

noisy[ˈnɔɪzi] a

1. шумный; шумливый; галдящий

noisy towns - шумные города

noisy person - шумливый /беспокойный/ человек noisy crowd - кричащая толпа

noisy market - рыночный галдёж

noisy with children's voices - звенящий детскими голосами

2. пренебр. кричащий, бросающийся в глаза (о костюме, цвете)3. элк. шумящий (о приборе, линии)

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

noisynoisy [noisy noisier noisiest] BrE [ˈnɔɪzi] ^m NAmE [ˈnɔɪzi] ^m adjective

(nois-ier, noisi-est)

1. making a lot of noise

• noisy children/traffic/crowds

• a noisy protest (= when people shout)

• The engine is very noisy at high speed.

• They are a small but noisy pressure group (= they try to attract attention to their ideas by frequent discussion and argument).

2. full of noise

• a noisy classroom

• The streets were very noisy throughout the night.

Derived Word ↑noisilyThesaurus:noisy adj. (often disapproving)

• The field was full of noisy children running around.

loud • • deafening • • roaring • • ear-splitting •Opp: quieta/an loud/deafening/roaring/ear-splitting noisea loud/deafening crash/roar/cheerExample Bank:

• The party was getting a bit noisy.

• The party was starting to get a little noisy.

• A noisy classroom is a poor learning environment

• Hundreds of demonstrators staged a noisy protest outside the embassy.

• The field was full of noisy children running around.

• They are a small but noisy pressure group.

noisy

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

noisy S3 /ˈnɔɪzi/ BrE ^m AmE ^m adjective (comparative noisier, superlative noisiest)[Word Family: adverb: ↑noisily, ↑noiselessly; adjective: ↑noisy, ↑noiseless; noun: ↑noise]1. someone or something that is noisy makes a lot of noise OPP quiet:

• The kids have been really noisy today.

• a noisy engine

2. a place that is noisy is full of noise:

• The bar was very noisy.

—noisily adverb:

• He blew his nose noisily.

• • •

THESAURUS• loud making a lot of noise – used about sounds, voices, or music: a loud explosion | He was talking in a very loud voice. | The music was too loud.• noisy making a lot of noise – used about people, machines, and places that annoy you: The traffic was so noisy. | noisy neighbours | a noisy bar• rowdy rowdy people behave in a noisy and uncontrolled way. A rowdy place such as a bar is full of noisy people, often behaving

badly: rowdy football fans | a rowdy bar

- raucous /'rɔːkəs/$'rɒ- especially written unpleasantly loud – used about the excited sound of groups of people: raucous laughter | raucous crowds
- resounding [only before noun] used to describe a loud noise when something hits another thing, that seems to continue for a few seconds. Also used about people cheering or shouting loudly: The door hit the wall with a resounding crash. | a resounding cheer

noisy

Freakuency Pack

12500 5816^{MCW}

15000 1722^{COCA}

RANGE: 2k NOISE ²²⁵³¹

noise ¹⁶⁰⁷³

noisy ²⁹⁸⁴

noisily ⁶³⁵

noises ²⁸³⁹

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

2505 10220²⁹⁸⁴ jj
