worm Apresyan (En-Ru) 1. [wɜ:m] n 1. 1) зоол. червь (Lumbricus) 2) глист, гельминт 3) гусеница, личинка 2. жалкое существо, ничтожный человек, презренная личность he is a worm (of a man)! - какое ничтожество! 1) червяк, червячный винт 2) шнек 3) = worm pipe 4. арх. змея; змей; дракон the worm of conscience - угрызения совести I am a worm today - я сегодня не в своей тарелке; мне сегодня не по себе to have a worm in one's tongue - быть сварливым even a worm will turn - самого кроткого человека можно вывести из себя the worm has turned! - у него наконец лопнуло терпение tread on a worm and it will turn - посл. \cong всякому терпению приходит конец 1. 1) ползти, пробираться ползком; вползать he wormed his way [himself] through the bushes - он прополз между кустами 2) (into) проникать, пробираться, втираться, примазываться to worm oneself into smb.'s confidence - вкрасться в доверие к кому-л. to worm oneself /one's way/ into a movement - примазаться к движению to worm oneself into a conversation - влезть в разговор 2. 1) очищать от червей (клумбу и т. п.) 2) гнать глистов 3. копать червей 4. мор. тренцевать(трос) Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed. worm [worm worms wormed worming] noun, verb BrE [w3 nh " NAmE [w₃□rnh 1. countable a long thin creature with no bones or legs, that lives in soil · birds looking for worms see also †earthworm. †lugworm 2. worms plural long thin creatures that live inside the bodies of humans or animals and can cause illness • The dog has worms. see also hookworm, tapeworm 3. countable the young form of an insect when it looks like a short worm · This apple is full of worms. see also †glow-worm, †silkworm, †woodworm 4. countable (computing) a computer program that is a type of virus and that spreads across a network by copying itself 5. countable, usually singular (informal, disapproving) a person you do not like or respect, especially because they have a weak character and do not behave well towards other people more at a can of worms at 1 can 2 n, the early bird catches the worm at 1 early adi

Word Origin:

Old English wyrm (noun), of Germanic origin; related to Latin vermis 'worm' and Greek rhomox 'woodworm'.

Example Bank:

· Worms burrow down through the soil.

Idiom: †worm will turn

Derived \(^\text{worm something out of somebody = \(^\text{worm your way into something}\)

verb

- 1. ~ your way + adv./prep. to use a twisting and turning movement, especially to move through a narrow or crowded place
 - She wormed her way through the crowd to the reception desk.
- 2. ~ sth to give an animal medicine that makes \(^1\)worms pass out of its body in the \(^1\)faeces

Verb forms: verb forms present simple I / you / we /they worm BrE /wa:m/ NAME /ws:rm/ he / she /it worms BrE /wa:mz/ NAME /warmz/ past simple, past participle wormed BrE /wa:md/ NAME /ws:rmd/ ing form worming BrE /wa:mag/ NAME /ws:rmin/

Word Origin:

31137244³² vv0

Old English wyrm (noun), of Germanic origin; related to Latin vermis 'worm' and Greek rhomox 'woodworm'.

worm

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. worm ¹ /w₃□m$ w₃□rm BrE * AmE * noun [countable]

[Language: Old English; Origin: wyrm 'snake, worm]

- 1. a long thin creature with no bones and no legs that lives in soil ⇒ ↑earthworm, ↑lugworm
- 2. the young form of an insect, which looks like a short worm ⇒ †glow-worm, †silkworm, †woodworm
- 3. have worms if a person or animal has worms, they have legless ↑parasites (=small creatures that eat their food or their blood) in their body ⇒ ↑roundworm, ↑tapeworm
- 4. someone who you do not like or respect
- 5. a type of computer †virus that can make copies of itself and destroy information on computers that are connected to each other
- 6. the worm turns literary used to say that someone who normally obeys someone without complaining suddenly refuses to do this \Rightarrow can of worms at \uparrow can²(4)
- II. worm ² BrE AmE verb [transitive]
 - worm (your way) into/through etc something to move through a small place or a crowd slowly, carefully, or with difficulty:
 He wormed his way under the fence.
 - 2. worm your way into sb's affections/heart/confidence etc to gradually make someone love or trust you, especially by being dishonest
 - 3. worm your way out of (doing) something to avoid doing something that you have been asked to do by making an excuse that is dishonest but clever:
 - Steve wormed his way out of going to the meeting.
 - 4. to give an animal medicine in order to remove †parasites that live inside it

worm something out of somebody phrasal verb to get information from someone who does not want to give it