, film/movie, play, etc.

Syn: ↑plot

- Her novels always have the same basic story.
- 6. (informal) something that sb says which is not true
  - She knew the child had been telling stories again.
- 7. (NAmE) = 1storey

more at a likely story at flikely adj., cut/make a long story short at flong adj., the (same) old story at fold, pitch a story/line/yarn (to sb) at fpitch v., tell a different story/taletell its own tale/story at ftell

Idioms: †so the story goes = †story goes ... = †that's the story of my life

See also: †storyline

Word Origin:

Middle English (denoting a historical account or representation): shortening of Anglo-Norman French estorie, from Latin historia from Greek historia 'finding out, narrative, history', from histor 'learned, wise man', from an Indo-European root shared by wit 'have knowledge'.

Collocations:

Literature

Being a writer

write/publish literature/poetry/fiction/a book/a story/a poem/a novel/a reviewan autobiography become a writer/novelist/playwright find/have a publisher/an agent have a new book out edit/revise/proofread a book/text/manuscript dedicate a book/poem to...

Plot, character and atmosphere

construct/create/weave/weave sth into a complex narrative advance/drive the plot

introduce/present the protagonist/a character describe/depict/portray a character (as...)/(sb as) a hero/villain create an exciting/a tense atmosphere build/heighten the suspense/tension evoke/capture the pathos of the situation convey emotion/an idea/an impression/a sense of...

engage the reader

seize/capture/grip the (reader's) imagination arouse/elicit emotion/sympathy (in the reader)

lack imagination/emotion/structure/rhythm

Language, style and imagery use/employ language/imagery/humour/(especially US) humor/an image/a symbol/a metaphor/a device use/adopt/develop a style/technique be rich in/be full of symbolism evoke images of.../a sense of.../a feeling of...

create/achieve an effect

maintain/lighten the tone introduce/develop an idea/a theme inspire a novela poet/sb's work/sb's imagination

Reading and criticism

read an author/sb's work/fiction/poetry/a text/a poem/a novel/a chapter/a passage review a book/a novel/sb's work give sth/get/have/receive a good/bad review be hailed (as)/be recognized as a masterpiece quote a phrase/line/stanza/passage/author provoke/spark discussion/criticism study/interpret/understand a text/passage translate sb's work/a text/a passage/a novel/a poem

Synonyms:

report

story • account • version

These are all words for a written or spoken account of events.

report • a written or spoken account of an event, especially one that is published or broadcast: • Are these newspaper reports story • an account, often spoken, of what happened to sb or of how sth happened; a report of events in a newspaper, magazine or news broadcast: ■ It was many years before the full story was made public. ♦ the front-page story account • a written or spoken description of sth that has happened: • She gave the police a full account of the incident.

report or account?

A report is always of recent events, especially news. An account may be of recent or past events.

version • a description of an event from the point of view of a particular person or group of people: • She gave us her version of what had happened that day.

a report/story about sth

a brief/short report/story/account

a full report/story/account/version a news report/story to give a(n) report/account/version

Example Bank:

- 'How come you've only got one shoe on?' 'It's a long story.'
- A story was going around that the factory was in line for closure.
- · According to Rachel's version of the story, they threw the key in the river.
- And now back to our top story tonight...
- Antidepressants are widely believed to be effective medications. The data, however, tell a different story.
- · Anyway, to cut a long story short, we had this argument and I haven't seen him since.
- Anyway, to cut a long story short= not to give all the details, we had this argument and I haven't seen him since.
- At first he denied everything, but then he changed his story and said it was an accident.
- · Every newspaper carried the story.
- Full story on page 3.
- · He said he'd met Madonna. A likely story.
- He was boring people with more of his hard-luck stories.
- · He's covering the story in Gaza for CNN.
- His life was a sorry story of betrayal and rejection.
- I suspected he hadn't told us the whole story.
- Many years later I returned to Africa but that's another story.
- Many years later I returned to Africa—but that's another story= I am not going to talk about it now.
- More than one correspondent filed a story about the incident.
- · My dad sometimes read me a story at bedtime.
- · National Geographic ran a feature story on dinosaurs.
- · No one would believe such a tall story.
- Out of work with no money— that's the story of my life.
- She gave me some sob story about losing her credit cards.
- She told the police a false story about being attacked.
- She told them her life story.
- Stories abound of vandalism and looting.
- The New York Times broke the story and others picked it up.
- The biggest story of the day was the signing of the peace agreement.
- The film is the rags-to-riches story of a country girl who becomes a famous singer.
- The film lacks a coherent story.
- The film tells the improbable story of a monkey that becomes a politician.
- The magazine chose the peace process as its cover story.
- The magazine gives the inside story of life in a rock band.
- The moral of this story is that you should nevertake things for granted.
- The motives of the hero become clearer as the story unfolds.
- The official story was that the singer had broken his arm falling in the shower.
- The screenplay sticks to the original story.
- The story broke in January.
- The story is set in India in the 1930s.
- The story opens with a man hiding from the police under a woman's skirt.
- The teacher punished me without listening to my side of the story.
- There is one popular story in the town of a man-eating cat that lives in the forest.
- This story illustrates the dangers of living on credit.
- We had difficulty in piecing together the fragments of her story.
- · We swapped stories about our worst teachers.
- We will continue to follow this story and bring you the latest developments.
- We'll have more on this breaking story as developments come in to us.
- · a collection of short stories
- · a collection of stories by modern writers
- a story of moral redemption
- · his first published short story
- lurid stories of politicians' sexual adventures
- · scare stories about the harmful effects of the vaccination
- the epic story of a family's escape from war
- the familiar story of a star who turns to drink and drugs
- · the story of his arrest

- He was covering the story for the 'Glasgow Herald'.
- He's been spreading malicious stories about you.
- I always read the children a bedtime story.
- I can't decide until I've heard both sides of the story.
- Now for a summary of the day's main stories.
- Shall I tell you a story?
- · Sounds like another one of his tall stories to me.
- The story goes that this castle was founded by Emperor Frederick Barbarossa.
- · a/an adventure/detective/ghost/love story
- the front-page/cover story

story

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. storey BrE * AmE * British English, story American English /'sto□n noun [countable]

[Date: 1300-1400; Origin: story; perhaps because some medieval buildings had paintings on their walls telling stories] a floor or level of a building:

a staircase leads to the upper storey

two-storey/five-storey etc (=having two etc storeys)

THESAURUS

- floor one of the levels in a building: She lives in an apartment on the eighteenth floor.
- storey British English, story American English used when saying how many levels a building has: a five-storey car park | The school is a single storey building.
- the ground floor (also the first floor American English) the floor of a building that is at ground level: There is a shop on the ground floor. | The emergency room is on the first floor.
- the first floor British English, the second floor American English the floor of a building above the one at ground level: She lives on the first floor.
- deck one of the levels on a ship, bus, or plane: The Horizon Lounge is on the top deck of the ship.
- II. story S1 W1 /'stori BrE AmE noun (plural stories) [countable]

[Date: 1200-1300; Language: Old French; Origin: estorie, from Latin historia; ⇒ †history]

1. FOR ENTERTAINMENT a description of how something happened, that is intended to entertain people, and may be true or imaginary ⇒ tale story about/of a story about a princess fairy/ghost/love etc story

a detective story

tell/read somebody a story

- Mommy, will you read me a story?
- a book of short stories
- We cuddled together over a bedtime story.
- The film was based on a true story.
- Don't be frightened it's only a story (=it is imaginary).
- 2. NEWS a report in a newspaper or news broadcast about a recent event, or something that is reported on:
  - a front-page story
  - 'The Observer' ran a story about the scandal (=printed it).

cover story (=the main story in a magazine, which is about the picture on the cover)

- 3. EVENTS an account of something that has happened, usually one that people tell each other, and which may not be true:
  - The full story of what happened has never been reported.
  - Her parents did not believe her story.
  - First, he wanted to hear Matthew's side of the story (=his description of what happened).
  - He was having an affair with Julie, or so the story goes (=people are saying this).
- 4. EXCUSE an excuse or explanation, especially one that you have invented:
  - Where were you? And don't give me some story about working late!
  - Well, that's my story (=that is what I say happened), and I'm sticking to it.
- 5. HISTORY a description of the most important events in someone's life or in the development of something:
  - the Charlie Parker Story
  - He wanted to have his life story told on film.
- 6. BUILDING American English a floor or level of a building SYN storey British English:

a 50-story building

- 7. OF A FILM/PLAY ETC what happens in a film, play, or book SYN plot:
  - The story is similar in all her books.
- 8. it's the same story here/there/in ... used to say the same thing is happening in another place:

Unemployment is falling in the US, and it's the same story in Europe.

SPOKEN PHRASES

- 9. it's the same old story used to say that the present bad situation has often happened before:
  - It's the same old story too much work and not enough time.
- 10. it's a long story used to tell someone that you do not want to give them all the details that a full answer to their question would need
- 11. to cut a long story short (also to make a long story short American English) used when you only give the main point of

- something you are talking about, and not all the other details

  12. but that's another story used when you have mentioned something that you are not going to talk about on this occasion
- 13. that's not the whole story used to say that there are more details which people need to know in order to understand the situation
- 14. that's the story of my life used after a disappointing experience to mean that similar disappointing things always seem to happen to you
- 15. end of story used to say that there is nothing more to say about a particular subject:
  - As far as I'm concerned, Terry is still a friend end of story.
- 16. it's a different story used to say that something is not what you expect it to be:
  - It looks like a big house, but inside it's a different story.
- 17. LIE a lie used by children or when speaking to children SYN tale:
  - You shouldn't tell stories.
- ⇒ ↑short story, ⇒ cock and bull story at ↑cock ¹(4), ⇒ ↑hard-luck story, ↑sob story, ⇒ success story at ↑success (5)

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 1)

■ADJECTIVES/NOUN + story

- a true story 'Schindler's List' tells the true story of Oskar Schindler.
- a classic story (=old and admired by many people, or typical and good) a classic story about a little girl who falls down a rabbit hole
- a short story He has published two collections of short stories.
- a children's story Enid Blyton is famous for writing children's stories.
- a love story 'Romeo and Juliet' is a classic love story.
- a fairy story (=a children's story in which magical things happen) She looked like a princess in a fairy story.
- an adventure story an exciting adventure story for children
- a detective story Most detective stories are about a murder.
- a ghost/horror story They sat round the fire telling ghost stories.
   She likes reading horror stories.
- a bedtime story (=one that you read to a child before they go to sleep) He remembered his mother reading him a bedtime story.

verbs

- tell (somebody) a story Would you like me to tell you a story?
- read (somebody) a story She read a lot of detective stories.
- write a story The story was written by Lewis Carroll.

COMMON ERRORS

▶ Do not say 'say (somebody) a story'. Say tell (somebody) a story.

COLLOCATIONS (for Meaning 2)

■ ADJECTIVES/NOUN + story

- a big story (=a report about something important)
   He had promised the newspaper a big story on a major celebrity.
- the lead /top story (=the most important story in a newspaper or news programme) The floods were the lead story on the news that evening.
- a front-page story The Times published a front-page story about the scandal.
- a cover story (=the main story in a magazine, mentioned on the cover) Hello magazine did a cover story on her last year.

verbs

- do a story (=write and then print or broadcast it) I went to Iraq to do a story on the war.
- print/publish a story The News of the World decided not to print the story.
- run a story (=print it or broadcast it) There wasn't enough definite information to run the story.
- cover a story (=report on it) Her family complained about the way that journalists had covered the story.
- break a story (=report on it for the first time) The Daily Mail was the paper which broke the story.
- leak a story (=secretly tell a reporter about it) We may neverknow who leaked the story to the press.
- a story breaks (=it is reported for the first time) I still remember the shock when that story broke.

THESAURUS

- story a description of how something happened that is intended to entertain people, and may be true or imaginary: a ghost story | a love story | It's a story about a man who loses his memory. | a book of short stories
- tale a story about strange imaginary events, or exciting events that happened in the past: a fairy tale by Hans Christian Andersen | I loved hearing tales of his travels.
- myth noun [uncountable and countable] a very old imaginary story about gods and magical creatures: an ancient myth | Greek and Roman myths
- legend noun [uncountable and countable] an old story about brave people or magical events that are probably not true: popular legends of the creation of the world | According to legend, King Arthur was buried there.
- fable a traditional imaginary short story that teaches a moral lesson, especially a story about animals: the fable of the tortoise and the hare | a Chinese fable
- epic a story told in a long book, film, or poem which is about great or exciting events, especially in history: an epic about 13th-century Scottish hero William Wallace
- saga a story about a series of events that take place over a long period of time, especially events involvingone family: a family saga beginning in the 1880s
- yarn informal a long exciting story that is not completely true: The movie's a rattling good yarn and full of action.

verbs

- tell (somebody) a story (also recount/relate a story formal) I'd better tell you the whole story from the beginning. | He laughed as he recounted the story.
- give (somebody) a story I had the feeling that she wasn't giving me the full story.
- hear a story (also listen to a story) I've heard that story a hundred times.
- make up/invent a story She confessed to making up the story of being abducted.
- stick to your story (=keep saying it is true) He didn't believe her at first, but she stuck to her story.
- change your story During police interviews, Harper changed his story several times.
- believe a story The jury did not believe Evans's story.
- swap stories (=tell each other stories) They swapped stories and shared their experiences.
- the story goes (=this is what is people say happened) The story goes that he was drowned off the south coast, but not everyone believed it.
- a story goes around (=people tell it to each other) A story went around that she had been having an affair.

adjectives

- the full/whole story I did not know the full story.
- a plausible/convincing story She tried to think up a convincing story to tell her parents.
- a remarkable story The film tells the remarkable story of their escape from a prison camp.
- an apocryphal story (=one that is well-known but probably not true) There are many apocryphal stories about him.
- the inside story (=including facts that are known only to people involved) Though I'd seen the official report, I wanted the inside story.

phrases

44254414 ddq

• sb's side of the story (=someone's account of what happened, which may be different from someone else's) I would like to give my side of the story.

Freakuency Pack story <sub>12500</sub>539MCW 15000267<sup>COCA</sup> RANGE: 1k STORY 172723 story 125031 stories 47692 COCA 500k Unlemmatized 48128312124758 nn1 <sub>125</sub>56881<sup>175</sup> nnu 3012247340 np1 <sub>29</sub>144343<sup>29</sup> jj 63497026 pph1 63497616 ppy <sub>5</sub>376565<sup>5</sup> ii 4253014 cc 4253564 csa