

brandy['brændi] n

бренди, коньяк

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

brandybrandy [brandy brandies] BrE ['brændi] ^m NAmE ['brændi] ^m noun (pl. brandies)

1. uncountable, countable a strong alcoholic drink made from wine.
2. countable a glass of brandy

Word Origin:mid 17th cent.: from earlier brandwine, brandewine, from Dutch brandewijn, from branden 'burn, distil' + wijn 'wine' .Example Bank:

- Do you drink brandy?
- He added a dash of brandy to his coffee.
- He sat cradling his brandy glass.
- I'll have some brandy, please.
- She poured herself a large measure of brandy.
- a stiff brandy and soda

brandy

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En) brandy /'brændi/ BrE ^m AmE ^m noun (plural brandies) [uncountable and countable][Date: 1600-1700; Origin: brandywine (1600-1700) from Dutch brandewijn 'burnt wine, distilled wine']

a strong alcoholic drink made from wine, or a glass of this drink

brandy

Freakuency Pack

12500 6294^{MCW}15000 6798^{COCA}RANGE: 5k BRANDY ¹⁶⁸²brandy ¹⁶²³brandies ⁵⁹

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

855 15467¹⁶²³ nn1