

privileged

[ˈprɪvɪlɪdʒd] a

1. привилегированный
 privileged classes - привилегированные классы least privileged - наиболее обездоленный privileged share - фин. привилегированная акция privileged claim - юр. долговое требование, пользующееся правом преимущественного удовлетворения privileged deed - шотл. собственноручно написанный документ, не требующий подписи свидетелей
 I am privileged to be here - для меня /мне выпала/ большая честь присутствовать здесь
2. юр. конфиденциальный не подлежащий разглашению или оглашению в суде privileged communication - (конфиденциальные) сведения, сообщённые клиентом адвокату или пациентом врачу и не подлежащие оглашению
3. юр. связанный с депутатской неприкосновенностью; освобождающий от привлечения к судебной ответственности за диффамацию (в выступлении)

privileged

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

priv-ileg-ed [privileged] BrE [ˈprɪvələdʒd] AmE [ˈprɪvələdʒd] adjective

1. (sometimes disapproving) having special rights or advantages that most people do not have
 - Those in authority were in a privileged position.
 - She comes from a privileged background.
 - In those days, only a privileged few had the vote.
2. not before noun having an opportunity to do sth that makes you feel proud
Syn: honoured
 - We are privileged to welcome you as our speaker this evening
3. (law) (of information) known only to a few people and legally protected so that it does not have to be made public
Syn: ↑confidential
 - I'm sorry, that's privileged information.

Example Bank:

- She came from a financially privileged background.
- a uniquely privileged position in the American workforce

privileged

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

priv-ileg-ed /ˈprɪvələdʒd, ˈprɪvɪlɪdʒd BrE AmE adjective

1.
 - a) having advantages because of your wealth, social position etc OPP underprivileged :
 - Students from a privileged background have an advantage at university.
 - Only the privileged few can afford private education.
 - b) the privileged [plural] people who are privileged
2. having a special advantage or a chance to do something that most people cannot do:
 - Kylie feels fortunate to be in such a privileged position because of her successful TV career.be privileged to do something
 - I was privileged to lead the team.
3. law privileged information is private and is not allowed to be made public by law
 - • •

THESAURUS

- rich having a lot of money – used about people and places: She married a rich Greek shipowner. | one of the world's richest nations
- wealthy rich – used about people and places, especially when they have been rich for a long time: wealthy landowners | Orange County is a very wealthy area. | a wealthy Arab businessman
- affluent formal rich – used about societies, groups of people, or areas where people live, where people have nice houses and a lot of expensive possessions: today's affluent society | affluent young professionals | an affluent suburb of Boston
- prosperous formal rich – used about places and groups of people, especially when their money is related to success in business: Sales have grown fastest in the more prosperous areas of the south. | prosperous merchants and bankers
- well-off fairly rich compared to other people, so that you can live very comfortably: Her parents are pretty well-off. | children from well-off families
- well-to-do written rich – used especially in the past about families and people who had a fairly high position in society: Only well-to-do families could afford to send their children to university. | The Westons were now well-to-do and there was no necessity for work.
- privileged having special advantages because your family have a lot of money and a high position in society: He comes from a privileged background. | The sport was only played by a privileged few.
- comfortably off [not before noun] having enough money to have a nice life without having to worry about money: I wouldn't say that we were rich – just comfortably off.
- be rolling in it/be loaded informal to be extremely rich: They've got two houses and a boat – they must be rolling in it. | Her books were so successful that she's loaded now.

privileged

Freakuency Pack

12500 6231 MCW

15000 2520 COCA

RANGE: 3k PRIVILEGE 11619

privilege 5611

privileged 3280

privileges 2728

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

2592 9685³²¹⁴ jj

33 129209³⁶ vvv

28 142224³⁰ vvd
