

папа
I [pə'pɑː, 'pæpə] n детск.
папа

II
[pə'pɑː] n
1. батюшка, священник (у православных)
2. уст. = pope 1 1)

papa Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.
papa [papa papas] BrE [pə'pɑː] AmE ['pɑːpɑː] noun (BrE, old-fashioned or NAmE)
used to talk about or to address your father

Word Origin:
late 17th cent.: from French, via late Latin from Greek papas.

papa Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)
pa [pa] /pə'pɑː/ $ 'pɑːpə BrE AmE noun [countable]
[Date: 1600-1700; Language: French; Origin: Greek papas; ⇒ ↑Pope]
old-fashioned a way of talking to or about your father:
" Good morning, Papa!
... .

THESAURUS

- father a male parent: My father's a doctor. | He's a father of three.
- dad informal used when talking to your father, or about someone's father: Can I borrow your car, Dad? | Her dad retired ten years ago. | My dad was in the army.
- daddy a name for father, which is used especially by young children or when you are talking to young children: Where's your daddy? | Daddy, can I have a drink, please?
- pop American English informal (also pa old-fashioned) used when talking to your father, or about someone's father: I helped Pop fix the gate this morning. | Can I help, Pa? | He is in New York with his Pop's credit card, eating all the ice cream and pizza the city has to offer.
- papa old-fashioned informal used when talking to your father, or about someone's father: Papa had forbidden me to go. | She saw her papa 's face change at this news.
- sb's old man informal someone's father – used when talking about him in a way that is not very respectful: His old man wouldn't let him use the car.
- stepfather (also stepdad informal) a man who is married to your mother, who is not your father but often acts as your parent: Her stepfather is really nice.

papa Freakuency Pack
12500 6374<sup>MCW</sup>
15000 8655<sup>COCA</sup>
RANGE: 5k PAPA <sup>973</sup> papa <sup>922</sup>
papas <sup>51</sup>
COCA 500k Unlemmatized
<sup>454</sup> 22201<sup>922</sup> nn1