

pounding[ˈpaʊndɪŋ] n

1. 1) дробление, измельчение
- 2) трамбование
2. что-л. измельчённое или раздробленное
3. 1) битьё
- 2) град пуль, снарядов, ударов и т. п.
4. 1) тех. стук; дрожание; вибрирование (двигателя и т. п.)
- 2) битьё (днищем о воду или грунт)
- 3) бой, грохот

pounding

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

pound·ing [ˈpaʊndɪŋ] BrE [ˈpaʊndɪŋ] AmE [ˈpaʊndɪŋ] *noun usuallysingular*1. a very loud repeated noise, such as the sound of sth hitting sth else hard; the sound or the feeling of your heart beating strongly

- We were awoken by a pounding at the door.
- There was a pounding in his head.

2. an occasion when sth is hit hard or attacked and severely damagedSyn: †battering

- The boat took a pounding in the gale.
- (figurative) The team took a pounding (= were badly defeated) .

pounding

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

pound·ing /ˈpaʊndɪŋ/ BrE AmE *noun1. [singular, uncountable] the action or the sound of something hitting a surface very hard many timespounding of the pounding of the waves on the rocks below

2. [singular, uncountable] the action or sound of your heart beating3. take a pounding*a) to be completely defeated:

Manchester United took a real pounding.

b) to be hit or attacked many times and often badly damaged:

The ship had taken a pounding on the rocks.

pounding

Freakuency Pack

12500 5811<sup>MCW</sup>15000 3348<sup>COCA</sup>RANGE: 5k POUNDING 6981

pounding 4433

pounder 127

pounders 85

pounded 2329

poundings 7

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

2256 10741<sup>2791</sup> *nn1*1466 15351<sup>1642</sup> vvg