

- solo
- ['sɒv|ləv] n (pl -/los [-{'sɒv}ləvz], -/li)
 1. соло, произведение для исполнения соло; сольная партия
a violin [piano] solo - соло для скрипки [для фортепиано]
 2. сольное исполнение, сольный номер
 3. ав. самостоятельный полёт
 4. карт.
 - 1) игра за себя, игра в одиночку
 - 2) заявка на пять взяток (в висте)
 5. сл. прогулка в одиночестве
 - ['sɒvləv] a
сольный; одиночный
solo composition - сольное произведение
solo flight - ав. (первый) самостоятельный полёт solo part - сольная партия
solo player - ирон. горе-музыкант, плохой музыкант (которого никто не хочет слушать)
 - ['sɒvləv] adv
в одиночку; соло
to fly solo - летать в одиночку /самостоятельно/
 - ['sɒvləv] v
 1. солировать, исполнять соло
 2. ав. выполнять самостоятельный полёт

solo

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

▪ I. solo [solo solos soli] adjective, noun BrE ['sɒləʊ] ^m NAme ['sɒləʊ] ^m
adjective only before noun

1. done by one person alone, without anyone helping them
 - his first solo flight
 - a solo effort
2. connected with or played as a musical solo
 - a solo artist (= for example a singer who sings on their own, not as part of a group)
 - a piece for solo violin

Word Origin:late 17th cent. (as a musical term): from Italian, from Latin solus 'alone'.Example Bank:

- His first solo flight was in 1954.
- She went on to record a solo album after the band split up.
- a solo exhibition/show/climb/goal
- a solo instrument/piano/voice/performance/act/piece/album/record/artist/career/flight/pilot

noun (pl. solos)

1. a piece of music, dance or entertainment performed by only one person
 - a guitar solocompare ↑duet
2. a flight in which the pilot flies alone without an ↑instructor (= teacher)

Word Origin:late 17th cent. (as a musical term): from Italian, from Latin solus 'alone'.Example Bank:

- The song features an extended guitar solo.
- the opening piano solo

▪ II. solo adverb

- She wanted to fly solo across the Atlantic.
- After three years with the band he decided to go solo.

Main entry: ↑solo _{derived}solo

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. solo ¹ /'sɒləʊ $ 'sɒləʊ/ BrE ^m AmE ^m adjective [only before noun]

1. done alone without anyone else helping you solo flight/voyage/ascent
 - ^m Ridgeway's solo voyage across the Atlantic
 - ^m the first solo ascent of Everest
 - ^m a solo effort
2. relating to a record or piece of music that is performed by a single musician, not a group:

a solo album

a solo passage for viola

—solo adverb:

When did you first fly solo?

Amos quit the company, determined to go solo (=work for himself).

• • •

THESAURUS

- on your own/by yourself without help from anyone else: I can't move the bed on my own. | See if you can work out the answer by yourself. | all on your own/all by yourself (=used when you feel impressed or feel sympathy for someone): Did you paint this picture all on your own? | It's not fair that she does everything all by herself.
- alone without any help from anyone else. Alone is more formal and less common than on your own or by yourself: Police believe the killer acted alone.
- independently without asking for help or advice from anyone: Students are taught to work independently. | One day she will have to live independently without the support of her family.
- unaided without the help of anyone or anything – used especially about people who are very weak, ill etc: He is unable to breathe unaided. | After treatment, he was able to go up and down stairs unaided.
- single-handedly doing something difficult or impressive without help from anyone else: She single-handedly reformed the entire system.
- solo by one person, not a group: Lindbergh's solo flight across the Atlantic Ocean | She is planning to release a solo album. | He sang and played the song solo.
- lone adjective [only before noun] doing something alone. Used especially in the following phrases: a lone gunman: Police say the attack was carried out by a lone gunman. | The government should do more to help lone parents (=who raise a child alone).
- self-made adjective someone who has become very rich or successful without help from anyone else: a self-made man/millionaire/businessman etc: Like most self-made men, he was extremely self-confident.

II. solo² BrE * AmE * noun (plural solos) [countable]

[Date: 1600-1700; Language: Italian; Origin: solo 'alone', from Latin solus; ⇒ †sole¹]

1. a piece of music for one performer ⇒ duet, trio:

a gorgeous piano solo

2. when someone flies or does an activity alone:

his first solo

III. solo³ BrE * AmE * verb [intransitive]

1. to perform a solo in a piece of music:

Brokaw solos brilliantly on this album.

2. to fly an aircraft alone

solo

12500 6291^{MCW}

15000 3309^{COCA}

RANGE: 5k SOLO 7147

solo 5934

solos 467

soloist 423

soloists 323

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

2960 7723⁴⁴¹⁹ nn1

960 18497¹²³⁰ rr

243 45473²⁶⁵ jj

7 179716²⁰ np1